CORAM:

ORDER

21.09.2026

Order No.

04.

1. Heard Mr. Patnaik, learned counsel for the Petitioner and Mr. Udgata, learned counsel for the Opposite Parties-Bank.
2. The Petitioner claims that his goods stored in the premises of the borrower has been sealed and possessed by the Bank unauthorizedly.
3. It is seen that the borrower, i.e. Opposite Party No.2 is a producer of polymer raw materials/products and the goods claimed by the Petitioner are also polymer raw materials/products.
4. Though the articles claimed by the Petitioner are attempted to be identified with the invoice, but keeping in view of the fact that the invoices are own documents of the Petitioner and Section 13 notice had been earlier issued against Opposite Party No.2, i.e. since December 2024, we are not inclined to enter into such factual disputes, whether the stocks belong to the Petitioner or Opposite Party No.2, in absence of sufficient materials.

5. Accordingly, we are not inclined to entertain the writ petition. However, keeping in view the provision of the SARFAESI Act, the Petitioner is at liberty to approach the DRT in appropriate petition.

6. The writ petition is disposed of.
