ORDER

1. Ld. Counsel for respondent, without filing the documents in compliance of last order, informs that one of the co-operative banks is expected to re-constitute, therefore the minutes of meeting could not be signed by all concerned. Agreeing to him even the petitioner is ready to abide by the proposed terms.

2. Ld. Counsel for the petitioner further controverted that settlement is on the way. The regular bench has already waited for sufficient time for settlement to happen. Hence the matter is deferred to 29.07.2026 for orders. Settlement if any executed in between to be filed in advance.
