Commenting on the results, Mr. Deepak Nanda, Managing Director, Trident Limited, said, "During Q2FY27, Trident Limited delivered a resilient performance with consolidated revenue of INR 1,737 crore and EBITDA of INR 337 crore, resulting in an EBITDA margin of 19.4%, an improvement of 653 bps over the corresponding quarter last year. The quarter witnessed strong growth in profitability, with Profit Before Tax increasing by 87.6% to INR 232 crore and Net Profit rising by 93.1% to INR 176 crore over the corresponding quarter last year, supported by our continued focus on operational excellence, cost optimization, product mix enhancement, and disciplined execution across businesses.

Pleased to update that the Board has approved INR 4,650 crore expansion and modernization programme, underscoring our confidence in the long-term growth potential of the textile and paper sectors. The proposed investments include significant capacity additions in yarn, sheeting, and paper businesses, establishment of a new yarn manufacturing facility at Dhar, Madhya Pradesh, and development of a 60 MW hybrid renewable energy project. These investments will enhance our manufacturing capabilities, improve operational efficiencies, reinforce our cost competitiveness and make our operations sustainable.

As we continue to focus on profitable growth and value creation, this strategic expansion will position Trident to capitalize on future opportunities, serve customers more effectively across global markets, and create sustainable long-term value for all stakeholders".
