certification, let the vehicles be produced before the inspector by the petitioner within two weeks from date. Petitioner shall be at liberty to produce before the inspector the certificates issued by the manufacturer, if any.

2. On the basis of such inspection, the inspector shall submit an appropriate report before the transport officer who shall then pass an appropriate order with regard to permitting the said vehicles to operate as ambulances. If the vehicles are not found worthy as above and permission is refused, a reasoned order shall be passed.

3. A report in the form of an affidavit shall be filed before this Court after three weeks.

4. Re-list the special leave petition after four weeks.
