PNG Jewellers Brings Its 194-Year Legacy to Ayodhya

~Member of Parliament and actor Ms Kangana Ranaut inaugurates the brand's 81st store and 5th in Uttar Pradesh~

Ayodhya, 11 October 2026: India's leading national jewellery brand, PNG Jewellers, opened its new store in Ayodhya, strengthening its presence in Uttar Pradesh. The store is PNG Jewellers' 81st overall and its fifth in the state, following Lucknow, Kanpur, Gorakhpur and Varanasi. The opening follows the encouraging response the brand has received from customers across Uttar Pradesh and brings its collections closer to customers in Ayodhya.

Member of Parliament and Indian film actor Ms Kangana Ranaut inaugurated the store. Located next to Rikabganj Women Police Station, the new store gives Ayodhya customers access to PNG Jewellers' products, collections, and quality service closer to home.

The occasion also marks the debut of Ram Katha, an exclusive collection inspired by the Ramayana and the historical, cultural and spiritual heritage of Ayodhya. Launched by Ms Kangana Ranaut, the collection is being introduced in its initial phase across PNG stores in North India, with availability set to expand nationally to all PNG Jewellers stores soon. The store also showcases a range of gold, diamond, temple and bridal jewellery for weddings, festive occasions and everyday wear. Customers can explore PNG Jewellers' collections, including Saptam, Katha, Pratha, Eiina and Polmi, with designs crafted for local tastes.

Ayodhya, revered as the birthplace of Lord Shree Ram, draws people from across the country for its temples, festivals and deeply rooted traditions. Jewellery is closely tied to weddings, festivals and family celebrations in the city. The new store allows PNG Jewellers to serve local customers more conveniently while continuing its expansion in Uttar Pradesh. To celebrate the opening, the brand introduced limited-period inaugural offers of up to 50% off on gold jewellery making charges and up to 100% off on diamond jewellery making charges*, valid till 15th November, 2026.

Adding to the excitement of the festive season, PNG Jewellers brings together its brand ambassadors Madhuri Dixit-Nene and Ranbir Kapoor for the first time in a special festive television commercial. The campaign marks a significant moment, bringing together two of Bollywood's most iconic stars in a celebration of tradition, elegance and contemporary appeal. This much-awaited collaboration also reflects PNG Jewellers' vision of connecting its nearly two-century-old legacy with a new generation of consumers.

Dr. Saurabh Gadgil, Chairman and Managing Director of PNG Jewellers, said, "Opening a store in Ayodhya is a special moment for us. We have received an encouraging response from customers across Uttar Pradesh, and we are pleased to bring PNG Jewellers closer to people in and around Ayodhya. We look forward to being part of their weddings, festivals and family celebrations, while offering the legacy, trust and craftsmanship that our brand has stood for over generations.”

Ms Kangana Ranaut added, “Ayodhya holds a special place in the hearts of so many people, and I am delighted to be here for the opening of PNG Jewellers’ new store. Jewellery is closely woven into how we celebrate our traditions, weddings and important moments with family. I wish the PNG team every success in Ayodhya.”
