IHCL makes room for bigger South India play

Oriental Hotels merger adds 825 keys across the region, offers space for margin gains

RAM PRASAD SAHU
Mumbai, 25 August

Indian Hotels Company Ltd (IHCL) and its associate company, Oriental Hotels Ltd (OHL), have given the go-ahead for an all-stock merger. IHCL and its subsidiaries own a 37.1 per cent stake in OHL, and the merger will help simplify the group structure. The merger will add OHL's seven hotels, with 825 keys, to IHCL's portfolio and strengthen its presence in South India.

The scheme proposes a share exchange ratio of 25 IHCL shares for every 117 OHL shares (swap ratio of 1:4.68 IHCL:OHL). The merger is expected to be completed in the second half of 2027-28 (FY28), with an appointed date of April 1, 2027. At the current price, the IHCL stock, which has gained about 11 per cent over the past three months, is trading at about 37x its FY28 earnings estimates.

Although OHL's earnings are currently captured in IHCL's consolidated net profit through associate accounting, the merger will result in full line-by-line consolidation of OHL's operations, adding ₹500 crore of revenue and ₹130 crore of earnings before interest, tax, depreciation, and amortisation (EBITDA) to IHCL's consolidated financials. IHCL ended 2025-26 (FY26) with Ebitda of ₹3,477 crore. The deal involves the issuance of 23.2 million IHCL shares, implying 1.6 per cent dilution, and management expects the transaction to be earnings-accretive from the first year. This, according to analyst Akash Gupta of Nomura Research, is because OHL's transaction valuation of 19x FY26 enterprise value to Ebitda (EV/Ebitda) is lower than

Unlocking growth

IHCL's own 26x FY27 EV/Ebitda estimate. Further cost synergies and asset optimisation/upgrades could drive Ebitda higher.

The merger is also expected to simplify the group's holding structure by increasing IHCL's direct ownership across several entities, resulting in two new operating subsidiaries. It has a "buy" rating with a target price of ₹830. The merger will take IHCL to more than 2,100 operating keys across Tamil Nadu, Karnataka, and Kerala. OHL's portfolio includes freehold assets Taj Coromandel in Chennai, Taj Fisherman's Cove Resort & Spa in Chennai, and Gateway Coonoor. Properties held on long-term leases are Taj Malabar Resort & Spa in Cochin, Vivanta Coimbatore, Vivanta Old Port Road in Mangalore, and Gateway Madurai. OHL also has strategic investments in several important IHCL group companies, both in India and overseas. These include St James Court in London, TAL Hotels and Resorts, Lanka Island Resorts in Sri Lanka, Taj Madurai, and Taj Karnataka Hotels and Resorts in Bengaluru.

The merger, according to 360 One Capital, is also aligned with IHCL's Accelerate 2030 strategy, and the company remains on track to achieve its target of 700 hotels and 40,000 keys by 2030 well ahead of schedule. IHCL has ₹4,500 crore of cash on its books, of which ₹2,000 crore is earmarked for inorganic opportunities, providing sufficient headroom for further acquisitions.

The Street will keenly track IHCL's ability to improve OHL's margins to the levels at which it operates. OHL's revenue grew 7 per cent while Ebitda rose 5 per cent from FY23 through FY26. It currently operates at a 27 per cent margin. After merger, IHCL intends to leverage its strength and scale up margins to 30-35 per cent, in line with the group level. IHCL ended FY26 with an Ebitda margin of 34.9 per cent. JM Financial is positive on the company and has a "buy" rating with a target price of ₹850.

ITR filing for professionals: Mistakes to be avoided

SANJEEV SINHA

With the August 31 deadline for tax filing approaching, freelancers and professionals must choose the right income-tax return (ITR) form and reconcile the Annual Information Statement (AIS), Form 26AS and tax deducted at source (TDS). They must also account for Goods and Services Tax (GST) and report various incomes correctly.

"Common mistakes they should avoid include choosing the wrong ITR form, failing to reconcile receipts with books, bank statements, GST records, tax deducted at source (TDS), Form 26AS and AIS, and missing the deadline when carrying forward business or professional losses," says Neeraj Agarwala, senior partner, Nangia & Co.

