UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Learned Additional Solicitor General appearing for the petitioner has very serious objection about the legality of the order passed by the High Court.

We, however, in the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case, are not inclined to entertain this petition under Article 136 of the Constitution of India. The Special Leave Petition is disposed of.

We make it clear that this order will not be treated as precedent and the issues raised in the present petition are to be considered in appropriate case before appropriate forum in future.

The amount lying with the Registry of this Court, with accrued interest, shall be transferred to the Industrial Tribunal for disbursement to the eligible persons.

Pending applications shall stand disposed of.
