Leading flexible packaging machinery brand

Top Indian converting machinery player & among global top 5, and leading domestically in packaging machinery.

BUILT FOR THE LONG TERM

Our journey has always been driven by a singular conviction - to offer complete technology solutions for flexible packaging that empower our customers to be future-ready, efficient, and globally competitive.

In an industry defined by shifts in end-use segments, technologies, regulatory frameworks, shift towards sustainable packaging and changing customer expectations, we continue to position ourselves as a trusted solution partner across the complete value chain of flexible packaging, from co-extrusion to converting to packaging.

FY26 was a year of consolidation. Tariff disruption in the US, our largest export market, followed by the conflict in West Asia and a subsequent rise in polymer prices, weighed on customer capital expenditure decisions through the year. We responded with agility, recovering a meaningful part of the shortfall through other geographies and business segments. This agility comes from decades of deliberate choices and the culture built around them.

Through this period, the foundations of the business held firm. Our order book grew, our balance sheet remained healthy, and our cash reserves stand ready to fund the next phase of growth. Customer relationships built over decades continued to deepen.

It was equally a year of building. We launched RecTech™, our recyclable mono-material film technology, at Plastindia 2026, extended our proprietary sealing patents into Europe, and secured our first orders for 9-layer blown film plants. Our packaging portfolio entered new markets, with the first order outside the US and India won in South Africa and groundwork underway across Europe, CIS, South-East Asia, and Australia. Each of these investments is made with a long-term horizon.

These strengths rest on capabilities deepened over 35 years: indigenously developed product platforms, engineering in our DNA, a capital-efficient manufacturing model, and a quality-first approach that our customers experience in every machine we deliver.

As we enter FY27, we expect growth to return and profitability to normalise. Our priorities remain unchanged - to deepen our global presence, expand product categories, strengthen customer relationships, and deliver value for all stakeholders. Everything we build is meant to endure. We are built for the long term.

Our Journey

Engineered to Evolve

Over 35 years, Mamata Machinery has continuously expanded its technological capabilities and market presence in response to the evolving needs of the flexible packaging industry. Each milestone reflects a strategic step towards building a comprehensive packaging technology portfolio spanning extrusion, converting, packaging automation, and sustainable packaging solutions.

Chairman's Message

Built for the Long Term

Dear Shareholders,

We often describe Mamata as a Company built for the long term, and a year like FY26 is when that statement is tested. It is easy to look capable when demand is plentiful and the operating environment is conducive; the harder question is how a business holds up when the conditions it depends on change quickly, for reasons outside its control.

That is what FY26 asked of us. Our reported results came in below the prior year, and yet we closed the year with greater conviction in what we are building, not less.

If FY26 carried a lesson, it confirmed one we had already taken to heart: a business should not lean too heavily on the fortunes of a single market or a single product line.

Our first ROW packaging order

During the year, we received our first ROW packaging order from a customer in South Africa, which is scheduled for delivery in the second quarter of FY27, validating our packaging portfolio beyond the traditional US & Indian markets.

The Test of a Difficult Year

Let me be direct about the numbers before turning to what lies behind them. Consolidated Revenue fell 8% to ₹ 233 crore, and profitability fell more steeply, with the EBITDA margin at 8.2% against 21.5% a year earlier and Profit After Tax of ₹ 15.05 crore. Almost all of this traces to one source. Our business in the United States, our largest export market, shrank by close to half over the year, as a prolonged spell of tariff policy uncertainty led American clients to hold back from new CAPEX commitments. Two further pressures arrived before that one could settle: the conflict in West Asia unsettled another set of buyers, and a steep rise in polymer prices strained customers' working capital across our markets, prompting some to defer their CAPEX plans.

More telling than the decline is how the rest of the business behaved while one large market shrank. We leaned on our other geographies and product lines and recouped a good share of what the United States gave up. India and our other international markets grew to absorb the impact of the US, each ending the year larger than before. Demand beyond the United States stayed firm, and packaging in particular kept advancing, with domestic packaging sales growing by 55%. A business that can take a shock of this scale in one market, within a single year, and keep its other engines turning, is one whose foundations are sound. The margin pressure from a leaner export mix and some non-recurring costs should lift as volumes return, and I expect profitability to move back toward its normal range in the year ahead.

Reducing Our Reliance on Any One Market

If FY26 carried a lesson, it confirmed one we had already taken to heart: a business should not lean too heavily on the fortunes of a single market or a single product line. Our converting machines, being amongst the top five brands in the world, already reach some 80+ countries, which leaves little room to widen that footprint. Packaging now leads us into new territories, carrying our newest technology with it. During the year we booked our first ROW packaging order, from a customer in South Africa, which is scheduled for delivery in the second quarter of FY27. In Europe, a partnership with Carpentier GmbH opens a path to packaging business in Europe over the next few years. To add to that, in the CIS and Russia region, we have set up a branch office alongside a hundred-year-old local distributor; and in South-East Asia, channel partners are in place for inroads into newer markets. Australia is also another market we are preparing for. Step by step, these moves are rebuilding Mamata into a company whose revenue rests on many markets rather than a few.

Packaging sits at the centre of how we mean to grow, in two ways. The first is geographic, as above. The second is the steady widening of our product portfolio. A highlight of the year was a multi-machine order for our vertical form-fill-seal (VFFS) lines from one of India's best-known snack and namkeen brands, a clear sign that customers are taking up our packaging range well beyond the HFFS lines on which our reputation was built. We are also moving into secondary packaging automation, which carries us further along the value chain and into much larger end markets. Of all our segments, packaging addresses the broadest opportunity set worldwide and holds the most room to compound, and our aim is to keep it growing at 30%-40% each year, for the foreseeable future.

Engineering for a Sustainable Future

Our most important technology launch this year reflects where we believe the industry is heading. RecTech is our fully recyclable, single or Mono-material film, and it answers a problem that has long constrained the sector: recyclable films have until now asked brands to trade sustainability against cost. RecTech closes much of that gap while delivering barrier performance that stands comparison with the conventional multi-layer structures it replaces. Most importantly, we have developed the whole technology ecosystem around it: a dedicated nine-layer co-extrusion line, coupled with compatible packaging & converting lines. We launched RecTech at Plastindia 2026 in New Delhi. Its barrier performance has been certified by the Indian Institute of Packaging in Kolkata and its recyclability confirmed by CIPET, and we are pursuing the highest grade of recyclable certification in Europe and the United States.

A recent government notification on recycled content also adds to the case for adoption of recyclable technology among consumer brands. While we have developed the technology, a format of this kind earns its place gradually, as brands take a few quarters to qualify it and meaningful volumes follow only once a few early adopters commit. In time, RecTech should become a durable and meaningful part of our business; till then, we will keep refining the technology.

Innovation and Our Right to Win

We have never competed on price, and do not intend to in the future. We compete on technology, our built quality and on the output gains to a customer for what they spend, which rests on a flow of engineering excellence that peers find hard to match. Our intellectual property is the core foundation of our business. This year as well, we made further progress on this front: the cross-sealing technology at the heart of several of our machines, already patented in India and the United States, was granted a European patent in January 2026, taking us to five patents at home and abroad, with 3 more under filing.

We also took our engineering to some of the largest stages globally. At the K trade fair in Düsseldorf, we unveiled the Vega 500 SF, built to handle single-material films at high speed and accuracy. We followed it with our maiden appearance at Interpack in the same city, the foremost packaging exhibition in the world, where we presented our complete packaging range and began the conversations that will open Europe to us.

A Foundation That Funds Its Own Growth

A Company is only as free to invest as its balance sheet permits, and ours permits a great deal. We ended the year with net-debt free status and cash reserves of ₹69.3 crore, which allows us to fund our future growth from our own reserves. These reserves will allow us to fund our future capital expenditures; preserve our reserves as a war chest for acquisitions that truly fit our strategy; and hold enough liquidity to withstand the kind of external shocks FY26 showed can appear without warning. Value, for us, is built over years, and is better served by building with patience than by distributing in haste.

The Year Ahead, and the Years Beyond

We enter FY27 with better visibility than in the previous year. Our order book closed the year at ₹ 89.6 crore, 34% higher YOY. In a business where deliveries are uneven and best measured over a full year, a backlog of that strength tells us that underlying demand is strong. Our immediate task is to win back the ground we lost in the United States, where the easing of tariffs is making conditions friendlier. Our growth in the coming year will again be led by packaging and supported by recovery across our other lines, with profitability moving back toward the average of recent years.

Beyond the coming year, our direction is clear: by the end of the decade I expect Mamata to be led by packaging, far less reliant on any single country, with recyclable-ready technology contributing in earnest as environmental norms take greater precedence domestically, and our profitability restored as greater scale and a richer export mix do their work.

In closing, I thank you, our shareholders, for the trust you place in us, and every member of the Mamata family for the resolve they showed in a year that asked a great deal of them. Our strategy is intact, our conviction is undimmed, and we remain, in the truest sense, a company built for the long term.

R&D and Intellectual Prowess

Intellectual and R&D-Driven Leadership

Innovation at the Company is a built-in capability, not an occasional event. An engineering-focused organisation, supported by an in-house R&D centre and a multi-disciplinary engineering team, has produced a steady record of industry-first products over more than three decades. That same capability continues to feed a robust pipeline of new solutions.

Talent and Tools

The foundation is people and the tools they work with. The Company employs 91 engineers and application experts, averaging 15 years of experience, across design, software, electronics, and mechanical disciplines. Within this, a dedicated core of 17 works on design and ideation and 3 on software and coding. The organisation is engineering-led by design, focused on attracting and retaining strong talent across domains and equipping it with advanced 3D design tools such as Inventor and AutoCAD. A DSIR-recognised in-house R&D centre and an in-house electronics lab give that talent the infrastructure to take ideas from concept to working machine without relying on outside specialists.

Capabilities and Expertise

The Company's engineering spans the full breadth of flexible packaging technology, which is what lets it develop complete solutions in-house. It is one of the only Indian flexible packaging machinery players with dedicated in-house software and coding department, and the in-house coding and electronics lab reduces the hardware-software inertia that slows development elsewhere

Innovation Leadership

A practical, experience-led R&D approach has produced a long record of industry-firsts, tailored to specific applications and markets, and continues to feed a steady pipeline of new solutions.

- » India's first microprocessor-controlled bag-making machine
- » The world's fastest non-woven bag and back-seam maker
- » An ultra-fast VFFS machine running at 200 cycles
- » The world's first HFFS Simplex machine at 120-plus cycles
- » The Vega 500 SF, launched at K 2026, for processing mono-material films at high speed and accuracy

Technological Advancement & Growth Strategies

Engineering the Recyclable shift

FY26 turned the Company's R&D capability into visible output. The year saw the launch of a flagship recyclable packaging technology, fresh patent protection secured in Europe, and the first orders for the Company's most advanced co-extrusion platform. Together they mark a step up in both the sophistication and the sustainability of the product range.

