23.07.2026 On the last date i.e., 15.07.2026 having noticed that the impugned order has been passed on 22.04.2026 and, in the ordinary course, the limitation would have expired on 22.05.2026, and also that the Registry has reported 'No Delay'. We sought an explanation from the Registry, which has been submitted.

2. The Registry has explained that the limitation was calculated after excluding the time consumed in the preparation of the certified copy. It is further stated that if the period of preparation of the certified copy is excluded, the Appeal would be within time.

3. It is further stated that the application to obtain the certified copy was given by the Appellant on 18.05.2026 and the certified copy was provided on 08.06.2026. It is thus reflected that the application/folio to get the certified copy was filed before the Ld. Adjudicating Authority within 30 days of the pronouncement of the Judgment.

4. In nutshell, the explanation submitted by the Registry is in terms that after exclusion of the time consumed by the registry of the Adjudicating Authority in the preparation of the certified copy of the impugned Judgment for which the application to obtain certified copy was filed within 30 days of the pronouncement of the Judgment.

5. We concur with the explanation given by the Registry, and the appeal filed by the Appellant appears to be within time.
