IA No. 251164/2026 - EXEMPTION FROM FILING C/C OF THE IMPUGNED JUDGMENT

Date : 26-10-2026 This matter was called on for hearing today.

CORAM :

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE K.V. VISWANATHAN
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARUN PALLI

For Petitioner(s) Mr. Debesh Panda, Adv.
Ms. Amrita Panda- 3113, AOR
Mr. Vinay Dubey, Adv.
Mr. Aryaman Tomer, Adv.

For Respondent(s)

UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

Heard Mr. Debesh Panda, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner(s).

Learned counsel submits that after the judgment of the High Court, in all four tenders, successful bidder has been identified and the tender awarded.

Learned counsel submits that the petitioner(s) should have the liberty to challenge the award.

We notice from the impugned order that already liberty is reserved in paragraph 31 of the impugned order which is set out hereinbelow:

"31. We agree with the submission made by Mr. Chauhan that the present petition is premature. Surely, the respondents should be allowed to take a decision on the bids, on the basis of the information sought by them in terms of communication dated 24.07.2026. Hence, without going into various submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as intervenors, we are of the view that appropriate shall be, the respondent shall consider the responses/documents given by the bidders/petitioners and take a decision on the bids by considering the same, which surely be a reasoned one, and communicate the same to the bidders/petitioners. It goes without saying, any bidder aggrieved by the decision shall be at liberty to seek such remedy as available in law. The petitions along with the pending applications are, accordingly, disposed of. No costs."

Needless to observe that the petitioner(s) will have the said liberty and after any such proceedings are initiated, they will be decided on their own merits, uninfluenced by the observations of the High Court or this Court.

Accordingly, the Special Leave Petitions are disposed of.

Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