RecTech™

A recyclable packaging breakthrough

Launched at Plastindia 2026 in New Delhi, RecTech™ represents the Company's response to a persistent industry challenge. Conventional composite films such as PET+PE and PET+MPET+PE offer strong performance but cannot be fully recycled, leaving brand owners unable to meet Extended Producer Responsibility (EPR) obligations. RecTech addresses this directly, combining recyclability with the performance and economics the market expects:

- » A fully recyclable mono-material film, comparable to conventional composites in barrier protection and mechanical strength
- » Engineered to narrow the cost differential that has historically limited the adoption of recyclable films
- » Supported by an in-house ecosystem of 7-layer and 9-layer blown film plants, pouch makers, and HFFS and VFFS machines, enabling production, conversion, and packaging within a single recyclable framework

Patents Granted in Europe

During the year, the Company extended protection for its proprietary sealing technologies into the European market, deepening a patent portfolio that spans multiple jurisdictions. Two inventions used on its advanced packaging machines secured European patents:

- » The Cross Sealing Device, already patented in India and the United States, opening the European market to the solution
- » The Multi-Purpose Sealing Module, already patented in India and with a United States application filed

First 9-Layer Plant Orders

The Company secured its first orders for 9-layer blown film plants, the most advanced offering in its co-extrusion range, used to produce high-barrier films for demanding food packaging applications. The orders mark both a repeat win and a new-market entry:

- » A first order from a long-standing domestic customer
- » A maiden export order from a new customer in Latin America

Together, they reflect the high-end capability on which the recyclable ecosystem is built and extend the Company's reach in the co-extrusion segment.

Growth Strategies

The Company's growth strategy extends the advantages it has built in technology, manufacturing, and market position, pursuing expansion across geographies, products, and efficiency in parallel rather than relying on any single lever. Four priorities define the path ahead:

State-of-Art Infrastructure

Built to Scale. Designed to Deliver.

Infrastructure at Mamata Machinery extends beyond manufacturing capacity, as it represents a carefully built ecosystem of engineering expertise, research capabilities, supplier partnerships, and customer support infrastructure that enables the Company to innovate, scale, and serve global markets efficiently.

Anchored by its integrated manufacturing facility in Ahmedabad and supported by customer-facing operations in the United States, Mamata has developed a flexible operating model that combines in-house technological strengths with a robust vendor ecosystem. This approach enables the Company to maintain quality, optimize capital deployment, and respond swiftly to evolving customer requirements.

Engineering Excellence at the Core

The Ahmedabad facility is the hub for design, engineering, manufacture, testing, and corporate operations. A DSIR-recognised in-house R&D centre, a dedicated electrical and electronic lab, and modern testing infrastructure support both product innovation and day-to-day operational quality, with headroom to expand within the existing footprint as demand grows.

An Asset-Light Model with Scalable Advantage

A defining feature of the operating model is the combination of in-house engineering with an extensive partner ecosystem. The activities that determine product quality, namely design, software development, electrical and electronics integration, assembly, painting and integration, and testing, are managed internally.

Body fabrication and mechanical components are handled through a curated vendor network. The split keeps the work that protects intellectual property and quality in-house, while outsourcing the capital-intensive, commoditised steps, which keeps the cost base largely variable and capacity straightforward to scale.

What Drives the Model

- » 250+ curated vendors, vetted for quality, reliability, and responsiveness, most located close to the Ahmedabad facility
- » Standard bought-out components, including servo drives, controls, pneumatics, and electronics, sourced from reputed global brands
- » Dedicated vendors for fabrication, machining, and sheet-metal components
- » Multiple supplier options for each component, with no undue dependence on any one vendor
- » Back-to-back warranty arrangements on key components
- » In-house ERP enabling workflow visibility from procurement to after-sales

From Concept to Commissioning

Production runs as a single sequence from design to dispatch, combining in-house and outsourced steps. An in-house-developed ERP manages the workflow and supply chain, holding the internal and external stages in one coordinated flow.

A scalable, capital-efficient manufacturing model that supports faster execution, operational agility, and efficient capacity expansion.

Infrastructure that Supports Growth

Through advanced engineering capability, a scalable manufacturing base, international support operations, and a robust supply-chain ecosystem, the Company has built an operating model geared to innovation, operational efficiency, and sustainable long-term growth.

Quality-First Approach

Quality, Built In at Every Stage

For Mamata, quality is not a final checkpoint; it is a decision made at every stage of the build. From design and component selection through in-house testing and global certification, a Quality-First mindset shapes how each machine is engineered. The result is dependable reliability, a low cost of ownership, and warranty coverage that leads the industry.

Despite Offering the Most Comprehensive 18-Month Warranty, Warranty Cost is Consistently Below 0.5% of Sales (₹ in millions and % of standalone sales)

7 Quality Assurance Team

Ensures every machine meets internal benchmarks and customer expectations

26 Service Engineers

Field strength that keeps installed machines running with minimal downtime

Global Certifications

All products are certified to ISO 9001:2015, and CE and CSA safety certifications can be provided on customer requirement. These international standards reinforce Mamata's credibility across global markets.

Quality Begins with Design

Every solution is engineered with quality as its foundation. Robust design methodologies are deployed from the outset to build reliability and performance into the machine, long before a single component is manufactured.

In-House Comprehensive Testing

Machines undergo rigorous in-house testing before they leave the floor, which allows issues to be identified and resolved ahead of delivery. Testing is carried out at component level across all inputs, not on a sampling basis, so customers receive machines that perform as promised.

Low Warranty Cost

Despite its extended warranty coverage, the cost of warranty stays consistently below 0.5% of the top line. The figure is direct evidence of product reliability, and it gives customers genuine peace of mind.

Industry-Leading Warranty

Mamata is the only Indian player to offer an 18-month comprehensive warranty, well beyond the industry norm of 9 months on electricals and 12 months on mechanicals. The coverage reflects confidence in the build and a clear commitment to customer assurance.

Low Cost of Ownership

Built for durability, efficiency, and versatility, the machines rank high on price-to-performance. Minimal after-sales service needs and dependable uptime keep the total cost of ownership low across the product lifecycle.

Marquee Clientele

Trusted by the Brands People Trust

Our client base spans the full packaging value chain, from global FMCG brand owners to tier-1 converters. Long-standing relationships with the majority of key accounts reflect the trust built through consistently high product quality.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Management Discussion and Analysis

Global Economy

The global economy entered 2026 on an uncertain footing, as the outbreak of war in the Middle East in late February disrupted an environment that was still adjusting to the realignment of United States trade policy over the previous year. The year 2025 had closed on a relatively firm note, with global output expanding by an estimated 3.4% as the anticipated drag from higher tariffs proved milder than feared and domestic demand across major economies held steady. The conflict has since weighed on this momentum, causing humanitarian and infrastructure damage within the region and transmitting economic pressure well beyond it through higher energy and commodity prices, firmer inflation expectations, and a broad tightening of financial conditions as investor risk appetite receded. The effect has been most visible in oil, where prices that averaged close to USD 68 per barrel in 2025 are now expected to rise to around USD 82 in 2026 as supply and transport routes face growing disruption.

Global growth is projected to ease to 3.1% in 2026 and recover modestly to 3.2% in 2027, remaining well below pre-pandemic averages, on the assumption that the conflict stays limited in scope and duration. Advanced economies are expected to grow by 1.8% in 2026 and 1.7% in 2027, supported by steady activity in the United States and a gradual recovery across the euro area. Emerging market and developing economies are projected to grow faster, at around 3.9% in 2026 and 4.2% in 2027, although these aggregates conceal considerable variation across countries. Commodity-importing developing economies remain the most exposed, as currency depreciation deepens the impact of costlier energy and food. Inflation is following a similar pattern: after easing to an estimated 4.1% in 2025, global headline inflation is expected to rise to 4.4% in 2026 before moderating to 3.7% in 2027, with the heaviest pressure falling on developing economies where higher prices pass through to households more quickly.

The outlook is subject to significant downside risk. A longer or wider conflict would carry materially greater consequences, as reflected in the IMF's scenario analysis: under an adverse scenario of prolonged energy disruption, global growth could fall to 2.5% in 2026 with inflation rising to 5.4%, while under a more severe scenario involving greater damage to energy infrastructure, growth could slow to around 2% in 2026 and inflation could climb above 6% by 2027. Beyond the conflict, deeper geopolitical fragmentation, renewed trade restrictions, and the possibility of weaker-than-expected productivity gains from artificial intelligence investment present further risks, while elevated public debt and limited fiscal space across many economies leave governments with little room to absorb additional shocks.

Central banks face a difficult balance between containing renewed inflation and supporting slowing growth, a challenge compounded by the fiscal implications of rising defence expenditure across several major economies. On balance, the global economy enters 2026 absorbing a cost-driven shock against a backdrop of unresolved structural constraints. The path ahead will depend on the duration and scale of the conflict, the agility of monetary and fiscal responses, and the extent to which structural reform can offset the drag from a more fragmented global landscape. Economies underpinned by resilient domestic demand and credible policy support are expected to find these headwinds, while real, broadly manageable.

Indian Economy

India remained the fastest-growing major economy in FY26, with real GDP growing 7.7%, up from 7.1% in FY25. Growth was led by the secondary and tertiary sectors, which expanded 8.8% and 9.3% respectively, supported by firm domestic demand and a steady investment cycle. Within industry, manufacturing recorded double-digit growth on healthy demand and better capacity utilisation, while services drew strength from financial services, real estate, and professional activities. Agriculture grew 3.0%, aided by a favourable monsoon and steady output from livestock and fisheries. The banking sector's gross non-performing assets eased to a multi-decadal low, pointing to better asset quality and stronger financial fundamentals.

On the price front, inflation stayed contained at the consumer level for much of the year. Retail inflation was 3.4% in March 2026, held down by softening food prices and the rationalisation of GST rates, keeping it comfortably within the Reserve Bank of India's tolerance band. With the inflation outlook broadly benign, the RBI held the policy repo rate at 5.25% in its June 2026 review, while flagging an upward bias to prices from higher global energy costs and supply-side pressures.

On the external front, India's exports held up against a difficult global trade backdrop, with exports of goods and services growing over 6% in real terms even as shifts in US tariff policy weighed on certain segments. Foreign exchange reserves strengthened to record levels, offering comfortable cover for imports and external obligations. Domestically, private consumption stayed a central pillar of growth, with Private Final Consumption Expenditure rising 7.7%, helped by low inflation, steady employment, and improving real incomes. Investment activity stayed firm, with Gross Fixed Capital Formation holding near 32% of GDP and growing 8.2%, supported by sustained public capital expenditure and a pickup in private investment.

