Steel Authority of India Limited
Vs.
Union of India

Mr. Kaustav Banerjee,
Ms. Ria Kundu, Advs.

… for the appellant.

1. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that in view of a subsequent order being passed on September 24, 2026, directing release of the decretal amount to the tune of Rs. 2,29,25,943/-, the present appeal has become rendered infructuous.

2. Accordingly, FMAT (IR) No. 88 of 2026, along with CAN 1 of 2026 and CAN 2 of 2026, are dismissed as infructuous.

3. There will be no order as to costs.
