WHO WE ARE

A Hyderabad-based B2B manufacturer of natural gemstone-studded fashion jewellery.

OUR FOCUS

Natural gemstone-studded jewellery crafted with innovation and care.

ROOTED IN HYDERABAD

Proudly based in Hyderabad, a city known for its rich legacy in jewellery craftsmanship.

B2B PARTNERSHIP

Working exclusively with jewellery retailers and business partners with expertise and dedication.

MESSAGE FROM THE MANAGING DIRECTOR CORPORATE AFFAIRS

“ Dear Shareholders,

It is my privilege to present the Annual Report of Uday Jewellery Industries Limited for FY2025-26 and reflect on a year that has further strengthened our foundations and sharpened our ambition for the future.

Our journey has always been guided by a simple principle: preserve the artistry of jewellery while continuously evolving the way it is created, delivered and experienced.

As a fourth-generation jewellery enterprise with roots in Hyderabad and a heritage spanning generations, we carry forward the craftsmanship and design sensibilities associated with the Sanghi Global Group, while building a contemporary manufacturing organisation equipped to serve the changing needs of the jewellery industry.

Today, we operate as a B2B manufacturer and supplier of natural gemstone-studded and Polki diamond-studded fashion jewellery, serving jewellery retailers and business partners across domestic and international markets. Our growth is increasingly being shaped by the combination of craftsmanship, manufacturing capability, design responsiveness and long-standing customer relationships.

STRENGTHENING THE CORE

FY2025-26 has reinforced our belief that sustainable growth in jewellery manufacturing requires more than scale. It requires precision, consistency, speed and an ability to understand the market ahead of demand.

Our integrated manufacturing facility in Hyderabad remains central to this philosophy. The facility brings together advanced machinery, specialised production capabilities and skilled craftsmanship, enabling us to translate intricate design concepts into finished jewellery with consistency and attention to detail.

We continue to invest in strengthening our production capabilities and processes, with the objective of improving productivity, enhancing quality and creating greater flexibility across product categories.

MESSAGE FROM JOINT - MANAGING DIRECTOR OPERATIONS

Our competitive advantage lies in the intersection of technology and craftsmanship. Technology enables precision and scalability; craftsmanship provides the character and finishing that define fine jewellery.

We believe it is this combination that allows us to create products that are both commercially relevant and differentiated.

GROWTH THROUGH MARKET UNDERSTANDING

The jewellery industry continues to evolve rapidly. Consumer preferences are becoming more diverse, design cycles are becoming shorter and customers increasingly expect greater variety, customisation and responsiveness.

We see these changes not simply as challenges, but as opportunities to deepen our relevance across the jewellery value chain.

Our product development approach therefore begins with market understanding. We closely observe emerging design preferences, customer requirements and evolving jewellery trends and translate these insights into commercially relevant collections.

Our portfolio spans a broad design spectrum—from traditional and heritage-inspired aesthetics to contemporary, lightweight and fashion-oriented designs. This ability to operate across different design sensibilities enables us to address a wider range of customer requirements while maintaining our focus on quality and execution.

EXPANDING OUR MARKET REACH

Our domestic business continues to benefit from the depth and diversity of India's jewellery ecosystem. At the same time, international markets represent an important avenue for our long-term growth.

Our presence across domestic and overseas markets gives us exposure to different consumer preferences and design influences. This cross-market experience strengthens our understanding of global jewellery trends and enables us to incorporate diverse influences into our product development process.

Going forward, our focus will remain on deepening existing relationships, expanding our market presence and building sustainable business partnerships rather than pursuing growth at the expense of quality or profitability.

We believe that strong customer relationships are among our most valuable assets. Our objective is to evolve from being a manufacturing supplier to becoming a reliable, responsive and innovation-led partner for our customers.

INVESTING FOR THE NEXT PHASE OF GROWTH

We are investing ahead of demand — expanding manufacturing infrastructure, upgrading technology, and adding capacity to support growing volumes and complexity.

Capital allocation takes a long-term view of capacity gains, scalability, and cycle-wide returns over near-term output.

Alongside physical capacity, we're building talent, strengthening processes, and deepening supplier relationships. This phase is foundational — the base we build today positions us to respond quickly and profitably as demand scales in the years ahead.

FINANCIAL DISCIPLINE AND SUSTAINABLE GROWTH

While growth remains an important objective, we recognise that quality of growth matters equally. Our approach is therefore centred on building a business that can deliver sustainable revenue growth while protecting margins, strengthening cash flows and maintaining a healthy balance sheet.

We continue to focus on improving operating efficiency, optimising our product mix and maintaining disciplined cost management. These priorities are particularly important in an environment influenced by fluctuations in commodity prices, changing consumer behaviour and evolving global economic conditions.

Our financial performance reflects the resilience of our underlying business model and the strength of the relationships we have built over the years. We remain committed to converting our operational capabilities and market opportunities into consistent and sustainable shareholder value.

BUILDING A FUTURE-READY ORGANISATION

As we look beyond the current year, we recognise that our next phase of growth will depend not only on infrastructure and technology, but equally on people.

Our employees bring together manufacturing expertise, jewellery craftsmanship, technical knowledge and commercial understanding. Their collective experience enables us to maintain the standards expected by our customers while continuously improving the way we operate.

