Ghosh Infrastructure Private Limited
represented by its Director, Raja Ghosh Vs.
Smt. Ayesha Rani A, the District Magistrate,
Purba Bardhaman & Anr.

Mr. Palav Chatterjee,
Mr. Mojojit Chakraborti,
... For the Petitioner.
Mr. Nilanjan Bhatacharjee, SSC,
Ms. Jayita Dhar Charkaborty,
Mr. Nilanjan Pal,
... for the alleged contemnors.
Ms. Anita Kundu,
Ms. Debasmita Ganguly,
... for the State.

1. The petitioner and the alleged contemnors as well as the State are represented by their respective counsel.

2. On behalf of the alleged contemnors a case history dated 13.10.2026 is filed and the same is taken on record.

3. Mr. Pal, learned advocate duly led by Ms. Chakraborty appearing on behalf of the alleged contemnors draws attention of this Court to annexure 'A' of the case history dated 13.10.2026 being the server copy of the judgment and order dated 09.10.2026 as passed by a Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court in MAT 2031 of 2025 (State of West Bengal & Ors. Vs. Ghosh Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd.).

4. It is submitted by Mr. Pal that from the paragraph no. 36 of the said judgment dated October 09, 2026 it would reveal that the said appeal was partially allowed thereby setting aside the order which is sought to be implemented by filing the instant contempt petition.

5. Mr. Pal, thus submits that in view of the judgment and order dated October 09, 2026 as passed by the Hon'ble Division Bench in MAT 2031 of 2025, the instant contempt application has become infructuous.

6. Mr. Chakraborty, learned advocate appearing on behalf of the petitioner concedes with the submission of Mr. Pal.

7. In view of such, CPAN 2074 of 2025 is disposed of as infurctuous.
