Mumbai, 19th October, 2026: Megamont Limited has bagged orders worth Rs. 6.04 Crores to supply Crude Degummed Soyabean Oil to AWL Agri Business Limited (formerly Adani Wilmar Limited). The entire supply is to be executed within October 2026.

Details of the Orders:

Megamont Limited will supply Crude Degummed Soyabean Oil to AWL Agri Business Limited at its facility in Surat, Gujarat. Supplies against the orders have already commenced, with dispatches made on 16th and 17th October, 2026, and the balance quantity will be delivered within October 2026.

The orders are being executed in multiple consignments by road, and the short delivery window reflects the company's ability to source, move and deliver bulk edible oil on a tight timeline.

Strategic Significance:

AWL Agri Business Limited is one of India's leading food and FMCG companies and a large buyer of edible oils. Orders of this size to supply such a customer, to be executed in a single month, validate Megamont's execution capability and strengthen its position as a dependable bulk supplier.

The orders add to the company's relationship with a marquee customer and open the door to repeat business as Megamont continues to expand its presence in the edible oil and agri-commodity segment.

Industry Outlook:

India is among the world's largest consumers and importers of edible oils, and soyabean oil is a core part of the country's edible oil basket. Demand from packaged food makers, refiners and household consumers remains steady, and large refiners depend on reliable, on-time bulk sourcing of crude oils. Against this backdrop, a supplier that can deliver quality product on schedule is well placed to build lasting relationships with leading buyers.