We are also strengthening systems and processes across the organisation to support a larger and more sophisticated business. Our objective is to create an organisation that is agile enough to respond to market opportunities and disciplined enough to grow responsibly.

LOOKING AHEAD

The jewellery industry is entering an exciting period of transformation. Consumers are seeking greater individuality, brands and retailers are demanding faster and more flexible supply chains, and international markets continue to create opportunities for Indian jewellery manufacturers with the right capabilities.

We believe Uday Jewellery Industries is well positioned to participate in this opportunity.

Our priorities for the years ahead are clear:

- ◆ Strengthen manufacturing.
- ◆ Expand markets.
- ◆ Accelerate product innovation.
- ◆ Deepen customer partnerships.
- ◆ Improve operational efficiency.
- ◆ And create sustainable long-term value.

We will continue to build on our heritage without being constrained by it. Our legacy gives us the foundation; our manufacturing capabilities give us scale; our people give us expertise; and our relationships give us the confidence to pursue the opportunities ahead.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to our employees for their dedication, our customers and business partners for their continued trust, our shareholders for their confidence, and our bankers, suppliers and regulatory stakeholders for their support.

Together, we will continue to build an organisation that respects its heritage, embraces innovation and is prepared for the opportunities of tomorrow.

Demat account holders would be able to cast their vote without having to register again with the ESPs, thereby, not only facilitating seamless authentication but also enhancing ease and convenience of participating in e-Voting process.

4. FUTURE PROSPECTS:

Growth Trajectory & Financial Demonstration:

For FY2026 (as on 31st March 2026), Uday Jewellery Industries Limited reported sales of ₹725.63 crore, up 95.19% year-on-year, while net profit rose 127.05% to ₹35.76 crore, as against ₹15.75 crore in FY2025.

This sharp improvement in performance is largely attributable to two corporate actions undertaken by the Company. First, the Company acquired the running business of Sanghi Jewellers Private Limited in October 2025, consequent to which the revenue and profit of the acquired business have been integrated into the Company's financial statements for FY2026. Second, pursuant to the Scheme of Amalgamation of Narbada Gems and Jewellery Limited with the Company sanctioned by the Hon'ble NCLT, Hyderabad Bench vide order dated 21st January 2026, effective from 19th February 2026 with an appointed date of 1st April 2024 — the financials of the erstwhile Narbada Gems and Jewellery Limited stand merged with those of the Company, with corresponding equity shares allotted to its shareholders on 5th March 2026.

Accordingly, the FY2026 numbers reflect not only organic operational improvement but also the inorganic contribution from both the Sanghi Jewellers business combination and the Narbada Gems amalgamation, and the resultant profit margins remain consistent with prevailing industry norms.

Industry Tailwinds & Structural Drivers:

The Indian organized jewellery industry continues to witness robust growth, driven by increasing consumer preference for branded jewellery, and a rise in awareness regarding quality and authenticity, and a sustained shift from the unorganized to the organized retail segment.

External industry dynamics, such as reduced import duties on gold, are expected to fuel organized jewellery retailers' revenue growth of 22-25%, despite slight margin pressure, by boosting volumes

Strategic Development: Successful Amalgamation:

In a significant strategic development, the Company successfully completed the amalgamation of Narbada Gems and Jewellery Limited with Uday Jewellery Industries Limited during the year. The Scheme of Amalgamation was sanctioned by the Hon'ble National Company Law Tribunal, Hyderabad Bench, vide its order dated 21st January 2026, and became effective on 19th February 2026, with an appointed date of 1st April 2024.

Pursuant to the Scheme, the Company allotted 97,81,025 equity shares to the erstwhile shareholders of Narbada Gems and Jewellery Limited on 5th March 2026, in the share exchange ratio approved under the Scheme. With this amalgamation, the business, assets, and operations of Narbada Gems and Jewellery Limited now stand consolidated with those of the Company, strengthening its operational scale and market presence in the gems and jewellery segment by addition of a new business line of high value diamond jewellery manufacturing.

The amalgamation reflects the Company's continued strategic focus on consolidation and inorganic growth, and is expected to yield operational synergies, an expanded customer base, and enhanced financial scale going forward. Given the appointed date of 1st April 2024, the financial results for the relevant period stand restated to reflect the combined entity, in accordance with the applicable accounting standards.

Future Outlook: Opportunities Ahead

With the successful integration of the Sanghi Jewellers business and the amalgamation of Narbada Gems and Jewellery Limited now complete, the Company is well positioned to consolidate its expanded scale and pursue its next phase of growth. The enlarged operational footprint provides a stronger platform to deepen presence across existing markets while selectively evaluating opportunities in new geographies.

The Company will continue to focus on strengthening its wholesale distribution network, enhancing operational efficiencies across the combined entity, and realising synergies arising from the recent business combinations. Continued emphasis will also be placed on prudent working capital management and disciplined capital allocation, given the scale at which the Company now operates.

Going forward, the Company remains committed to pursuing both organic and inorganic growth opportunities in a manner consistent with its long-term strategic objectives, while maintaining its focus on regulatory compliance and good corporate governance as it progresses toward its listing objectives on the NSE.

