SLP(C) No. 1393/2023 :

1. We record that the Kerala Road Transport Corporation and the State of Kerala have resolved the controversy which was the subject matter of this special leave petition.
2. A settlement deed dated 30th June, 2026 has been placed before us, which shall form part of the record.
3. Although there are private parties in the array of respondents but they are the associations of transport operators. Since the dispute is essentially between the Corporation and the State, we have not insisted on the participation of the private parties in this special leave petition.
4. However, if any private party is aggrieved by this order, it may apply for a recall in accordance with law.
5. The special leave petition stands disposed of on the above terms
6. Pending interlocutory application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
