It has been observed and intimated by the registered shareholders as on the record date such as Broking firms/custodians/ depository participants informing dividend has been credited to their bank accounts and TDS credit was given to them when shares belong to their clients and requested Company to transfer TDS benefit to their clients. In this case, please note that if the dividend income is assessable to tax in the hands of a person other than the registered shareholder as on the record date, the registered shareholder is required to update a signed declaration under rule 203 of the Income-tax Rules, 2026 (erstwhile rule 37BA(2) of the Income-tax Act, 1961) containing the name, address, permanent account number of the person to whom TDS credit is to be given and reasons for giving credit to such person by visiting the link <https://web.in.mpms.mufig.com/formsreg/submission-of-Form-121-41.html> on or before July 23, 2026 and avoid the situation of transfer of TDS benefit to their clients at a later date.

The TDS certificate will be sent at the shareholders registered email ID in due course, post payment of the said Dividend. Further, shareholders will also be able to see the credit of TDS in Form 168 (erstwhile Form 26AS), which can be downloaded from their e-filing account at <https://incometaxindiaefiling.gov.in>.

It may be further noted that in case the tax on dividend is deducted at a higher rate in absence of receipt of the details/documents, there would still be an option available with the Member to file the return of income and claim an appropriate refund, if eligible. No claim shall lie against the Company for such taxes deducted.

No communication/documents on the tax determination / deduction shall be considered post 11:59 PM (IST) of July 23, 2026.
