O R D E R

1. Delay condoned.
2. The submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that High Court fell in error in holding that the accused was deprived of his valuable right to challenge the report. It is submitted that accused was provided the Analyst Report. Though the accused did not accept the Analyst Report, no demand was made for a fresh report.

2. In such circumstances, it is submitted, the value of the report would have to be tested in trial and, therefore, mere objection to the report could not be a ground to quash the proceedings at the threshold.

3. Issue notice, returnable in six weeks,
