ORDER

1. Heard Ld. Counsel for the Respondent.
2. Although the cost is claimed to have been deposited by the Respondent, yet the objections are still not filed. It is claimed that for the last 2-3 days the security code is not being generated.
3. The Respondent was supposed to file objections within one week of the last date i.e. by 18.06.2026 and there should not have been an occasion to confront glitch in the system. Having defied the timelines in filing defence, the Respondent is burdened with further cost of Rs. 50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand only) to be deposited with Prime Minister's National Relief Fund and produce the receipt. Objections be filed in another week with copy to the other-side. Two weeks for the Applicant for filing rejoinder with copy to Ld. Counsel for Respt.
4. List the case on 10.08.2026 for hearing.