Looking ahead, India's GDP is projected to grow between 6.8% and 7.4% in FY27, with medium-term potential growth estimated at around 7%. Steady domestic demand, an ongoing investment cycle, and continued reform across infrastructure, logistics, and manufacturing should keep growth on a firm footing, even as geopolitical tensions, commodity price volatility, and an evolving global trade environment remain near-term variables to watch. On trade, the interim agreement reached with the United States in early 2026 has helped ease earlier uncertainty for exporters, with negotiations on a comprehensive agreement continuing. With a diversified economy, strong foreign exchange reserves, low inflation, and improved fiscal buffers, India is well placed to navigate these uncertainties and sustain long-term, inclusive growth.

Industry Overview

Indian Flexible Packaging Machinery Industry

The Indian flexible packaging machinery industry continued to stand out as one of the faster-growing segments of the global packaging landscape, supported by rising domestic consumption, expanding industrialisation, and a steady shift towards modern, flexible packaging formats. As a critical enabler of the wider packaging value chain, the industry serves a broad spectrum of end-use sectors, ranging from food and beverages to pharmaceuticals, personal care, and consumer goods, each generating sustained and diversified demand for packaging equipment.

Market Segmentation and Product Categories

The Indian flexible packaging machinery market is segmented across several dimensions, together covering the full breadth of packaging requirements across end-use industries. The principal product categories include:

- » Form Fill Seal machinery is the most technologically advanced segment, spanning both Vertical Form Fill Seal (VFFS) and Horizontal Form Fill Seal (HFFS) systems. These machines combine multiple packaging functions into a single continuous operation, forming packages from flat film while simultaneously filling and sealing them. VFFS systems are valued for their ability to handle a wide range of product types, from powders and bulk goods to liquids, which makes them well suited to food processing and pharmaceutical applications. Their capacity to pack products as varied as nuts, cookies, ground coffee, and dehydrated milk illustrates their versatility across industries.
- » HFFS machines complement vertical systems by handling non-flowable solid items and delivering stronger performance for fragile products. They are particularly advantageous in environments that require frequent product changeovers, with dual moulding and sealing stations that allow size transitions with minimal downtime. HFFS systems are often preferred for specialised formats such as stand-up pouches, zipper packs, and spouted pouches.
- » Labelling and Coding machinery supports product identification and traceability across manufacturing and supply chain operations. The segment covers equipment that applies date codes, batch numbers, barcodes, and promotional labels, ranging from simple dispensers that apply pre-printed labels to integrated systems that print and dispense in a single step. Advanced coding solutions, including hot stamp coders, inkjet printers, and laser coding devices, each offer distinct advantages in speed, precision, and application flexibility.
- » Sealing machinery covers a broad range of equipment used to secure containers across different packaging formats and materials. This includes pouch sealing machines, bottle cap sealing systems, carton sealing equipment, and vacuum sealing devices, with applications extending to aerosol containers, blister packs, and flexible packaging. Its versatility makes it indispensable across multiple end-use sectors.

» Wrapping and Bundling machinery is a specialised segment focused on protective packaging and product consolidation. It includes flow wrappers for individual items, shrink wrappers using heat-shrinkable films, overwrappers for flat products, and twist wrappers commonly used in confectionery. Each addresses a specific packaging need while maintaining operational efficiency and product presentation.

Market Size and Growth Projections

India’s packaging machinery market has maintained healthy momentum over the past few years, building on the strong demand fundamentals that underpin the sector. The market, estimated at around USD 4.5 billion in 2024, is projected to grow to nearly USD 6.8 billion by 2030, reflecting a compound annual growth rate of about 7.4%. This sustained expansion is driven by the rapid growth of packaged food consumption, the scaling of pharmaceutical manufacturing, and the accelerating adoption of e-commerce, all of which require increasingly sophisticated packaging capabilities.

This trajectory is particularly notable against the backdrop of a more moderate global market. The worldwide packaging machinery market is expected to grow from USD 46.8 billion in 2022 to USD 60.8 billion by 2028, representing a compound annual growth rate of 4.5%. India’s faster pace of growth indicates that the country is steadily increasing its share within the global packaging machinery landscape, supported by a large and expanding consumer base, rising urbanisation, and growing disposable incomes. India’s emergence as a manufacturing hub serving both domestic demand and export markets further reinforces this structural advantage, generating consistent requirements for packaging machinery across diverse industrial applications.

Opportunities and Key Demand Drivers of Flexible Packaging

The Indian flexible packaging machinery market draws on a broad set of demand drivers that together create a resilient foundation for long-term growth. These span multiple end-use industries, each contributing distinct requirements and growth dynamics that reinforce overall market expansion. The key opportunities and demand drivers include:

The Food and Beverage industry remains the single largest demand driver and one of India’s largest sectors, ranking among the biggest contributors to manufacturing and agricultural value addition. With evolving consumer preferences, rising urbanisation, and changing dietary patterns among younger demographics, the sector continues to expand steadily, sustaining strong demand for packaging machinery. India’s standing among the world’s top five packaged food markets, and second largest in Asia, further amplifies this opportunity, with flexible packaging accounting for nearly a quarter of total food packaging. The growth of ready-to-eat foods, dairy, canned products, and probiotic foods adds further momentum to the need for advanced packaging solutions.

The Pharmaceutical industry is another significant demand driver, with the domestic market valued at around USD 60 billion and projected to more than double to USD 130 billion by 2030, supported by both rising domestic consumption and expanding exports. The sector’s stringent regulatory and quality requirements, together with its focus on product safety, integrity, and compliance, create demand for advanced packaging solutions, including blister pack machines, sachet packaging systems, and tamper-evident sealing equipment capable of meeting Good Manufacturing Practices standards and precise dosing needs. The sector’s growth, driven by an ageing population, increased healthcare awareness, and expanding insurance coverage, ensures sustained demand for pharmaceutical packaging machinery.

E-commerce expansion represents one of the most rapidly growing demand drivers, with India’s e-commerce market valued at around USD 125 billion in 2024 and projected to reach USD 345 billion by 2030. Rising internet penetration, smartphone adoption, and shifting shopping patterns are creating substantial demand for packaging machinery suited to e-commerce requirements, including tamper-evident seals, easy-open closures, and packaging that withstands the stresses of shipping while supporting a strong unboxing experience. The growth of both direct-to-consumer and business-to-business channels further diversifies these requirements.

The Fast-Moving Consumer Goods sector remains a major source of packaging machinery demand. As the fourth-largest sector in the Indian economy, it continues to grow on the back of rising disposable incomes, deeper brand awareness, and steady gains in rural market penetration, with modern retail and e-commerce widening its reach further. Because FMCG products compete on convenience, shelf differentiation, and reliable product protection, the sector sustains a steady need for fast, consistent, and innovative packaging solutions across a broad range of everyday goods.

The Personal Care and Cosmetics segment is an emerging contributor to demand, shaped by shifting lifestyles, higher discretionary spending, and a growing consumer focus on grooming and personal hygiene. Products in this category depend heavily on packaging that is both visually appealing and practical, which in turn calls for specialised machinery able to produce formats such as tubes, jars, bottles, sachets, and stick packs. The rapid emergence of direct-to-consumer brands and a broader move towards premium products are adding further depth to this demand.

Technological Advancements and Innovation Trends

The Indian flexible packaging machinery industry is undergoing meaningful technological change, shaped by automation, digitalisation, and sustainability priorities. Automation represents the most significant trend, with manufacturers increasingly adopting automated systems to improve production efficiency, reduce labour costs, and enhance quality consistency. Modern packaging machinery incorporates sophisticated control systems, sensors, and robotics to minimise human intervention while maximising precision and speed, enabling producers to achieve higher volumes while maintaining consistent quality standards and containing operational costs.

Digital integration is further transforming the industry through the adoption of Industry 4.0 principles, including connectivity, data analytics, and predictive maintenance. Machines now incorporate sensors and monitoring systems that provide real-time performance data, allowing manufacturers to optimise operations, anticipate maintenance needs, and minimise downtime. This shift improves overall equipment effectiveness and lowers the total cost of ownership, even as the industry moves towards more complex and customised packaging formats.

Sustainable Packaging and Mamata’s Value Proposition

Shift Towards Sustainable Packaging

Sustainability has become a defining force across the flexible packaging sector and the wider packaging industry, propelled by tightening regulation, environmental pressures, and consumers who increasingly expect eco-friendly options. The clearest trend is a move away from conventional plastics and over-packaging towards materials and designs that cut waste and lower the carbon footprint. Policy has reinforced this shift: the Plastic Waste Management (Second Amendment) Rules, 2021 opened the door to recycled plastics in food-contact applications, while strengthening Extended Producer Responsibility (EPR) obligations has pushed brand owners to rebuild their packaging around recyclability, recycled or bio-based content, and reduced lifecycle emissions. Lightweight flexible formats sit at the centre of this transition, since they occupy less cargo space, cut transport emissions, and can be engineered for easier recycling. Designs that avoid over-packaging, use mono-materials such as polypropylene or polyethylene, and keep convenience intact are fast becoming the norm. Beyond waste reduction, the goal for next-generation packaging extends to longer shelf life and lower spoilage, helping curb food waste at both retail and consumer levels.

Mamata’s Technological Solutions for Sustainable Packaging

To meet this growing demand for sustainability, Mamata Machinery has developed a suite of technology and machines designed to support the shift towards recyclable and environment-friendly packaging, built around flexibility, efficiency, and adaptability to a wide range of sustainable formats.

RecTech: Breakthrough Recyclable Packaging Technology

A defining development during the year was the launch of RecTech at Plastindia 2026, the Company’s breakthrough recyclable packaging technology. RecTech is an advanced technology, capable of producing & processing fully recyclable mono-material films engineered to deliver barrier protection and mechanical performance comparable to conventional composite structures such as PET and PE laminates, which are widely used but difficult to recycle. By bridging the cost and performance gap between conventional composite films and earlier-generation, expensive recyclable films, it is positioned to accelerate the adoption of sustainable packaging among leading brands. The launch is backed by a complete recyclable-compatible ecosystem developed in-house, spanning 7 and 9-layer co-extrusion blown film plants, pouch makers, and HFFS and VFFS packaging machines, enabling film production, conversion, and packaging within a single recyclable framework.

Specialised Machinery for Recyclable Mono-Material Films

The Company builds machines engineered to run recyclable mono-material film structures, including mixed polypropylene and polyethylene as well as all-polypropylene films. These support a range of output formats, from double-gusseted bags and single-serve packs to large club-sized pouches, each designed for easier recyclability and lower material consumption. At K 2025 in Düsseldorf, the Company showcased a pouch-making machine built to run fully mono-material recyclable films, reinforcing its push towards recyclable-ready packaging solutions.