Key areas of focus going forward include:

Product diversification: Widening the product portfolio across gold, diamond, and studded jewellery segments to cater to evolving consumer preferences and price points.

Working capital and financial discipline: Maintaining prudent working capital management and a disciplined approach to capital allocation to support sustainable growth.

Regulatory compliance and governance: Continuing to strengthen internal controls, compliance systems, and governance practices in line with the Company's growth trajectory.

Customer trust and transparency: Continued emphasis on hallmarking compliance and transparent pricing practices to build long-term customer trust in a sector where authenticity and purity remain key purchase drivers.

The Company remains optimistic about the medium-to-long-term prospects of the jewellery sector in India and is committed to pursuing sustainable, profitable growth while upholding the highest standards of corporate governance and regulatory compliance.

REGIONAL MARKET:

The Indian jewellery market continues to exhibit distinct regional consumption patterns shaped by cultural preferences, income levels, and evolving consumer trends. As per data published by the World Gold Council, South India dominates Indian gold jewellery consumption, accounting for 40% of the country's total jewellery demand, driven by a strong preference for traditional 22-carat plain gold jewellery, higher household gold ownership, and sustained demand from the NRI community, particularly from Gulf remittances into states such as Kerala and Telugu states.

North and West India together account for around 45% of the market, with the West at approximately 25% and the North at approximately 20%, while Eastern India holds a market share of around 15%. The Northern and Western markets exhibit relatively diverse consumer preferences across, 22, 18 and 14-carat jewellery, with increasing demand for lightweight, contemporary, and lower-carat pieces, particularly among younger, urban consumers. Eastern India, by contrast, continues to show a strong preference for traditional 22-carat jewellery.

Rural India remains a significant contributor to domestic gold jewellery demand. While historically accounting for as much as 60% of the country's gold demand, this share has moderated in recent years to approximately 55-58%, with rural gold purchases continuing to be influenced by agricultural income cycles, weddings, and festive occasions — reflecting gold's enduring role as both a cultural and investment asset even as urbanisation gradually reshapes consumption patterns.

This regional and rural-urban diversity presents significant growth opportunities for organised jewellery retailers, particularly through lightweight and contemporary product innovation targeted at younger, urban consumers, while continuing to serve traditional demand in the South, East, and rural markets.

COMPANY PLANS:

Building on the operational momentum achieved during FY2025-26, the Company has outlined the following key strategic priorities to drive its next phase of growth:

i) Manufacturing Capacity Expansion:

The Company's integrated manufacturing facility at Hyderabad currently has an installed capacity of 125 kg per month, against which capacity utilisation stands at a modest level, leaving significant headroom for scaling production in line with demand. After the successful Merger of Uday Jewellery Industries Limited with Narbada Gems & Jewellery Limited, the Company relocated its manufacturing operations to extended larger facility spanning around 40,000 sq. ft. in November 2023, which increased available capacity to 125 kg per month from 35 kg per month in FY2023. The Company intends to progressively ramp up utilisation of this expanded capacity to support future revenue growth.

ii) B2C Market Entry:

Having operated primarily in the business-to-business (B2B) segment, the Company plans to expand into the business-to-consumer (B2C) segment through franchising and e-commerce channels, aimed at achieving greater market reach and higher realisations.

iii) Leadership Strengthening and Governance:

This strengthened leadership structure, along with the induction of an additional Independent Director, is intended to provide clearer strategic direction and improved operational execution going forward.

iv) Consolidation of Recent Corporate Actions:

Following the amalgamation of Narbada Gems and Jewellery Limited (effective 19th February 2026) and the integration of the Sanghi Jewellers Private Limited business (October 2025), the Company's near-term priority is to consolidate operations across the combined entity, realise synergies, and stabilise the enlarged financial and operational base before pursuing further inorganic opportunities.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

1. ECONOMIC AND INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

The Indian gems and jewellery industry continues to remain an important contributor to the country's manufacturing, retail and export ecosystem. The industry is undergoing a gradual structural shift towards organised businesses, supported by increasing consumer awareness regarding product quality, purity, transparency, certification and brand credibility. Consumers are increasingly seeking greater assurance regarding the authenticity and quality of jewellery, creating opportunities for established and professionally managed jewellery businesses.

The organised jewellery segment is also benefiting from changing consumer preferences, increasing formalisation of the sector and the growing importance of branded and quality-assured jewellery. At the same time, the industry remains sensitive to movements in gold and precious-metal prices, changes in disposable income, consumer sentiment, competitive intensity and evolving regulatory requirements.

For jewellery manufacturers and retailers, the operating environment therefore requires a combination of product quality, efficient sourcing, disciplined inventory and working-capital management, customer trust and the ability to respond quickly to changing consumer preferences.

The Company believes that the long-term fundamentals of the Indian jewellery market remain favourable and that increasing formalisation provides opportunities for established participants to strengthen their market position.

2. COMPANY OVERVIEW AND BUSINESS MODEL

Uday Jewellery Industries Limited ("UJIL" or "the Company") is engaged in the gems and jewellery business, with capabilities spanning jewellery manufacturing and sales. The Company's manufacturing operations specialise in handmade gold jewellery studded with precious and semi-precious natural gemstones, flat diamonds, rose-cut diamonds, diamonds and cubic zirconia. The Company's products are sold across domestic and overseas markets.

