IA/303(MP)2024

1. Ld. Counsel for the Applicant apprised the Tribunal that no effective action is being taken by the Police Commissioner, Indore. It was further prayed that the concerned District Magistrate be directed to ensure compliance with the provisions and objectives of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 (IBC).
2. The record reveals that on the previous date of hearing, the Police Commissioner was directed to extend necessary cooperation as required by the Applicant/SRA. However, the Applicant has submitted that the requisite cooperation has still not been extended.
3. It is the duty of all public authorities under the IBC to facilitate compliance with the provisions of the Code and to further its objective of resolving the affairs of a stressed Corporate Debtor in a time-bound manner. Accordingly, it is once again directed that the Respondent Police Commissioner and the concerned District Magistrate shall extend all necessary cooperation as may be required by the Applicant/SRA for effective implementation of the Resolution Plan.

4. The Police Commissioner is further directed to file a status report, despite having already been granted sufficient opportunity to do so.
5. List the matter for further consideration on 07.07.2026.