Patented Technology

Mamata’s intellectual property continues to strengthen its position in sustainable packaging. Building on the cross sealing technology earlier patented in India and the United States, the Company secured a European Union patent for its Cross Sealing Device during the year, along with a European Union patent for its Multi-Purpose Sealing Module, extending its proprietary sealing technologies’ reach into the European market. These technologies help ensure seal integrity even with recycled and mono-material films, underscoring the Company’s commitment to enabling customers to transition to sustainable packaging.

Through this combination of products, ecosystem, and intellectual property, Mamata has positioned itself as a key enabler in the global move towards recyclable, efficient, and sustainable packaging, offering end-to-end solutions for brands seeking to reduce their environmental impact without compromising product safety or quality.

Challenges

Despite favourable long-term fundamentals, the Indian flexible packaging machinery industry faces several challenges that could influence its growth trajectory. Technological complexity remains significant, as modern packaging machinery demands sophisticated engineering, advanced manufacturing, and continuous innovation, requiring domestic manufacturers to invest steadily in research and development to keep pace with global technology leaders while adapting solutions to local cost and application needs. Skill development is another constraint, as the sector depends on trained technicians, engineers, and operators capable of running and maintaining advanced systems, and a shortage of such specialised talent could limit both capacity and the pace of technology adoption. The industry also remains exposed to volatility in raw material and component costs, evolving regulatory and compliance requirements, and competition from established global manufacturers. More recently, shifting global trade dynamics, including changes in tariff policy across key export markets, have added a further layer of uncertainty that can affect both demand and export competitiveness.

Future Outlook

Despite these challenges, the outlook for the Indian flexible packaging machinery industry remains positive. Strong domestic demand drivers, favourable demographics, and rising industrialisation together create a solid foundation for sustained growth, while the industry’s faster pace relative to global markets points to continued gains in competitive positioning and market share.

Government initiatives supporting manufacturing, including the Make in India programme and allied industrial development schemes, provide further impetus by encouraging technology transfer, skill development, and infrastructure improvement, while the accelerating shift towards recyclable and sustainable packaging is opening new demand for advanced, recyclable-compatible machinery. Over the longer term, success will rest on the industry’s ability to embrace innovation, build a skilled workforce, and maintain competitiveness in an increasingly global market. Companies that navigate these dynamics while capitalising on rising domestic demand and growing export opportunities will be well placed to achieve durable growth and leadership in the expanding Indian flexible packaging machinery market.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of

Mamata Machinery LimitedReport on the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the standalone financial statements of Mamata Machinery Limited ("the Company"), which comprise the standalone Balance Sheet as at 31st March 2026, the standalone Statement of Profit and Loss (including other comprehensive income), the standalone statement of changes in equity, the standalone statement of cash flows for the year then ended and notes to the standalone financial statements, including a summary of material accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards ('Ind AS') specified under Section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and other accounting principles generally accepted in India of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March 2026, and its profit (including other comprehensive income), changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the "Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements" Section of our report.

We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the standalone financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the standalone Financial Statements.

Key Audit Matter

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the standalone Financial Statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Key Audit Matter	Auditor's Response
Revenue recognition Based on its business model in Machineries business, the Company has many different types of terms of delivery arising from different types of performance obligations with its customers. Revenue from sale of goods is recognised when control is transferred to the customers and when there are no other unfulfilled obligations. This requires detailed analysis of contract regarding timing of revenue recognition. Inappropriate assessment could lead to risk of revenue getting recognised before control has been transferred. Accordingly, timing of recognition of revenue is a key audit matter.	Our audit procedure over the recognition of revenue included the following: • We assessed the compliance of the Company's revenue recognition accounting policies against the requirements of Indian Accounting Standards ("Ind AS") to identify any inappropriate policy; • We tested the design, implementation and operating effectiveness of key internal financial controls and processes for revenue recognition along with effectiveness of controls; • On a sample basis, we tested revenue transactions recorded during the year, by verifying the underlying documents, including invoices and shipping documents for assessment of fulfilment of performance obligations completed during the year; We analyzed the timing of recognition of revenue and any unusual contractual terms; • On a sample basis, we tested the invoice and shipping documents for revenue transactions recorded during the period closer to the year end and subsequent to the year end to verify recognition of revenue in the correct period; and • We assessed the adequacy of disclosures in the standalone financial statements against the requirement of Ind AS 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers

Information Other than the Standalone Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the preparation of the other information ("Other Information"). The Other Information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, for example, Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholders Information but does not include the standalone financial statements, consolidated financial statements and our auditor's reports thereon. The Other Information is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the Other Information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact to those charged with governance. We will report material misstatement, if any, on receiving the Other Information.

Responsibilities of management and Those Charged with Governance for the Standalone Financial Statements

The accompanying standalone financial statements have been approved by the Company's Board of Directors. The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, total comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended.

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so. The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going-concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial statements of the Company to express an opinion on the financial statements.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the standalone financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the standalone financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal financial control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Mamata Machinery Limited ("the Company") as of 31st March 2026 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the 'Guidance Note'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing, deemed to be prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A Company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of standalone financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that:

- (1) Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company;
- (2) Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of standalone financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of Management and directors of the Company; and
- (3) Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the standalone financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper Management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

- (b) it is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;

4. Material Accounting Policies

4.1 Critical Accounting estimates, assumptions and judgements.

The preparation of the Financial Statements in conformity with Ind AS requires management to make estimates, judgements and assumptions. These estimates, judgements and assumptions affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of Financial Statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Accounting estimates could change from period to period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as management becomes aware of the circumstances surrounding the estimates. Changes in estimates are reflected in the financial statement in the period in which changes are made and if material, their effects are disclosed in the notes to the Financial Statements. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and future periods are affected.

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

4.1.1 Judgements

Information about judgements made in applying accounting policies that have the most material effects on the amounts recognized in the financial statements is included in the following notes:

Revenue recognition:

Revenue is measured based on the consideration specified in a contract with a customer. The Company recognizes revenue when it transfers control over a good or service to a customer.

4.1.2 Accounting Estimates and Assumptions

The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing material adjustment to the carrying values of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

a) Employee Benefit Obligations

Employee benefit obligations are determined using actuarial valuations. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments. These include the estimation of the appropriate discount rate; future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, the employee benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

b) Provisions and contingencies

From time to time, the Company is subject to legal proceedings, the ultimate outcome of each being subject to uncertainties inherent in litigation. A provision for litigation is made when it is considered probable that payment will be made, and the amount can be reasonably estimated. Significant judgment is required when evaluating the provision including, the probability of an unfavorable outcome and the ability to make a reasonable estimate of the amount of potential loss. Litigation provisions are reviewed at each accounting period and revisions are made for the changes in facts and circumstances. Contingent liabilities are disclosed in the notes forming part of the Financial Statements. Contingent assets are not disclosed in the Financial Statements unless an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

c) Deferred income tax assets and liabilities

Significant management judgment is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognized, based upon the likely timing and the level of future taxable profits. The amount of total deferred tax assets could change if management estimates of projected future taxable income or if tax regulations undergo a change. Similarly, the identification of temporary differences pertaining to subsidiary that are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future and the determination of the related deferred income tax liabilities, require the Management to make material judgments, estimates and assumptions.

d) Useful lives of property, plant and equipment (PPE') and intangible assets

Management reviews the estimated useful lives and residual value of PPE and Intangibles at the end of each reporting period. Factors such as changes in the expected level of usage, technological developments, units-of-production and product life cycle, could significantly impact the economic useful lives and the residual values of these assets. Consequently, the future depreciation and amortization charge could be revised and may have an impact on the profit of future years.

4.2 The Company has consistently applied the following material accounting policies to all periods presented in these Financial Statements.

a) Revenue recognition:

Revenue is recognized upon transfer of control of promised goods to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration which the Company expects to receive in exchange for those goods. To recognize revenues, the Company applies the following five step approach:

- identify the contract with a customer,
- identify the performance obligations in the contract,
- determine the transaction price,
- allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and
- recognize revenues when a performance obligation is satisfied.

Sale of goods

The Company manufactures and sells packaging machines. Sales are recognized when control of the products has transferred, being when the products are delivered to the customers. Delivery occurs when the products have been shipped to a specific location, the risks of obsolescence and loss have been transferred to the customer.

The timing of transfers of control varies depending on the terms of sale.

Revenue is measured based on the transaction price, which is the consideration, adjusted for trade discount, cash discount, rebates, scheme allowances, incentives and returns, if any, as specified in the contracts with the customers. Revenue excludes taxes collected from customers on behalf of the government. Accruals for discounts/incentives and returns are estimated (using the most likely method) based on accumulated experience and underlying schemes and agreements with customers.

The Company gives warranties on certain products undertaking to repair or replace the item that failed to perform satisfactorily during the warranty period. Provision for warranties is made for probable future claims on sales effected and are estimated based on previous claim experience and are accounted for under Ind AS 37 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets.

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

Sales of services

Revenue from sales of services is recognized when the activity is performed as per service contract. In arrangements for sale of goods, the Company provides after-sales service to the end customers which entitles them to avail free of cost maintenance services for a specified period and after that a paid service. When two or more revenue-generating activities or deliverables are provided under a single arrangement, each deliverable that is considered to be a separate unit of account is accounted for separately.

Other operating revenue:

i) Export incentive entitlements are recognized as income when the right to receive credit as per the terms of the scheme is established in respect of the exports made, and where there is no significant uncertainty regarding the ultimate collection of the relevant export proceeds. These are presented as other operating income in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

ii) Dividend and interest income:

Dividend income is recognized when the Company's right to receive the payment is established, which is generally when shareholders approve the dividend.

Interest income from a financial asset is recognized when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the amount of income can be measured reliably. Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable, which is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to that asset's net carrying amount on initial recognition.

b) Tax Expense

The tax expense comprises of income tax and deferred tax. Tax is recognized in Statement of Profit and Loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognized in the comprehensive income or in equity.

- i. Current Income taxes: Current income tax for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities based on the taxable income for the period. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the current tax amounts are those that are enacted or substantively enacted as at the reporting date and applicable for the period. While determining the tax provisions, the Company assesses whether each uncertain tax position is to be considered separately or together with one or more uncertain tax positions depending on the nature and circumstances of each uncertain tax position. The Company offsets current tax assets and current tax liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognized amounts and where it intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realize the asset and liability simultaneously.
- ii. Deferred taxes: Deferred income tax is recognized using the balance sheet approach. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for deductible and taxable temporary differences arising between the tax base of assets and liabilities and their carrying amount in Financial Statements, except when the deferred income tax arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and affects neither accounting nor taxable profits or loss at the time of the transaction.

