Parag Milk Foods appoints Phalgun Trivedi as Chief - R&D, Quality Control and Food Safety Officer

Mumbai, September 18, 2026: Parag Milk Foods Limited, one of India's leading dairy and nutrition companies, has appointed Phalgun Trivedi as Chief – R&D, Quality Control and Food Safety Officer. With over three decades of experience across the global food, beverage and dairy industry, Phalgun brings extensive expertise in quality, food safety, manufacturing operations and innovation.

Phalgun has held leadership roles across leading global and Indian organisations including Unilever, Coca-Cola India, General Mills, Parle Agro, H.J. Heinz, Yum! Brands, Danone and Lactalis. Over the course of his career, he has worked across India, Asia Pacific, the Middle East and Africa, with experience spanning local, regional and global responsibilities. He has also lived and worked across Asia, the Middle East and Europe.

His experience includes building and driving quality and food safety systems across diverse markets, while working closely with manufacturing, operations and innovation teams.

At Parag Milk Foods, Phalgun will lead the R&D, Quality Control and Food Safety functions, with a focus on further building quality systems, strengthening food safety practices and driving quality excellence across its portfolio and manufacturing ecosystem. His role will be important as the company continues to expand its presence across dairy and new-age nutrition categories.

Akshali Shah, Executive Director, Parag Milk Foods Limited, said, "Quality and food safety are fundamental to the trust consumers place in a health and nutrition company. As we expand our portfolio across dairy and new-age nutrition, it is important that our quality systems evolve at the same pace and with the same ambition. Phalgun brings deep experience from some of the world's leading food and dairy companies, across markets and functions. His global perspective and understanding of quality and food safety will add significant value as we continue to build a strong quality culture across our organisation."

Phalgun holds a Bachelor of Science & Technology (B.Sc. Tech) in Food Technology from the Institute of Chemical Technology, Mumbai (formerly UDCT).

His appointment comes at a time when Parag Milk Foods is expanding its portfolio beyond traditional dairy into high-growth nutrition and protein categories, while continuing to focus on quality, food safety and consumer trust across its brands and products.
