HCLTech recognized as a Leader in the 2026 Gartner® Magic Quadrant™ for Public Cloud Optimization and Transformation Services

NEW YORK and NOIDA, India, Aug 12, 2026 — HCLTech, a leading global technology company, has been recognized as a Leader in the Gartner® Magic Quadrant™ for Public Cloud Optimization and Transformation Services (PCOTS) 2026.

HCLTech has been a Leader in Gartner® Magic Quadrant™ assessments for Public Cloud IT Transformation Services from 2021 through 2025.

The company continues to advance its cloud capabilities through its PCOTS business and partner ecosystem, applying automation at scale to strengthen operational resilience and sustain continuous optimization.

Through an industry-focused model, HCLTech delivers standardized, cloud native solutions for regulated and non-regulated sectors, supported by robust DevOps practices and global centers of excellence. This approach enables enterprises to accelerate time-to-value, enhance compliance and navigate complex transformation programs with greater confidence.

To meet the evolving needs of organizations of all sizes, HCLTech is broadening its engagement across enterprises and mid-sized businesses through flexible commercial frameworks, including sustainability-linked and experience-based models.

"Our approach to cloud transformation is centered on enabling enterprises to scale with clarity, resilience and long-term impact. Leveraging our engineering heritage and cloud-native capabilities, we help clients modernize continuously, optimize costs and performance and create lasting business value across complex multicloud environments," said Vijay Guntur, Chief Technology Officer and Head of Ecosystems, HCLTech.