Deferred income tax assets are recognized to the extent it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilized.

Deferred income tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable temporary differences except in respect of taxable temporary differences that are expected to reverse within the tax holiday period.

The Company offsets deferred income tax assets and liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities, and they relate to taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity, or on different taxable entities where there is an intention to settle the current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities will be realized simultaneously.

c) Employee benefit expense

i. Post-employment and pension plans

The Company participates in various employee benefit plans. Pensions and other post-employment benefits are classified as either defined contribution plans or defined benefit plans. Under a defined contribution plan, the Company's only obligation is to pay a fixed amount with no obligation to pay further contributions if the fund does not hold sufficient assets to pay all employee benefits. The related actuarial and investment risks are borne by the employee. The expenditure for defined contribution plans is recognized as an expense during the period when the employee provides service. Under a defined benefit plan, it is the Company's obligation to provide agreed benefits to the employees. The related actuarial and investment risks are borne by the Company. The present value of the defined benefit obligations is calculated by an independent actuary using the projected unit credit method.

Re-measurement comprising actuarial gains or losses and the return on plan assets (excluding interest) are immediately recognized in other comprehensive income, net of taxes and permanently excluded from profit or loss.

Provident fund

Employees receive benefits from a provident fund, which is a defined benefit plan. The employer and employees each make periodic contributions to the plan. A portion of the contribution is made to the approved provident fund trust managed by the Company while the remainder of the contribution is made to the government administered pension fund. The contributions to the trust managed by the Company is accounted for as a defined benefit plan as the Company is liable for any shortfall in the fund assets based on the government specified minimum rates of return.

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

Gratuity

In accordance with the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972, applicable for Indian companies, the Company provides for a lump sum payment to eligible employees, at retirement or termination of employment based on the last drawn salary and years of employment with the Company. The gratuity fund is managed by the third-party fund managers.

The Company's obligation in respect of above plans, which are defined benefit plans, are provided for based on actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method. The Company recognizes actuarial gains and losses in other comprehensive income, net of taxes.

ii. Termination benefits

Termination benefits are expensed when the Company can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits.

iii. Short-term benefits

Short-term employee benefit obligations are measured on an undiscounted basis and are recorded as expense as the related service is provided. A liability is recognized for the amount expected to be paid under short-term cash bonus or profit-sharing plans, if the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee and the obligation can be estimated reliably.

d) Property, Plant and Equipmenti) Recognition and measurement:

Property, Plant and equipment are stated at historical cost, less accumulated depreciation, and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The historical cost comprises of the purchase price, taxes, duties, freight, borrowing cost and other incidental expenses directly attributable and related to the acquisition and installation of the concerned assets wherever applicable.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognized as separate assets, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the entity and cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

ii) Depreciation and amortization method, estimated useful lives and residual value:

Depreciation amount for assets is the cost of an asset, or other amount substituted for cost less its estimated residual value.

Depreciation on PPE (other than free hold land and factory building) has been provided based on useful life of the assets in accordance with Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013, on Written Down Value (WDV) method. For factory building depreciation provided on Straight Line Method. Freehold land is not depreciated.

Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual value are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Depreciation on additions is charged proportionately from the date the asset is ready for its intended use. Depreciation on sale/ deduction from tangible assets is provided up to the date of sale/ deduction or discarding date as the case maybe.

The estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment for current and comparative periods are as follows:

Block of Asset	Estimated life (Years)
Land	-
Buildings	10-30
Plant & Machinery	10
Electrical and fittings	10
Furniture and Fixture	10
Vehicles	8
Computer	3
Office Equipment	5
Computer Software	5

Based on technical evaluation and consequent advice, the management believes that its estimates of useful lives as given above best represent the period over which management expects to use these assets.

iii) De-Recognition:

An item of property, plant and equipment and any significant part initially recognized is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on the derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the income statement when the asset is derecognized.

e) Impairment of non-financial assets

At each balance sheet date, the carrying amount of fixed assets is reviewed by the management to determine whether there is any indication that those assets suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (the recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's net selling price or value in use). In assessing the value in use, the estimated future cash flows expected from the continuing use of the assets and from their disposal are discounted to their present value using a pre-discounted rate that reflects the current market assessment of the time value of money and risks specific to the asset.

Reversal of impairment loss is recognized immediately as income in the Profit and Loss Account.

f) Other Intangible assets

Other Intangible assets that are acquired by the Company and that have finite useful lives are measured at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Intangible assets are amortized over a period of 5 years on straight line method. Subsequent expenditures are capitalized only when they increase the future economic benefits embodied in the specific asset to which they relate.

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

g) Investment Property

Property that is held for long-term rental yields or for capital appreciation or both, is classified as investment property. Investment property is measured initially at its cost, including related transaction costs and where applicable borrowing costs. Subsequent expenditure is capitalized to the asset's carrying amount only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance costs are expensed when incurred. When part of an investment property is replaced, the carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognized. Investment properties are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. Though the Company measures investment property using cost-based measurement, the fair value of investment property is disclosed in the notes. The Company has used government registration rates for the purpose of determining fair value of Land and Buildings.

h) Foreign currency transaction

Transactions in currencies other than the entity's functional currency (foreign currencies) are translated at exchange rates on the date of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the reporting date are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rate on that date.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on translating monetary items at rates different from those at which they were translated on initial recognition during the period or in previous period are recognized in profit or loss in the period in which they arise except for:

Exchange differences relating to the translation of the results and the net assets of the Company's foreign operations from their functional currencies to the Company's presentation currency (i.e. INR) are recognized directly in the other comprehensive income and accumulated in the foreign currency translation reserve. Exchange differences in the foreign currency translation reserve are reclassified to a statement of profit or loss account on the disposal of the foreign operation.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in foreign currency are measured using the exchange rates at the date of initial transaction. Non-monetary items measured at fair value are measured using the exchange rate at the date when the fair value was determined.

i) Financial instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

i. Financial Assets:

Recognition and measurement:

Initial recognition and measurement:

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, are measured as amortized cost, fair value through other comprehensive income and fair value through profit and loss. The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the company's business model for managing them.

Subsequent measurement:

- Financial assets carried at amortized cost: A financial asset is subsequently measured at amortized cost if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.
- Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income: A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.
- Financial assets at fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL): A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through profit and loss if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by selling financial assets.

Equity instruments

All equity instruments in scope of Ind AS 109, "Financial Instruments: Recognition, Measurement and Derecognition" are measured at fair value. Equity instruments which are held for trading are classified as at FVTPL. For all other equity instruments, the Company may make an irrevocable election to present subsequent changes in the fair value in OCI. The Company makes such an election on an instrument-by-instrument basis. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable. If the Company decides to classify an equity instrument as at FVTOCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, including foreign exchange gain or loss and excluding dividends, are recognized in the OCI. There is no recycling of the amounts from OCI to profit or loss, even on sale of investment. However, the Company may transfer the cumulative gain or loss within equity on derecognition. Equity instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognized in the profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial instruments

The Company derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or it transfers the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition under Ind AS 109, "Financial Instruments: Recognition, Measurement and Derecognition". If the Company retains substantially all the risks and rewards of a transferred financial asset, the Company continues to recognize the financial asset and recognizes a borrowing for the proceeds received. A financial liability (or a part of a financial liability) is derecognized from the Company's balance sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

Impairment of financial assets

In accordance with Ind AS 109, "Financial Instruments: Recognition, Measurement and Derecognition", the Company applies expected credit loss (ECL) model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on the Trade receivables or any contractual right to receive cash or another financial asset that result from transactions that are within the scope of Ind AS 115, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers". The Company follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables or any contractual right to receive cash or another financial asset.

The application of simplified approach does not require the Company to track changes in credit risk. Rather, it recognizes impairment loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date, right from its initial recognition. As a practical expedient, the Company uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss allowance on portfolio of its trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the trade receivables and is adjusted for forward-looking estimates. At every reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analyzed.

ii. Financial Liabilities and equity instruments:Classification as debt or equity:

Debt and equity instruments issued by the Company are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments:

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Company are recognized at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Repurchase of the Company's own equity instruments is recognized and deducted directly in equity. No gain or loss is recognized in profit or loss on the purchase, sale, issue or cancellation of the Company's own equity instruments.

Initial recognition and measurement:

All financial liabilities are classified at initial recognition as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs. The Company's financial liabilities include loans and borrowings including bank overdraft, trade payable, trade deposits and other payables.

Subsequent measurement:

All financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. Financial liabilities, including derivatives and embedded derivatives, which are designated for measurement at FVTPL, are subsequently measured at fair value.

Derecognition:

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference between the carrying amount of financial liability derecognized and the consideration paid and payable is recognized in profit or loss.

j) Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost determined on First In First out ("FIFO") basis and net realizable value. Cost includes purchase price, duties, transport & handling costs and other costs directly attributable to the acquisition and bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. The basis of determination of cost remains as follows:

- a) Raw material, packing material: At cost
- b) Work in progress: Cost of input plus appropriate proportionate share of overhead determined based on Material Consumption Method up to the stage of completion.
- c) Finished goods: Cost of input plus appropriate proportionate share of overhead determined based on Material Consumption Method up to the Completion.

k) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents in the balance sheet comprise cash at bank, cash on hand, other short-term deposits with original maturities of three months or less which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

l) Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. Where discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as a finance cost.

The amount recognized as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at reporting date, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, the receivable is recognized as an asset if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

m) Segment reporting

As per Ind AS 108 -Operating Segments, the Chief Operating Decision Maker evaluates the Company's performance and allocates the resources based on an analysis of various performance indicators by business segments. Inter segment sales and transfers are reflected at market prices. Segment revenue, segment expenses, segment assets and segment liabilities have been identified to segments based on their relationship to the operating activities of the segment. Inter segment revenue is accounted based on transactions which are primarily determined based on market/fair value factors. Revenue, expenses, assets and liabilities which relate to the Company as a whole and are not allocable to segments on a reasonable basis have been included under "unallocated revenue/expenses/assets/liabilities".

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

n) Contingent Liabilities

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognized because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation.

o) Contingent Assets

Contingent assets are not disclosed in the Financial Statements unless an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

Provisions, contingent liabilities, contingent assets and commitments are reviewed at each balance sheet date.

p) Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed using the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period adjusted for treasury shares held. Diluted earnings per share is computed using the weighted-average number of equity and dilutive equivalent shares outstanding during the period, using the treasury stock method for options, except where the results would be anti-dilutive. The number of equity shares and potentially dilutive equity shares are adjusted retrospectively for all periods presented for any splits and bonus shares issues including for change effected prior to the approval of the Financial Statements by the Board of Directors.