The Company's business model is centred on combining manufacturing capabilities, product development, market relationships and distribution opportunities to serve evolving customer requirements across different jewellery categories.

The Company continues to focus on strengthening its product portfolio and market reach while improving operating efficiencies. The increasing scale of the business also provides an opportunity to improve procurement, manufacturing utilisation, distribution and other operational processes through greater integration.

During FY 2025-26, the Company's business underwent significant expansion through strategic business combinations. The acquisition of the running business of Sanghi Jewellers Private Limited and the amalgamation of Narbada Gems and Jewellery Limited with UJIL have materially expanded the Company's operating scale and business platform.

3. FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

The Company delivered a significantly improved financial performance during FY 2025-26.

Particulars	FY 2025-26	FY 2024-25*
Revenue from Operations	Rs. 72,563.09 lakh	Rs. 37,175.92 lakh
Other Income	Rs. 799.50 lakh	Rs. 108.40 lakh
Total Income	Rs. 73,362.59 lakh	Rs. 37,284.33 lakh
Profit Before Tax	Rs. 4,860.62 lakh	Rs. 2,131.73 lakh
Profit After Tax	Rs. 3,576.78 lakh	Rs. 1,575.40 lakh
Basic EPS	Rs. 10.78	Rs. 4.92
Diluted EPS	Rs. 10.78	Rs. 4.92

*FY 2024-25 figures are restated pursuant to the Scheme of Amalgamation.

Revenue from operations increased by approximately 95%, from Rs. 371.76 crore to Rs. 725.63 crore. Profit After Tax increased by approximately 127%, from Rs. 15.75 crore to Rs. 35.77 crore. Basic and diluted EPS increased from Rs. 4.92 to Rs. 10.78.

The improvement in reported performance reflects both the Company's operational growth and the impact of the strategic business combinations undertaken during the period. Consequently, the FY 2025-26 results should be viewed in the context of the expanded business platform following the integration of the Sanghi Jewellers business and the amalgamation of Narbada Gems and Jewellery Limited.

The Company's total income of Rs. 733.63 crore and Profit Before Tax of Rs. 48.61 crore demonstrate the substantially higher scale achieved during the year.

4. STRATEGIC DEVELOPMENTS AND BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

A significant development during the year was the completion of the amalgamation of Narbada Gems and Jewellery Limited with Uday Jewellery Industries Limited.

The Scheme of Amalgamation was sanctioned by the Hon'ble National Company Law Tribunal, Hyderabad Bench, and became effective on 19 February 2026, with an appointed date of 1 April 2024. Pursuant to the Scheme, the Company allotted 97,81,025 equity shares to the eligible shareholders of the erstwhile Narbada Gems and Jewellery Limited on 5 March 2026.

The amalgamation has expanded the Company's business platform through the addition of high-value diamond jewellery manufacturing capabilities. It also brings opportunities for operational synergies, a broader customer base and increased business scale.

In addition, the Company acquired the running business of Sanghi Jewellers Private Limited in October 2025. The business combination contributed to the Company's FY 2025-26 revenue and profitability and represents another important step in the Company's strategy of expanding its operating platform.

The Company is now focused on integrating these businesses effectively, extracting operational synergies and ensuring that the enlarged organisation operates with appropriate financial discipline and governance standards.

5. OPERATIONAL PERFORMANCE

The Company's operational performance during FY 2025-26 benefited from the expansion of its business platform and broader product capabilities.

The Company's manufacturing capabilities cover handmade gold jewellery as well as jewellery incorporating diamonds and other precious and semi-precious gemstones. The expanded business platform following the Narbada amalgamation provides an opportunity to further develop high-value diamond jewellery manufacturing and broaden the Company's product offering.

The Company continues to focus on:

- Improving manufacturing and operational efficiency;
- Expanding its product portfolio across gold, diamond and studded jewellery;
- Strengthening retail and wholesale distribution;
- Developing new market opportunities;
- Improving integration across the enlarged business;
- Maintaining appropriate inventory and working-capital discipline; and
- Building long-term customer relationships through quality and transparency.

The Company's increased scale also provides opportunities to leverage common capabilities, streamline processes and improve the utilisation of resources across the combined operations.

6. MARKET OPPORTUNITIES AND GROWTH DRIVERS

The Company sees several opportunities for sustainable growth over the medium to long term.

Product diversification

Consumer preferences within the jewellery market continue to evolve across designs, price points, gemstones and product categories. The Company intends to widen its product portfolio across gold, diamond and studded jewellery to address different customer requirements.

Expansion of distribution

The Company intends to strengthen its retail and wholesale distribution network and selectively evaluate opportunities in new geographies. The enlarged business platform provides a stronger foundation for expanding market presence.

Benefits of business integration

The completion of the Company's strategic business combinations creates opportunities to realise operating synergies, consolidate capabilities and improve efficiencies.

Organised jewellery market

The continuing shift towards organised and quality-assured jewellery businesses provides opportunities for companies that can offer product authenticity, quality, transparency and dependable customer service.

