The Court :- Appeal is directed against the order dated July 16, 2014.

In the appeal, from time to time, various orders were passed by the Division Bench.

By a judgment and order dated September 16, 2026 we held that, the dispute involved in the suit is a commercial dispute within the meaning of Section 2(1)(c) of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015.

Order impugned before us emanates out of the same suit.

Appeal with regard to the order impugned stood disposed of. Various applications are pending in such disposed of appeal.

Considering our judgment and order dated September 16, 2026 passed in APOT/70/2022 in IA No.GA/1/2022 and considering the fact that in a disposed of appeal, applications are pending, we deem it appropriate to dispose of all the pending applications by permitting the parties to make similar prayer before the learned Trial Judge. We clarify that, we did not enter into the merits of the respective contentions of the parties in the pending applications. Such points are kept open to be decided by the learned Trial Judge, if the learned Trial Judge is moved on such aspect.

Accordingly, AO-COM/26/2026 along with all pending applications is disposed of.
