15.07.2026 Nobody is present for the Appellant when the appeals were called multiple times.

We would have dismissed the appeals for want of prosecution, however, in the interest of justice, we grant last opportunity to the Appellant to remain represented before us on the next date of listing, failing of which the appeals may be dismissed for want of prosecution.

List accordingly on 11.08.2026 with a clear stipulation that on that date if the Appellant will not be represented by any Counsel then the appeals may be dismissed for want of prosecution.