Customer trust

Hallmarking compliance, transparent pricing and consistent product quality remain important purchase considerations in the jewellery industry. The Company intends to continue strengthening these areas to build long-term customer confidence.

7. RISKS AND CONCERNS

The Company's operations are exposed to various business and industry risks. The principal risks identified by the Company include:

Gold and precious-metal price volatility

Fluctuations in gold and other precious-metal prices can influence jewellery prices, consumer demand, inventory values and working-capital requirements. Effective inventory management and prudent financial planning remain important to manage this exposure.

Consumer demand

Jewellery demand can be influenced by economic conditions, disposable income, consumer confidence, seasonal factors and changing preferences. The Company seeks to mitigate this risk through product diversification and broader market reach.

Competitive environment

The jewellery sector is highly competitive, with organised and established players competing across product quality, design, pricing, customer experience and distribution. The Company's focus on manufacturing capabilities, product diversification, customer trust and operational efficiency is intended to strengthen its competitive position.

Regulatory and compliance risk

The jewellery industry operates within a framework of applicable laws, regulations and standards relating to business operations, taxation, hallmarking, corporate governance and financial reporting. The Company continues to monitor applicable requirements and strengthen its compliance processes.

Integration risk

Following the Company's recent business combinations, effective integration of people, processes, systems and operations remains important. Management is focused on achieving the expected operational synergies while maintaining appropriate governance and financial controls.

8. INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEMS

The Company has established a framework of internal financial controls and compliance systems appropriate to the size and nature of its operations.

The internal control framework is supported by assessments undertaken by the Internal Auditors and Statutory Auditors, inputs from external consultants where applicable, and oversight by Management and the Board Committees, including the Audit Committee.

The Board has expressed its satisfaction regarding the adequacy and effectiveness of the internal financial controls in place. The Company continues to strengthen its control environment in line with the increasing scale and complexity of its operations.

With the expansion of the Company's business through the recent strategic combinations, continued attention to financial controls, inventory management, procurement, receivables, compliance and reporting processes will remain an important management priority.

9. HUMAN RESOURCES

People remain an important component of the Company's ability to execute its business strategy.

As at 31 March 2026, the Company had 488 employees on its rolls.

The Company continues to focus on employee engagement, talent development and professional growth. Internal career progression through job rotation and job enlargement is encouraged to broaden employee capabilities and create opportunities for development within the organisation.

As the Company's operations expand, management recognises the importance of retaining skilled personnel, strengthening functional capabilities and developing an organisational culture that supports accountability, collaboration and continuous improvement.

10. SUSTAINABILITY, RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS AND GOVERNANCE

The Company recognises that responsible business practices are important to sustainable long-term growth.

As a jewellery manufacturing company, the Company is conscious of the environmental, social and governance considerations associated with sourcing, processing and manufacturing precious metals and jewellery. It continues to focus on responsible practices, quality, integrity and transparency.

Particular emphasis is placed on efficient utilisation and recovery of precious metals. Precious-metal-bearing manufacturing waste, wherever generated, is collected and processed for recovery to reduce material loss and improve resource utilisation. The Company also promotes digital communication, responsible waste management and efficient use of resources.

The Company believes that strong governance, transparent processes, regulatory compliance and responsible business conduct are essential to maintaining stakeholder confidence as the business grows.

11. FUTURE OUTLOOK

The successful completion of the Company's recent business combinations has created a significantly larger platform from which UJIL can pursue its next phase of growth.

The Company's immediate focus will be on consolidating the expanded operations, realising available synergies and maintaining disciplined execution. Management intends to strengthen the Company's retail and wholesale distribution network while selectively evaluating opportunities in new markets.

The key areas of strategic focus going forward include:

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To
The Members,
UDAY JEWELLERY INDUSTRIES LIMITED

Report on the Audit of the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the standalone Ind AS financial statements of UDAY JEWELLERY INDUSTRIES LIMITED ("the Company"), which comprises the Balance Sheet as at 31st March 2026, and the Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), Statement of Changes in Equity and Statement of Cash Flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (herein after referred to as "Ind AS financial statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2026, its profit (including other comprehensive income), changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements for the financial year ended March 31, 2026. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key Audit Matters	Auditor's response
Revenue Recognition: The Company recognises revenue when the control of goods being sold is transferred to the customer. A substantial part of Company's revenue relates to jewelry which involves large number of sales contracts having varied contractual terms. This increases the risk of misstatement of the timing and amount of revenue recognised to achieve specific performance targets or expectations. The Company and its external stakeholders focus on revenue as a key performance indicator. In view of the above we have identified revenue recognition as a key audit matter.	In view of the significance of the matter, we applied the following audit procedures in this area, among others, to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence: 1. Assessed the appropriateness of the accounting policy for revenue recognition as per relevant accounting standard. 2. We evaluated the design and implementation of key internal financial controls and their operating effectiveness with respect to revenue recognition transactions selected on a sample basis. These included general IT controls and key application controls over the IT systems which govern revenue recognition, including access controls, controls over program changes and interfaces between different systems. 3. We perused selected samples of key contracts with customers to understand terms and conditions particularly relating to acceptance of goods. 4. We performed substantive testing of retail sales by selecting samples of sales using statistical sampling and tested the underlying documentation including verification of invoices and collections thereon. 5. We tested, selected samples of sales transactions made immediately pre and post year end, agreed the period of revenue recognition to the underlying documents. 6. We scrutinized manual journals posted to revenue to identify unusual items.