(i) Leases

The Company evaluates each contract or arrangement, whether it qualifies as lease as defined under Ind AS 116, Leases.

The Company as a lessee

The Company enters into an arrangement for lease of land, buildings, plant and machinery including computer equipment and vehicles. Such arrangements are generally for a fixed period but may have extension or termination options. The Company assesses whether the contract is, or contains, a lease, at its inception. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to:

- control the use of an identified asset,
- obtain substantially all the economic benefits from use of the identified asset, and
- direct the use of the identified asset.

The Company determines the lease term as the non-cancellable period of a lease, together with periods covered by an option to extend the lease, where the Company is reasonably certain to exercise that option.

The Company at the commencement of the lease contract recognizes a Right-of-Use (RoU) asset at cost and corresponding lease liability, except for leases with term of less than twelve months (short term leases) and low-value assets. For these short term and low value leases, the Company recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The cost of the right-of-use asset comprises the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability, any lease payments made at or before the inception date of the lease, plus any initial direct costs, less any lease incentives received, plus estimated cost of dismantling of assets. Subsequently, the right-of-use assets are measured at cost less any accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The right-of-use assets are depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date over the shorter of lease term or useful life of right-of-use asset. The estimated useful life of right-of-use assets are determined on the same basis as those of property, plant and equipment.

The Company applies Ind AS 36, "Impairment of Assets," to determine whether an RoU asset is impaired and accounts for any identified impairment loss as described in the impairment of non-financial assets below. For lease liabilities at the commencement of the lease, the Company measures the lease liability at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at that date. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if that rate can be readily determined, if that rate is not readily determined, the lease payments are discounted using the incremental borrowing rate that the Company would have to pay to borrow funds, including the consideration of factors such as the nature of the asset and location, collateral, market terms and conditions, as applicable in a similar economic environment. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. The Company recognizes the amount of the re-measurement of lease liability as an adjustment to the right-of-use assets. Where the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset is reduced to zero and there is a further reduction in the measurement of the lease liability, the Company recognizes any remaining amount of the re-measurement in Statement of profit and loss.

Lease liability payments are classified as cash used in financing activities in the statement of cash flows.

The Company as a Lessor

Lease under which the Company is a lessor are classified as finance or operating leases. Lease contracts where all the risks and rewards are substantially transferred to the lessee, the lease contracts are classified as finance leases. All other leases are classified as operating leases. For leases under which the Company is an intermediate lessor, the Company accounts for the head-lease and the sub-lease as two separate contracts. The sub-lease is further classified either as a finance lease or an operating lease by reference to the RoU asset arising from the head-lease.

q) Cash flow statement:

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit for the period is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and items of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company is segregated.

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

r) Non-current assets and disposal groups held for sale

Assets and liabilities of disposal groups that are available for immediate sale and where the sale is highly probable of being completed within one year from the date of classification are considered and classified as assets held for sale and liabilities associated with assets held for sale. Non-current assets and disposal groups held for sale are measured at the lower of carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell.

- i. Disposal of assets: The gain or loss arising on disposal or retirement of assets is recognized in the statement of profit and loss.
- ii. De-Recognition: An item of property, plant and equipment and any significant part initially recognized is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the income statement when the asset is derecognized.

s) Government grants

The Company recognizes government grants only when there is reasonable assurance that the conditions attached to them will be complied with, and the grants will be received. When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognized as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the related costs, for which it is intended to compensate, are expensed. When the grant relates to an asset, the Company deducts such grant amount from the carrying amount of the asset.

t) Exceptional items

Exceptional items refer to items of income or expense, including tax items, within the statement of profit and loss from ordinary activities which are non-recurring and are of such size, nature or incidence that their separate disclosure is considered necessary to explain the performance of the Company.

u) Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Ministry of Corporate Affairs ("MCA") notifies new standards or amendments to the existing standards under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as issued from time to time.

During the year, MCA notified amendments to Ind AS 21 – The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates, Ind AS 1 – Presentation of Financial Statements, Ind AS 7 – Statement of Cash Flows and Ind AS 107 – Financial Instruments: Disclosures, applicable from April 1, 2025.

The Company has evaluated the aforesaid amendments and concluded that the same do not have any material impact on its financial statements.

Furthermore, in presenting the above sensitivity analysis, the present value of the Defined Benefit Obligation has been calculated using the projected unit credit method at the end of the reporting period, which is the same method as applied in calculating the Defined Benefit Obligation as recognised in the balance sheet.

Key Audit Matter

Key Audit Matter	Auditor's Response
Revenue recognition Based on its business model in Machineries business, the Company has many different types of terms of delivery arising from different types of performance obligations with its customers. Revenue from sale of goods is recognised when control is transferred to the customers and when there are no other unfulfilled obligations. This requires detailed analysis of contract regarding timing of revenue recognition. Inappropriate assessment could lead to risk of revenue getting recognised before control has been transferred. Accordingly, timing of recognition of revenue is a key audit matter.	Our audit procedures concerning the recognition of revenue included the following: - We assessed the compliance of the Company's revenue recognition accounting policies against the requirements of Indian Accounting Standards ("Ind AS") to identify any inappropriate policy; - We tested the design, implementation and operating effectiveness of key internal financial controls and processes for revenue recognition along with effectiveness of controls; - On a sample basis, we tested revenue transactions recorded during the year, by verifying the underlying documents, including invoices and shipping documents for assessment of fulfilment of performance obligations completed during the year; We analyzed the timing of recognition of revenue and any unusual contractual terms; - On a sample basis, we tested the invoice and shipping documents for revenue transactions recorded during the period closer to the year end and subsequent to the year end to verify recognition of revenue in the correct period; and - We assessed the adequacy of disclosures in the Consolidated financial statements against the requirement of Ind AS 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers.

Responsibilities of management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been approved by the Holding Company's Board of Directors. The Holding Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance, consolidated total comprehensive income, consolidated changes in equity and consolidated cash flows of the Group in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended.

The respective Board of Directors of the entities included in the Group are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of each entity and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; the selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective management and Board of Directors of the entities included in the Group are responsible for assessing the ability of each entity to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the entity or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the entities included in the Group are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of each entity.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole, are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3) (i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Holding Company has an adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going-concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Holding Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Holding Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of such entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of financial information of such entities.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the consolidated financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the consolidated financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the statements in our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the consolidated financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

However, inventory management has no feature of recording audit trail (edit log) facility. Annexure - A to the Independent Auditors' Report

(Referred to in paragraph 1(g) under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' Section of our report of even date for the year ended 31st March, 2026)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting under Clause (i) of Sub-Section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the Holding Company for the year ended 31st March, 2026, we have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Mamata Machinery Limited ("the Company") as of 31st March, 2026.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the respective internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Holding Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective Holding Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Holding Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in Other Matter paragraph below is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls system over financial reporting of the Holding Company.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A Holding Company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of consolidated financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Holding Company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Holding Company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Holding Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Holding Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the Holding Company's assets that could have a material effect on the consolidated financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper Management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of the information and according to the explanations given to us, the Holding Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March, 2026, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Holding Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

2. Statement of Compliance

These Ind AS Consolidated Financial Statements (“Consolidated Financial Statements”) are prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards 110 (“Ind AS 110”) on ‘Consolidation of Financial Statements’, as per the provisions of Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 notified under section 133 of the Companies Act 2013, (“the Act”) and other relevant provisions of the Act.

The Consolidated Financial Statements are presented in Indian Rupees (“INR”) and all values are rounded to the nearest Lakhs (₹ 00,000) upto one decimal, except when otherwise indicated. Due to rounding off, the numbers presented throughout the document may not add up precisely to the totals and percentages may not precisely reflect the absolute figures. Previous year figures have been regrouped/re-casted/re-classified wherever necessary.

3. Basis of Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements

The Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared under historical cost convention on accrual basis, unless otherwise stated. These Consolidated Financial Statements of the Group are presented as per Schedule III (Division II) of the Companies Act, 2013.

For the purpose of Ind AS Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended March 31, 2024 of the Group, the transition date is considered as April 01, 2022 for the purpose of preparation of Statutory Ind AS Financial Statements as required under the Act. Accordingly, the Group have applied the same accounting policy and accounting policy choices (both mandatory exceptions and optional exemptions availed as per Ind AS 101, as applicable) as on April 01, 2022 for the 2022 Ind AS Financial Statements, as initially adopted on transition date i.e. April 01, 2022.

As such, this Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements are prepared considering the accounting principles stated in Ind AS, as adopted by the Group and described in subsequent paragraphs.

Current and non-current classification.

The Group presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current and noncurrent classification.

Assets

An asset is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:

- it is expected to be realised in, or is intended for sale or consumption in, the Group’s normal operating cycle;
- it is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;
- it is expected to be realised within 12 months after the balance sheet date; or
- it is cash or a cash equivalent unless it is restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least 12 months after the balance sheet date. Current assets include the current portion of non-current financial assets. All other assets are classified as non-current.

Liabilities

A liability is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:

- it is expected to be settled in, the Group’s normal operating cycle;
- it is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;
- it is due to be settled within 12 months after the balance sheet date; or
- the Group does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the balance sheet date.

Current liabilities include current portion of noncurrent financial liabilities.

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

All other liabilities are classified as non-current.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

Operating cycle

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realization in cash and cash equivalents. The Group has identified twelve months as its operating cycle for the purpose of current and non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

4. Basis of Consolidation

The Consolidated Financial Statements comprise the Financial Statements of the Parent Company and its Subsidiary as disclosed in Note 68. Control exists when the parent has power over the entity, is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns by using its power over the entity. Power is demonstrated through existing rights that give the ability to direct relevant activities, those which significantly affect the entity's returns. Subsidiary is consolidated from the date control commences until the date control ceases.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the Group and to the non-controlling interests. Total comprehensive income of subsidiary is attributed to the owners of the Group and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. The financial statements of the Group companies are consolidated on a line-by-line basis and intra- Group balances, transactions including unrealized gain/loss from such transactions and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated upon consolidation. These Financial Statements are prepared by applying uniform accounting policies in use at the Group.

5. Material Accounting Policies

5.1 Critical Accounting estimates, assumptions and judgements.

The preparation of the Consolidated Financial Statements in conformity with Ind AS requires management to make estimates, judgements and assumptions. These estimates, judgements and assumptions affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of Consolidated Financial Statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Accounting estimates could change from period to period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as management becomes aware of the circumstances surrounding the estimates. Changes in estimates are reflected in the financial statement in the period in which changes are made and if material, their effects are disclosed in the notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised and future periods are affected.

