Dachepalli Publishers Limited

H1 FY27 Business Update Expanding Access to Books and Academic Essentials

Dachepalli Publishers Limited publishes and distributes textbooks, workbooks and other learning materials for schools. Alongside its publishing business, the Company is developing an integrated offering that brings together printing, distribution and academic supplies for schools and families.

During H1 FY27, the Company continued to focus on its educational content portfolio, school relationships and distribution network. It also worked on its plans to make academic procurement easier through digital channels and a wider range of school essentials.

H1 FY27 Financial Performance

- Revenue: ₹ 70.01 Cr
- YoY Growth: 71.76%

Business Highlights

- Pelican Edu Supply expansion: The platform retained approximately 50 existing schools and secured engagements from approximately 50 more, taking its proposed reach to around 100 schools.
- In-house notebook production: Dachepalli purchased printing and binding equipment and has since commenced notebook manufacturing. It plans to progressively replace externally sourced notebooks.
- PageCraft brand launch: The Company launched its PageCraft notebook brand for a phased rollout to existing school customers. Combined textbook and notebook kits are proposed.
- Smart classroom offering: Dachepalli entered an arrangement with Wiki Kids Private Limited to distribute interactive flat panel displays across India, complementing its digital learning products.
- Proposed acquisition: The Company signed an MoU to acquire Hara Communications Private Limited. Completion remains subject to due diligence, definitive agreements and required approvals.