Key Audit Matters	Auditor's response
“Inventory” The Company's inventories primarily comprises jewellery of gold, diamonds, gemstones etc. (“inventory”) We have considered existence of inventory to be a key focus area for our audit due to the high value and nature of inventory involved could lead to a significant risk of loss of inventory	Our principal audit procedures performed, among other procedures, included the following: 1. Obtained an understanding of the management's process for safeguarding and physical verification of inventories including the appropriateness of the Company's procedures for conducting, reconciling and recording physical verification of inventories. 2. Evaluated the design and implementation of relevant controls and carried out the testing of operating effectiveness of controls over conducting, reconciling and recording physical verification of inventories. 3. Tested the operating effectiveness of controls around the IT systems for recording of inward and outward movements of inventory

Other information

The Company's management and Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including Annexure to Board's Report, Business Responsibility Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information; we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”) with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Board of Directors is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure - B to the Auditors' Report

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of M/s. UDAY JEWELLERY INDUSTRIES LIMITED ("the Company") as of 31 March 2026 in conjunction with our audit of Ind AS financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively except recording of audit trail (edit log) facility as at 31 March 2026, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

26.2.2. Current and Non-Current Classification

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current and non-current as per the Company's normal operating cycle. Based on the nature of services rendered to customers and time elapsed between deployment of resources and the realisation in cash and cash equivalents of the consideration for such services rendered, the Company has considered an operating cycle of 12 months.

The Company presents assets and liabilities in the Balance Sheet based on Current/ Non-Current classification.

An asset is treated as Current when it is:

- Expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle;
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading;
- Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

All other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when it is:

- Expected to be settled in normal operating cycle;

The Company classifies all other liabilities as non-current.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

26.2.3. Use of estimates and judgment

The preparation of standalone financial statements in conformity with the recognition and measurement principles of Ind AS requires management of the Company to make estimates and judgements that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities, disclosures of contingent liabilities as at the date of standalone financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses for the periods presented.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised and future periods are affected.

26.2.4. Revenue Recognition

i) Operating Income

Revenue from the sale of goods is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, net of returns and allowances, trade discount and volume rebates. Revenue is recognized when the significant risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the buyer, it is probable that economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the entity, the associated costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the transaction can be measured reliably and there is no continuing management involvement with the goods. The point of transfer of risks and rewards depends upon the terms of the contract of sale with individual customers.

ii) Other Income

The income relating to the core activities of the company which are not included in revenue from sales / services, are accounted for under Other Income. Other income is accounted on accrual basis except Dividend income. Dividend income is accounted for as and when received.

26.2.5. Property, Plant and Equipment's

All Property, Plant and Equipments (PPE) are stated at carrying value in accordance with previous GAAP, which is used as deemed cost on the date of transition to Ind AS using the exemption granted under Ind AS 101.

The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognized as an asset if, and only if it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The cost of an item of PPE is the cash price equivalent at the recognition date. The cost of an item of PPE comprises:

- i) Purchase price, including import duties and non-refundable purchase taxes, after deducting trade discounts and rebates.
- ii) Costs directly attributable to bringing the PPE to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management.
- iii) The initial estimate of the costs of dismantling and removing the item and restoring the site on which it is located, the obligation for which the company incurs either when the PPE is acquired or as a consequence of having used the PPE during a particular period for purposes other than to produce inventories during that period.

The company has chosen the cost model of recognition and this model is applied to an entire class of PPE. After recognition as an asset, an item of PPE is carried at its cost less any accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses.

26.2.6. Intangible assets

Intangible assets are stated at cost less accumulated amortization and impairment. Intangible assets are amortized over their respective individual estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis, from the date that these are available for use.

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives in the manner as prescribed in Schedule II of the Companies Act 2013 except in respect of the following assets, where useful life is different than those prescribed in Schedule II of the Companies Act 2013 are used:

Computer software where the useful life is less than or equal to one year	100% in the year of purchase

26.2.7. Depreciation

Depreciation is provided on straight line method as per the useful lives approved by the Board of Directors, which are equal to those provided under schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013. The useful life of an asset is reviewed at each financial year-end. Each part of an item of PPE with a cost that is significant in relation to the total cost of the asset and if the useful life of that part is different from remaining part of the asset; such significant part is depreciated separately. Depreciation on all such items have been provided from the date they are 'Available for Use' till the date of sale / disposal and includes amortization of intangible assets and lease hold assets. Freehold land is not depreciated. An item of PPE is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset.

The useful lives of the assets are taken as under: -

Name of Assets	Useful life as adopted by the company as per Schedule II
Furniture & Fittings	10
Office Equipment	5
Vehicles – Car	8
Plant & Machinery	15
Computers – End User Devices	3
Intangible Assets	10

26.2.8. Inventory

Inventories are valued at lower of cost or net realizable value.

