A W A R D

1. We have heard learned counsel for the parties.
2. The present case is a case of grant of loan and the High Court has directed the appellant - Axis Bank to grant loan to the student in question. Now, almost a period of 13 years is over and the question of grant of loan at this juncture, does not arise.
3. Learned counsel for the appellant - Bank was fair enough in stating before this Court that the present Civil Appeal may be disposed of, leaving the question of law open.

4. The learned counsel for the respondent - student was fair enough in stating before this Court that the appeal be disposed of as directed aforesaid.

5. The Civil Appeal is, accordingly, disposed of.
