Vs.

The State of West Bengal & Ors.

For the petitioner : Ms.Taniya bhoumik, Adv.
Ms. Jonaki Saha, Adv.

For the Respondent State : Mr. Ashoke Kumar Singhi, Adv.
Mr. Tuhin Kumar Roy, Adv.

Heard on : August 13, 2026

Judgment on : August 13, 2026

[In Court]

Aniruddha Roy, J. :

Affidavit-of-service, filed in Court today, is taken on record.

Ms. Taniya Bhoumik, learned Advocate appears for the petitioner.

Mr. Ashoke Kumar Singhi, learned Advocate with learned Advocate Mr.

Tuhin Kumar Roy appears for the respondents State.

The father of the petitioner was an approved Assistant Teacher of Kalabari B.F. Primary School, District - Jalpaiguri. The father of the petitioner died-in-harness on 11.04.1988.

The Pension Payment Order was issued by the concerned respondent on 12.09.2022. The petitioner had received pension and arrear pension under the Pension Payment Order on 08.03.2013. The petitioner was entitled to pensionary benefit from the date of retirement, the same was not paid.

The petitioner now claims interest for the delayed payment of the said revised gratuity and arrear pension on and from 12.04.1988.

It is trite that, the pension, which is lawfully payable to an employee is its property and if there is any delay in making such payment and the disbursement thereof in favour of such employee, such an employee is eligible and entitle to receive interest.

In view of the above, the respondents and or the Director of Pension, Provident Fund and Group Insurance and the concerned Treasury Officer are directed to pay interest on the gratuity and on arrear pension @ 8% per annum on and from the date of death till the date of actual payment being received by the petitioner in terms of the Pension Payment Order.

The entire exercise as directed above, shall be carried out and completed positively by the respondents and or the Director of Pension, Provident Fund and Group Insurance and the concerned Treasury Officer within a period of eight weeks from the date of communication of this order.

In default, the said arrear amounts and the entitlement of the petitioner³ shall carry an additional interest of 2% per annum till the date the petitioner actually receives the same.

Since affidavits are not called for, the allegations made in the writ petition are deemed not to have been admitted by the respondents.

On the above terms, this writ petition being WPA 1618 of 2026 stands disposed of, without any order as to costs.

Photostat certified of this order, if applied for, be furnished expeditiously.