5.1.1 Judgements

Information about judgements made in applying accounting policies that have the most material effects on the amounts recognised in the financial statements is included in the following notes:

Revenue recognition:

Revenue is measured based on the consideration specified in a contract with a customer. The Company recognises revenue when it transfers control over a good or service to a customer.

5.1.2 Accounting Estimates and Assumptions

The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying values of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

a) Employee Benefit Obligations

Employee benefit obligations are determined using actuarial valuations. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments. These include the estimation of the appropriate discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, the employee benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

b) Provisions and contingencies

From time to time, the Group is subject to legal proceedings, the ultimate outcome of each being subject to uncertainties inherent in litigation. A provision for litigation is made when it is considered probable that a payment will be made and the amount can be reasonably estimated. Significant judgment is required when evaluating the provision including, the probability of an unfavourable outcome and the ability to make a reasonable estimate of the amount of potential loss. Litigation provisions are reviewed at each accounting period and revisions made for the changes in facts and circumstances. Contingent liabilities are disclosed in the notes forming part of the Consolidated Financial Statements. Contingent assets are not disclosed in the Consolidated Financial Statements unless an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

c) Deferred income tax assets and liabilities

Significant management judgment is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognised, based upon the likely timing and the level of future taxable profits. The amount of total deferred tax assets could change if management estimates of projected future taxable income or if tax regulations undergo a change. Similarly, the identification of temporary differences pertaining to subsidiary that are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future and the determination of the related deferred income tax liabilities, require the Management to make material judgments, estimates and assumptions.

d) Useful lives of property, plant and equipment ('PPE') and intangible assets

Management reviews the estimated useful lives and residual value of PPE and Intangibles at the end of each reporting period. Factors such as changes in the expected level of usage,

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

technological developments, units-of-production and product life-cycle, could significantly impact the economic useful lives and the residual values of these assets. Consequently, the future depreciation and amortisation charge could be revised and may have an impact on the profit of the future years.

5.2 The Group has consistently applied the following material accounting policies to all periods presented in these Consolidated Financial Statements.

a) Revenue recognition:

Revenue is recognised upon transfer of control of promised goods to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration which the Group expects to receive in exchange for those goods. To recognize revenues, the Group applies the following five step approach:

- identify the contract with a customer,
- identify the performance obligations in the contract,
- determine the transaction price,
- allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and
- recognise revenues when a performance obligation is satisfied.

Sale of goods

The Company manufactures and sells Converting, packaging and Plastic Extrusion machines. Sales are recognized when control of the products has transferred, being when the products are delivered to the customers which generally coincides with the delivery of goods to customers, based on contracts with the customers.

Revenue is measured based on the transaction price, which is the consideration, adjusted for trade discount, cash discount, rebates, scheme allowances, incentives and returns, if any, as specified in the contracts with the customers. Revenue excludes taxes collected from customers on behalf of the government.

The Group gives warranties on certain products undertaking to repair or replace the item that failed to perform satisfactorily during the warranty period. Provision for warranties is made for probable future claims on sales effected and are estimated based on previous claim experience and are accounted for under Ind AS 37 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets.

Sale of services

Revenue from sale of services is recognized when the activity is performed as per service contract. In arrangements for sale of goods, the Group provides after-sales service to the end customers which entitles them to avail free of cost maintenance services for a specified period and after that a paid service. When two or more revenue-generating activities or deliverables are provided under a single arrangement, each deliverable that is considered to be a separate unit of account is accounted for separately.

i) Other operating revenue:

Export incentive entitlements are recognised as income when the right to receive credit as per the terms of the scheme is established in respect of the exports made, and where there is no significant uncertainty regarding the ultimate collection of the relevant export proceeds. These are presented as other operating income in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

ii) Dividend and interest income:

Dividend income is recognised when the Group's right to receive the payment is established, which is generally when shareholders approve the dividend.

Interest income from a financial asset is recognised when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the amount of income can be measured reliably. Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable, which is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to that asset's net carrying amount on initial recognition.

b) Tax Expense:

The tax expense comprises of income tax and deferred tax. Tax is recognized in Statement of Profit and Loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognized in the comprehensive income or in equity.

i. Current Income taxes: Current income tax for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities based on the taxable income for the period. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the current tax amounts are those that are enacted or substantively enacted as at the reporting date and applicable for the period. While determining the tax provisions, the Group assesses whether each uncertain tax position is to be considered separately or together with one or more uncertain tax positions depending the nature and circumstances of each uncertain tax position. The Group offsets current tax assets and current tax liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognized amounts and where it intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realize the asset and liability simultaneously.

ii. Deferred taxes: Deferred income tax is recognized using the balance sheet approach. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for deductible and taxable temporary differences arising between the tax base of assets and liabilities and their carrying amount in Consolidated Financial Statements, except when the deferred income tax arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and affects neither accounting nor taxable profits or loss at the time of the transaction.

Deferred income tax assets are recognized to the extent it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilized.

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

Deferred income tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable temporary differences except in respect of taxable temporary differences that is expected to reverse within the tax holiday period.

The Group offsets deferred income tax assets and liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities, and they relate to taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity, or on different taxable entities where there is an intention to settle the current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities will be realized simultaneously.

c) Segment reporting

As per Ind AS 108 -Operating Segments, the Chief Operating Decision Maker evaluates the Group's performance and allocates the resources based on an analysis of various performance indicators by business segments. Inter segment sales and transfers are reflected at market prices. Segment revenue, segment expenses, segment assets and segment liabilities have been identified to segments based on their relationship to the operating activities of the segment. Inter segment revenue is accounted based on transactions which are primarily determined based on market/fair value factors. Revenue, expenses, assets and liabilities which relate to the Group as a whole and are not allocable to segments on a reasonable basis have been included under "unallocated revenue/expenses/assets/liabilities".

d) Employee benefit expense

i. Post-employment and pension plans

The Group participates in various employee benefit plans. Pensions and other post-employment benefits are classified as either defined contribution plans or defined benefit plans. Under a defined contribution plan, the Group's only obligation is to pay a fixed amount with no obligation to pay further contributions if the fund does not hold sufficient assets to pay all employee benefits. The related actuarial and investment risks are borne by the employee. The expenditure for defined contribution plans is recognized as an expense during the period when the employee provides service. Under a defined benefit plan, it is the Group's obligation to provide agreed benefits to the employees. The related actuarial and investment risks are borne by the Group. The present value of the defined benefit obligations is calculated by an independent actuary using the projected unit credit method.

Re-measurement comprising actuarial gains or losses and the return on plan assets (excluding interest) are immediately recognized in other comprehensive income, net of taxes and permanently excluded from profit or loss.

Provident fund

Employees receive benefits from a provident fund, which is a defined benefit plan. The employer and employees each make periodic contributions to the plan. A portion of the contribution is made to the approved provident fund trust managed by the Group while the remainder of the contribution is made to the government administered pension fund. The contributions to the trust managed by the Group is accounted for as a defined benefit plan as the Group is liable for any shortfall in the fund assets based on the government specified minimum rates of return.

Gratuity

In accordance with the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972, applicable for Indian companies, the Group provides for a lump sum payment to eligible employees, at retirement or termination of employment based on the last drawn salary and years of employment with the Group. The gratuity fund is managed by the third-party fund managers.

The Group's obligation in respect of above plans, which are defined benefit plans, are provided for based on actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method. The Group recognizes actuarial gains and losses in other comprehensive income, net of taxes.

ii. Termination benefits

Termination benefits are expensed when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits.

iii. Short-term benefits

Short-term employee benefit obligations are measured on an undiscounted basis and are recorded as expense as the related service is provided. A liability is recognized for the amount expected to be paid under short-term cash bonus or profit-sharing plans, if the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee and the obligation can be estimated reliably.

e) Property, Plant and Equipment

i) Recognition and measurement:

Property, Plant and equipment are stated at historical cost, less accumulated depreciation, and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The historical cost comprises of the purchase price, taxes, duties, freight, borrowing cost and other incidental expenses directly attributable and related to the acquisition and installation of the concerned assets wherever applicable.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognized as separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the entity and cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

ii) Depreciation and amortization method, estimated useful lives and residual value:

Depreciation amount for assets is the cost of an asset, or other amount substituted for cost less its estimated residual value.

Depreciation on PPE (other than free hold land and factory building) has been provided based on useful life of the assets in accordance with Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013, on Written Down Value (WDV) method. For factory building depreciation provided on Straight Line Method. Freehold land is not depreciated.

Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual value are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

Depreciation on additions is charged proportionately from the date the asset is ready for its intended use. Depreciation on sale/deduction from tangible assets is provided up to the date of sale/deduction or discarding date as the case maybe.

The estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment for current and comparative periods are as follows:

Block of Asset	Estimated life (Years)
Land	-
Buildings	10-30
Plant & Machinery	5-15
Electrical and Fittings	10
Furniture and Fixture	7-39
Vehicles	5-8
Computer	3
Office Equipment	5
Computer Software	5

Based on technical evaluation and consequent advice, the management believes that its estimates of useful lives as given above best represent the period over which management expects to use these assets.

iii) De-Recognition:

An item of property, plant and equipment and any significant part initially recognized is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on the derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the income statement when the asset is derecognized.

f) Impairment of non-financial assets

At each balance sheet date, the carrying amount of fixed assets is reviewed by the management to determine whether there is any indication that those assets suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (the recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's net selling price or value in use). In assessing the value in use, the estimated future cash flows expected from the continuing use of the assets and from their disposal are discounted to their present value using a pre-discounted rate that reflects the current market assessment of the time value of money and risks specific to the asset.

Reversal of impairment loss is recognized immediately as income in the Profit and Loss Account.

g) Other Intangible assets

Other Intangible assets that are acquired by the Group and that have finite useful lives are measured at cost less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Intangible assets are amortized over a period of 5 years on straight line method. Subsequent expenditures are capitalised only when they increase the future economic benefits embodied in the specific asset to which they relate.

h) Investment Property

Property that is held for long-term rental yields or for capital appreciation or both, is classified as investment property. Investment property is measured initially at its cost, including related transaction costs and where applicable borrowing costs. Subsequent expenditure is capitalised to the asset's carrying amount only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance costs are expensed when incurred. When part of an investment property is replaced, the carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. Investment properties are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. Though the Group measures investment property using cost-based measurement, the fair value of investment property is disclosed in the notes. The Group has used government registration rates for the purpose of determining fair value of Land and Buildings.

i) Foreign currency transaction

In preparing the financial statements of each individual Group entity, transactions in currencies other than the entity's functional currency (foreign currencies) are translated at exchange rates on the date of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the reporting date are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rate on that date.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on translating monetary items at rates different from those at which they were translated on initial recognition during the period or in previous period are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise except for:

Exchange differences relating to the translation of the results and the net assets of the Group's foreign operations from their functional currencies to the Group's presentation currency (i.e. INR) are recognised directly in the other comprehensive income and accumulated in the foreign currency translation reserve. Exchange differences in the foreign currency translation reserve are reclassified to a statement of profit or loss account on the disposal of the foreign operation.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in foreign currency are measured using the exchange rates at the date of initial transaction.

