Subex Secures New European Logo for Partner Ecosystem Management

Bengaluru, India/ London – August 21, 2026: Subex, a global leader in AI-driven telecom solutions, has secured a new-logo engagement with a major European open-access fibre operator, marking a further step in its continued expansion across the region.

Under the three-year agreement, Subex will deploy its Partner Ecosystem Management solution as a fully hosted and managed service. The engagement includes end-to-end operations, professional services, and ongoing support, enabling the operator to manage complex settlement processes without maintaining internal systems.

The solution will support the operator in managing an expanding ecosystem of wholesale business ensuring greater operational efficiency, scalability, and accuracy as network complexity increases.

Commenting on the engagement Nisha Dutt, MD & CEO, Subex said “Wholesale Business is one of the most demanding settlement environments in telecom and winning a new operator of this scale in Europe reflects the strength of our direction. We’re not just delivering software, we’re operating the Partner Ecosystem Management solution for them, and that is a model we intend to scale across the region.”

The win further strengthens Subex’s position in the European wholesale markets and reinforces its track record of enabling operators to manage complex partner ecosystems through managed, outcome-led engagement models.
