Commenting on the performance during the quarter Mr. Arun Chittilappilly, Executive Chairman and Managing Director of Wonderla Holidays Ltd. said,

“This quarter marks a significant milestone for Wonderla as we delivered our highest-ever Q4 performance, with strong growth across both revenue and profitability. The successful launch and rapid scale-up of our Chennai park has been a key growth driver, contributing meaningfully within a short period and reinforcing the strength of our expansion strategy.

We are also seeing consistent improvement in the quality of our revenues, with ARPU growth driven by our focus on premiumisation, value-added offerings, and enhanced guest engagement. This, along with a significant improvement in our customer experience scores, reflects our continued commitment to delivering differentiated and memorable experiences.

Our resort and expansion of hospitality businesses delivered their best-ever performance during the quarter and financial year, growing by 84% and 55% respectively, further strengthening our position as an integrated leisure destination.

As we move into FY27, with our new assets maturing and continued investments in guest experience and value expansion, we remain confident of sustaining this growth momentum and driving long-term value for our stakeholders.”
