Dear Sir / Madam,

Sub: Clarification to the mail dated 17th June, 2026 from BSE Limited with subject line ‘Additional Details Required for Corporate Announcement filed under Regulation 30 of of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (‘SEBI Listing Regulations’)

Ref: Intimation dated 16th June, 2026 as filed by the Company under Regulation 30 of SEBI Listing Regulations

This is with reference to our intimation dated 16th June, 2026 whereby the Company had informed the exchanges regarding continual disclosure w.r.t. an Order-in-Appeal dated 29th May, 2026 passed by the Commissioner (Appeals), CGST & Central Excise, Nashik, whereby the appeal preferred by the Company against the Order-in-Original has been rejected and the Order-in-Original has been upheld.

In this regard, we hereby inform that the Company has received an email from BSE Limited dated 17th June, 2026, for providing the reasons for delay in submitting the aforesaid disclosure.

As earlier provided in the said intimation, we hereby clarify that the Order was passed by the authority, in brief, on 29th May, 2026 and the detailed order was received at the Company’s Nashik location on 12th June, 2026. The Order was subsequently received by the concerned authorised person at the Company’s Registered Office on 15th June, 2026, owing, inter-alia, to the intervening weekend.

Further, the delay in filing the intimation was attributable to the time required by the Company to assess the implications of the Order received from the Commissioner (Appeals), CGST & Central Excise, Nashik, and to evaluate the appropriate course of action.

Accordingly, upon receipt and verification of the requisite information and completion of the internal assessment process, the Company made the disclosure to the Stock Exchanges on 16th June, 2026 at the earliest practicable opportunity.

The delay in making the disclosure was neither intentional nor due to any omission on the part of the Company and occurred solely on account of the time required for completion of the aforesaid processes to ensure dissemination of accurate and complete information to the investors and the market.
