IA (IBC) 1248/2025

Present: Ms. Vismaya, Learned Counsel for the Applicant.

Despite service, none appeared for the Respondents. Hence, set ex-parte.

It is the statutory duty of every stakeholder to cooperate and assist the RP in the resolution process. The applicant has given details of the four vehicles owned by the Corporate Debtor. However, these are in possession of the Respondents. The Respondents have nothing to say about handing over the possession of these vehicles. Hence the Respondents are directed to handover the possession of the vehicles to the applicant within 15 days from today. They are also directed to furnish necessary information/documents to the applicant within 15 days from today. If no such information/documents/vehicles are available, they are directed to give reasons for the same within 7 days on receipt of the notice.

Accordingly, this application is allowed and disposed of.
