MANAGEMENT COMMENTARY

Consumer demand remained upbeat throughout the quarter, carrying forward the momentum from Q1 even as the festive season approaches in Q3 this year. Our newly introduced Disney and Marvel collections have also been received very well by consumers.

Input costs remained an area we continued to monitor closely. Cotton stayed expensive and volatile, and raw materials linked to crude oil remained well above earlier levels. We chose to absorb part of this inflation ourselves through price increase initiated in Q1 and offset some of the strain. Even so, EBITDA margin stayed healthy and inside our planned range, and we will continue to weigh margin protection against delivering value to consumers.

Our transformation agenda is progressing steadily. The S/4HANA rollout is on course for a Q4 go-live, the Distribution Management System is scaling up as planned, and the cyber security and HR transformation programmes are tracking well. Collectively, these investments are meant to make the organisation more agile and resilient, and to serve consumers and retail partners better.

Our distribution network continues to broaden across multi-brand outlets, exclusive brand stores and large format stores, keeping our brands easily accessible to consumers wherever they choose to shop. E-commerce also performed strongly across marketplaces and our own portal, contributing a growing share of sales. Recent investments in our fulfilment capabilities in West Bengal further strengthen our direct-to-consumer reach. Looking ahead, we remain confident in the underlying demand, the strength of our brands and our ability to execute with discipline.

SUSTAINABILITY

"It gives me great pride to present our 7th Sustainability Report, which captures Page Industries' continued journey of responsible growth, environmental stewardship, and social responsibility. This year's report showcases how we have deepened our sustainability integration across all facets of our business while remaining aligned with India's long-term development goals and global ESG best practices.

Despite a dynamic business environment, we delivered resilient performance in FY 2024–25, meeting strategic and sustainability goals through strong governance, innovation, and stakeholder engagement. We strengthened our sustainability ambitions across water stewardship (ZLD, rainwater harvesting, and per-capita consumption), climate action, and resource efficiency. Renewable energy reached 33% of total consumption, while Scope 1 & 2 GHG intensity declined to 5.42 tCO_2e per million minutes produced, marking a 42% reduction from the FY 2019–20 base year. Our circularity efforts achieved zero waste to landfill, validated through comprehensive traceability audits across all hazardous and non-hazardous waste recyclers.

Through Value Chain Partner (VCP) mapping and structured supplier engagement, we embed environmental, social, and ethical standards across our upstream partnerships, strengthening supply chain resilience and stakeholder trust. We also advance diversity and inclusion through women's empowerment initiatives that promote equity and foster a culture where everyone can thrive viewed as both a social responsibility and a strategic advantage.

Looking ahead, we will continue to drive innovation-led sustainability, delivering profitable growth in harmony with people and the planet. On behalf of the Board, I thank our 23,400+ employees, partners, and stakeholders for their trust and collaboration, which inspire us to uphold excellence, ethics, and sustainability as a core strength of Page Industries."