Basis of determination of cost remain as follows:

Raw materials, Work-in-process and Finished goods - On Weighted average cost basis.

26.2.9. Employee benefits

i) Short-Term Employee Benefits

As per IndAS-19, all the short-term employee benefits such as wages, salaries, contributions/ benefits accrued during the year for current employees have been charged as an expenditure to the profit and loss account and the short-term employee benefits which were accrued during the year and which have not yet been paid were recorded as other liability under other current liability in the Balance Sheet

ii) Post-Employment Benefits

Defined Contribution Plans: The Company recognises contribution payable to the provident fund, Employees' State Insurance are charged to Profit & Loss Account, when an employee renders the related service. If the contribution payable to the scheme for service received before the balance sheet date exceeds the contribution already paid, the deficit payable to the scheme is recognised as another liability under other current liability in the Balance Sheet.

Gratuity: Provision made for Gratuity is charged to Profit & Loss Account and which have not yet been paid were recorded as provision in the Balance Sheet. The Company's liability is actuarially determined at the end of each year. Actuarial gains/losses through re-measurement are recognized in other comprehensive income.

26.2.10. Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

26.2.11. Contingent Liabilities / Assets

Contingent Liabilities

Contingent liabilities are not recognized but disclosed in Notes to the Accounts when the company has possible obligation due to past events and existence of the obligation depends upon occurrence or non-occurrence of future events not wholly within the control of the company.

Contingent liabilities are assessed continuously to determine whether outflow of economic resources have become probable. If the outflow becomes probable then relative provision is recognized in the financial statements.

Where an entity is jointly and severally liable for an obligation, the part of the obligation that is expected to be met by other parties is treated as a contingent liability. The entity recognises a provision for the part of the obligation for which an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is probable, except in the extremely rare circumstances where no reliable estimate can be made. Contingent Liabilities are disclosed in the General Notes forming part of the accounts.

Contingent Assets

Contingent Assets are not recognised in the financial statements. Such contingent assets are assessed continuously and are disclosed in Notes when the inflow of economic benefits becomes probable. If it's virtually certain that inflow of economic benefits will arise then such assets and the relative income will be recognised in the financial statements.

26.2.12. Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

Current tax

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from 'profit before tax' as reported in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income/statement of profit or loss because of items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. The Company's current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognized on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit.

Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognized for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognized for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilized.

Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognized if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised in other comprehensive income or equity is recognised in other comprehensive income or equity, respectively.

26.2.13. Impairment

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognized immediately in profit or loss, unless the relevant asset is carried at a revalue amount, in which case the impairment loss is treated as a revaluation decrease.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

When an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or a cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset (or cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognized immediately in profit or loss, unless the relevant asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case the reversal of the impairment loss is treated as a revaluation increase.

At the end of each reporting period, the company reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible, intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, The Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. When a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be identified,

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and intangible assets not yet available for use are tested for impairment at least annually, and whenever there is an indication that the asset may be impaired.

Impairment of financial assets

Financial assets, other than those at Fair Value through Profit and Loss (FVTPL), are assessed for indicators of impairment at the end of each reporting period. Financial assets are considered to be impaired when there is objective evidence that, as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the financial asset, the estimated future cash flows of the investment have been affected. For Available for Sale (AFS) equity investments, a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of the security below its cost is considered to be objective evidence of impairment.

For all other financial assets, objective evidence of impairment could include:

- Significant financial difficulty of the issuer or counterparty;
- Breach of contract, such as a default or delinquency in interest or principal payments;
- It becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or financial re-organisation; or the disappearance of an active market for that financial asset because of financial difficulties.

For certain categories of financial assets, such as trade receivables, assets are assessed for impairment on individual basis. Objective evidence of impairment for a portfolio of receivables could include company's past experience of collecting payments, an increase in the number of delayed payments in the portfolio past the average credit period of zero days, as well as observable changes in national or local economic conditions that correlate with default on receivables.

For financial assets that are carried at cost, the amount of impairment loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of the estimated future cash flows discounted at the current market rate of return for a similar financial asset. Such impairment loss will not be reversed in subsequent periods.

The carrying amount of the financial asset is reduced by the impairment loss directly for all financial assets with the exception of trade receivables; such impairment loss is reduced through the use of an allowance account for respective financial asset. When a trade receivable is considered uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance account. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against the allowance account. Changes in the carrying amount of the allowance account are recognized in profit or loss.

For financial assets measured at amortised cost, if, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognized, the previously recognized impairment loss is reversed through profit or loss to the extent that the carrying amount of the investment at the date the impairment is reversed does not exceed what the amortised cost would have been had the impairment not been recognized.

De-recognition of financial assets

The Company de-recognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another party. If the Company neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and continues to control the transferred asset, The Company recognises its retained interest in the asset and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay. If the Company retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Company continues to recognise the financial asset and also recognises a collateralised borrowing for the proceeds received.

On de-recognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable and the cumulative gain or loss that had been recognized in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity is recognized in profit or loss.