Foreign operations

For the purposes of presenting these Consolidated Financial Statements, the assets and liabilities of Group's foreign operations, are translated to the Indian Rupees at exchange rates at the end of each reporting period. The income and expenses of such foreign operations are translated at the average exchange rates for the period. Resulting foreign currency differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and presented within equity as part of Foreign Currency Translation Reserve (and attributed to non-controlling interests as appropriate). When a foreign operation is disposed off, the relevant amount in the Foreign Currency Translation Reserve is reclassified to profit or loss.

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

j) Financial instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

i. Financial Assets:

Recognition and measurement:

Initial recognition and measurement:

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, are measured as amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income and fair value through profit and loss. The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the group's business model for managing them.

Subsequent measurement:

- Financial assets carried at amortized cost: A financial asset is subsequently measured at amortized cost if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.
- Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income: A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.
- Financial assets at fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL): A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through profit and loss if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by selling financial assets.

Equity instruments

All equity instruments in scope of Ind AS 109 are measured at fair value. Equity instruments which are held for trading are classified as at FVTPL. For all other equity instruments, the Group may make an irrevocable election to present subsequent changes in the fair value in OCI. The Group makes such an election on an instrument-by-instrument basis. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable. If the Group decides to classify an equity instrument as at FVTOCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, including foreign exchange gain or loss and excluding dividends, are recognised in the OCI. There is no recycling of the amounts from OCI to profit or loss, even on sale of investment. However, the Group may transfer the cumulative gain or loss within equity on derecognition. Equity instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognised in the profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial instruments

The Group derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or it transfers the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition under Ind AS 109. If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognize the financial asset and recognizes a borrowing for the proceeds received. A financial liability (or a part of a financial liability) is derecognized from the Group's balance sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires. Derecognition of financial instruments The Group derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or it transfers the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition under Ind AS 109. If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognize the financial asset and recognizes a borrowing for the proceeds received. A financial liability (or a part of a financial liability) is derecognized from the Group's balance sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

Impairment of financial assets

In accordance with Ind AS 109, the Group applies expected credit loss (ECL) model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on the Trade receivables or any contractual right to receive cash or another financial asset that result from transactions that are within the scope of Ind AS 115.

The Group follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables or any contractual right to receive cash or another financial asset.

The application of simplified approach does not require the Group to track changes in credit risk. Rather, it recognises impairment loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date, right from its initial recognition. As a practical expedient, the Group uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss allowance on portfolio of its trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the trade receivables and is adjusted for forward-looking estimates. At every reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analysed.

ii. Financial Liabilities and equity instruments:

Classification as debt or equity:

Debt and equity instruments issued by the Group are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments:

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Group are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Repurchase of the Group's own equity instruments is recognised and deducted directly in equity. No gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss on the purchase, sale, issue or cancellation of the Group's own equity instruments.

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

Initial recognition and measurement:

All financial liabilities are classified at initial recognition as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs. The Group's financial liabilities include loans and borrowings including bank overdraft, trade payable, trade deposits and other payables.

Subsequent measurement:

All financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Financial liabilities, including derivatives and embedded derivatives, which are designated for measurement at FVTPL are subsequently measured at fair value.

Derecognition:

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in profit or loss.

k) Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost determined on First In First out ("FIFO") basis and net realisable value. Cost includes purchase price, duties, transport & handling costs and other costs directly attributable to the acquisition and bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. The basis of determination of cost remains as follows:

- a) Raw material, packing material: At cost
- b) Work in progress: Cost of input plus appropriate proportionate overhead up to the stage of completion.
- c) Finished goods: Cost of input plus appropriate proportionate overhead

l) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents in the balance sheet comprise cash at bank, cash on hand, other short-term deposits with original maturities of three months or less which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

m) Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. Where discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as a finance cost.

The amount recognized as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at reporting date, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, the receivable is recognized as an asset if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

n) Contingent Liabilities

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Group or a present obligation that is not recognized because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation.

o) Contingent Assets

Contingent assets are not disclosed in the Consolidated Financial Statements unless an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

Provisions, contingent liabilities, contingent assets and commitments are reviewed at each balance sheet date.

p) Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed using the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period adjusted for treasury shares held. Diluted earnings per share is computed using the weighted-average number of equity and dilutive equivalent shares outstanding during the period, using the treasury stock method for options, except where the results would be anti-dilutive. The number of equity shares and potentially dilutive equity shares are adjusted retrospectively for all periods presented for any splits and bonus shares issues including for change effected prior to the approval of the Consolidated Financial Statements by the Board of Directors.

(i) Leases

The Group evaluates each contract or arrangement, whether it qualifies as lease as defined under Ind AS 116.

The Group as a lessee

The Group enters into an arrangement for lease of land, buildings, plant and machinery including computer equipment and vehicles. Such arrangements are generally for a fixed period but may have extension or termination options. The Group assesses, whether the contract is, or contains, a lease, at its inception. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to:

- a) control the use of an identified asset,
- b) obtain substantially all the economic benefits from use of the identified asset, and
- c) direct the use of the identified asset.

The Group determines the lease term as the non-cancellable period of a lease, together with periods covered by an option to extend the lease, where the Group is reasonably certain to exercise that option.

Amount (₹) in Lakhs except otherwise stated

The Group at the commencement of the lease contract recognizes a Right-of-Use (RoU) asset at cost and corresponding lease liability, except for leases with term of less than twelve months (short term leases) and low-value assets. For these short term and low value leases, the Group recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The cost of the right-of-use asset comprises the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability, any lease payments made at or before the inception date of the lease, plus any initial direct costs, less any lease incentives received, plus estimated cost of dismantling of assets. Subsequently, the right-of-use assets are measured at cost less any accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The right-of-use assets are depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date over the shorter of lease term or useful life of right-of-use asset. The estimated useful life of right-of-use assets are determined on the same basis as those of property, plant and equipment.

The Group applies Ind AS 36 to determine whether an RoU asset is impaired and accounts for any identified impairment loss as described in the impairment of non-financial assets below.

For lease liabilities at the commencement of the lease, the Group measures the lease liability at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at that date. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if that rate can be readily determined, if that rate is not readily determined, the lease payments are discounted using the incremental borrowing rate that the Group would have to pay to borrow funds, including the consideration of factors such as the nature of the asset and location, collateral, market terms and conditions, as applicable in a similar economic environment.

After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made.

The Group recognizes the amount of the re-measurement of lease liability as an adjustment to the right-of-use assets. Where the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset is reduced to zero and there is a further reduction in the measurement of the lease liability, the Group recognizes any remaining amount of the re-measurement in statement of profit and loss.

Lease liability payments are classified as cash used in financing activities in the statement of cash flows.

The Group as a lessor

Leases under which the Group is a lessor are classified as finance or operating leases. Lease contracts where all the risks and rewards are substantially transferred to the lessee, the lease contracts are classified as finance leases. All other leases are classified as operating leases. For leases under which the Group is an intermediate lessor, the Group accounts for the head-lease and the sub-lease as two separate contracts. The sub-lease is further classified either as a finance lease or an operating lease by reference to the RoU asset arising from the head-lease.

q) Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit for the period is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash from operating, investing and financing activities of the Group are segregated.

r) Government grants

The Group recognises government grants only when there is reasonable assurance that the conditions attached to them will be complied with, and the grants will be received. When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognised as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the related costs, for which it is intended to compensate, are expensed. When the grant relates to an asset, the Group deducts such grant amount from the carrying amount of the asset.

s) Business combinations

Acquisitions of businesses are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred in a business combination is measured at fair value, which is calculated as the sum of the acquisition-date fair values of assets transferred by the Group, liabilities incurred by the Group to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interest issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree. Acquisition-related costs are recognized in profit or loss as incurred.

At the acquisition date, the identifiable assets acquired, liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed are recognised at their fair value at the acquisition date, except deferred tax assets or liabilities and assets or liabilities related to employee benefit arrangements are recognized and measured in accordance with the guidance in the related accounting standards.

Goodwill is measured as the surplus of the sum of the consideration transferred (acquisition cost) over the newly valued net assets. Capital consolidation is based on the purchase method, whereby the acquisition cost of subsidiary is eliminated at the time of acquisition against the fair value of net assets acquired with the remainder recorded as goodwill that is subsequently amortised over its useful life by the Group.

Common Control Business Combinations

Business Combination involving entities or businesses under common control shall be accounted for using the pooling of interest method.

t) Exceptional items

Exceptional items refer to items of income or expense, including tax items, within the statement of profit and loss from ordinary activities which are non-recurring and are of such size, nature or incidence that their separate disclosure is considered necessary to explain the performance of the Group.

u) Recent Accounting Pronouncements

(i) New and Amended Standards Adopted by the Group:

The Company has applied the following amendments for the first time for their annual reporting period commencing April 1, 2023:

Ind AS 8 – Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors

The amendments to Ind AS 8 clarify the distinction between changes in accounting estimates, changes in accounting policies and the correction of errors. They also clarify how entities use measurement techniques and inputs to develop accounting estimates.

Ind AS 1 – Presentation of Financial Statements

The amendments to Ind AS 1 provide guidance and examples to help entities apply materiality judgements to accounting policy disclosures. The amendments aim to help entities provide accounting policy disclosures that are more useful by replacing the requirement for entities to disclose their 'significant' accounting policies with a requirement to disclose their 'material' accounting policies and adding guidance on how entities apply the concept of materiality in making decisions about accounting policy disclosures. This amendment does not have any material impact on the Company's financial statements and disclosures.

Ind AS 12 – Income Taxes

The amendments to Ind AS 12 Income Tax narrow the scope of the initial recognition exception, so that it no longer applies to transactions that give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences such as leases and decommissioning liabilities. The above amendments did not have any material impact on the amounts recognised in prior periods and are not expected to significantly affect the current or future periods.

(ii) New Standards/Amendments notified but not yet effective:

Ministry of Corporate Affairs ("MCA") notifies new standards or amendments to the existing standards under Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as issued from time to time. During the year ended March 31, 2026, MCA has not notified any new standards or amendments to the existing standards applicable to the Company.

Furthermore, in presenting the above sensitivity analysis, the present value of the Defined Benefit Obligation has been calculated using the projected unit credit method at the end of the reporting period, which is the same method as applied in calculating the Defined Benefit Obligation as recognised in the balance sheet.

There was no change in the methods and assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis from prior years.