ITR-3 or ITR-4

ITR-3 applies to individuals and Hindu Undivided Families (HUFs) with business or professional income. ITR-4 is optional for eligible resident individuals, HUFs and firms other than limited liability partnerships (LLPs), with income up to ₹50 lakh under presumptive taxation.

"Presumptive taxpayers can also use ITR-3 if they do not meet ITR-4 conditions. For instance, long-term capital gains above ₹1.25 lakh require ITR-3. Taxpayers with foreign income or assets also need to use ITR-3," says Agarwala.

Sections 44AD and 44ADA

Section 44ADA applies to specified professionals and deems 50 per cent of their gross receipts taxable. The limit is ₹75 lakh if cash receipts are within 5 per cent; otherwise, it is ₹50 lakh.

Section 44AD applies at a presumptive rate of 8 per cent of turnover, or 6 per cent for specified digital receipts. Its threshold is ₹3 crore if cash receipts are within 5 per cent; otherwise, it is ₹2 crore.

"Taxpayers cannot freely declare income below these prescribed rates under the presumptive scheme. Doing so would require them to follow regular provisions, maintain books and, where applicable, get their accounts audited," says Agarwala.

Claiming expenses

Under Section 44ADA, taxpayers cannot separately deduct business

Five checks before submitting tax return

- Reconcile receipts: Match GST turnover, books, professional receipts and TDS credits
- Check AIS, taxpayer information summary (TIS) and Form 26AS: Ensure all income and tax credits match records
- Choose right ITR: Use ITR-4 only if eligible; ITR-3 for regular books, futures & options income or foreign assets
- Disclose all income and assets: Include interest, capital gains, rental income and foreign holdings
- E-verify within 30 days: An unverified return is treated as not filed

or professional expenses. The deemed 50 per cent of receipts accounts for them.

"Under the regular method of taxation, taxpayers can claim actual expenses incurred wholly and exclusively for their profession. They should maintain invoices, bills, bank statements, payment records, client contracts and records of business assets purchased," says Richa Sawhney, partner, tax, Grant Thornton Bharat.

Match AIS, Form 26AS and TDS

Taxpayers should match AIS and Form 26AS with their records, check for incorrect entries, and provide feedback on the income-tax portal. "If the deductor has deducted TDS but Form 26AS does not correctly reflect it, taxpayers should contact the deductor and ask them to file a correction statement or a revised TDS statement," says Sawhney.

Treat GST correctly

Taxpayers should not treat GST collected on invoices as income. "Including it can inflate turnover and possibly push taxpayers beyond presumptive taxation limits, create mismatches between GST and income-tax returns, result in double counting of GST as both input tax credit and an expense, and cause errors in reconciling receipts and TDS," says Deepashree Shetty, partner, global mobility services, tax & regulatory advisory, BDO India.

Disclose income and assets

Freelancers should disclose interest from savings accounts and fixed deposits, dividends, capital gains, rental income from a second property, gifts above ₹50,000, and any foreign assets or income.

"Non-reporting of Indian income may be flagged through AIS and could lead to notices, with tax, interest and penalties. Failure to disclose foreign assets may attract significant penalties and, in serious cases, prosecution," says Shetty.

Taxpayers must file the return by the original due date to carry forward business, capital and speculative losses. House property losses and unabsorbed depreciation are exceptions.

Buying a flat? What you must know about shared amenities

Apartment owners cannot claim exclusive rights over common amenities such as clubhouses, roads and accessways if their registered sale deeds allow residents of another housing project to use them, the Karnataka High Court has ruled.

The judgment concerns two adjoining Bengaluru projects —

Arya Hamsa and Arya Hamsa Grande — built by the same developer. Some Arya Hamsa residents objected to residents of Grande using shared facilities. The Karnataka Real Estate Regulatory Authority (Rera) and its appellate tribunal had rejected their case before it reached the High Court. Legal experts said the registered sale deed was decisive as it expressly provided for sharing of specified facilities.

Rera proceedings cannot substitute for civil court proceedings challenging a registered sale deed.

What should homebuyers do?

- Read the sale deed: Check clauses on common areas and shared facilities

- Check future phases of a project: Ask who can use existing amenities
- Verify documents: Compare the deed with Rera disclosures and plans
- Seek legal advice: Get unusual clauses reviewed before registration