26.2.14. Financial instruments

Non-derivative financial instruments

Non-derivative financial instruments consist of:

- Financial assets, which include cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, unbilled revenues, finance lease receivables, employee and other advances, investments in equity and debt securities and eligible current and non-current assets;
- Financial liabilities, which include long and short-term loans and borrowings, bank overdrafts, trade payables, eligible current and non-current liabilities.

Non derivative financial instruments are recognized initially at fair value including any directly attributable transaction costs. Financial assets are derecognized when substantial risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset have been transferred. In cases where substantial risks and rewards of ownership of the financial assets are neither transferred nor retained, financial assets are derecognized only when the Company has not retained control over the financial asset.

Subsequent to initial recognition, non derivative financial instruments are measured as described below:

a) Cash and cash equivalents

For the purposes of the cash flow statement, cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand, at banks and demand deposits with banks, net of outstanding bank overdrafts that are repayable on demand and are considered part of the Company's cash management system. In the statement of financial position, bank overdrafts are presented under borrowings within current liabilities.

b) Investments in liquid mutual funds, equity securities (other than Subsidiaries, Joint Venture and Associates)

These investments are measured at fair value and changes therein, other than impairment losses, are recognized through the Statement of Profit & Loss. The impairment losses, if any, are reclassified from equity into statement of income. When an available for sale financial asset is derecognized, the related cumulative gain or loss recognised in equity is transferred to the statement of income.

c) Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are presented as current assets, except for those maturing later than 12 months after the reporting date which are presented as non-current assets. Loans and receivables are initially recognized at fair value plus directly attributable transaction costs and subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment losses. Loans and receivables comprise trade receivables, unbilled revenues and other assets.

The company estimates the un-collectability of accounts receivable by analysing historical payment patterns, customer concentrations, customer credit-worthiness and current economic trends. If the financial condition of a customer deteriorates, additional allowances may be required.

d) Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables are initially recognized at fair value, and subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method. For these financial instruments, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the short-term maturity of these instruments.

e) Foreign Currencies Transactions

Transactions in foreign currencies are recorded at the exchange rate prevailing on the date of transaction.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency closing rates of exchange at the reporting date. Exchange differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognised in Statement of Profit and Loss.

26.2.15. Materiality of income / expenditure:

An item of income or expenditure of one or more prior periods is considered material only if, it exceeds 0.5% of total revenues of the company, as per last years audited Financial Statements, in each such case.

26.2.16. Earnings per Share

Basic EPS amounts are calculated by dividing the profit for the quarter attributable to equity holders of the parent by the weighted average number of Equity shares outstanding during the quarter.

Diluted EPS amounts are calculated by dividing the profit attributable to equity holders of the parent (after adjusting for interest on the convertible preference shares) by the weighted average number of Equity shares outstanding during the quarter plus the weighted average number of Equity shares that would be issued on conversion of all the dilutive potential Equity shares into Equity shares

26.2.17. Statement of Cash Flows

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit/ (loss) before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments.

26.2.18. Business Combination under Common Control

Business combinations involving entities or businesses under common control are accounted for using the pooling of interest method. Under pooling of interest method, the assets and liabilities of the combining entities or businesses are reflected at their carrying amounts after making adjustments necessary to harmonise the accounting policies. The identity of the reserves is preserved in the same form in which they appeared in the financial statements of the transferor and the difference, if any, between the amount recorded as share capital issued plus any additional consideration in the form of cash or other assets and the amount of share capital of the transferor is transferred to capital reserve.

26.2.19. Recent accounting pronouncements

- New and Amended Standards Adopted by the Company:

Ministry of Corporate Affairs (“MCA”) notifies new standards or amendments to the existing standards under Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as issued from time to time. The company's principal sources of liquidity are cash and cash equivalents, cash generated from operations and availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities to meet obligations when due.

Due to the dynamic nature of underlying businesses, the company maintains flexibility in funding by maintaining availability under committed credit lines.

Short term liquidity requirements consist mainly of sundry creditors, expense payable, employee dues arising during the normal course of business as of each reporting date. The company maintains sufficient balance in cash and cash equivalents to meet short term liquidity requirements.

26.3.14. Disclosure in respect of Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS)-33 “Earnings Per Share (EPS)”

(a) Basic EPS

The earnings and weighted average number of ordinary shares used in the calculation of basic EPS and Basic EPS is as follows:

		(Rs. in lakhs)
Particulars	For the year ended March 31, 2026	For the year ended March 31, 2025 (Restated)
Earnings used in calculation of basic earnings per share(A)	3,576.78	1,575.40
Weighted average number of ordinary shares for the purpose of basic earnings per share(B)	331.66	319.98
Basic EPS(A/B)	10.78	4.92

(b) Diluted EPS

The earnings and weighted average number of ordinary shares used in the calculation of Diluted EPS is as follows: (Rs. In Lakhs)

Particulars	For the year ended March 31, 2026	For the year ended March 31, 2025 (Restated)
Earnings used in calculation of basic earnings per share(A)	3,576.78	1,575.40
Weighted average number of ordinary shares for the purpose of Diluted earnings per share(B)	331.66	319.98
Diluted EPS(A/B)	10.78	4.92

In accordance with Ind AS 33 – Earnings per share, the company has computed the Basic and Diluted Earnings per Share (EPS) based on the net profit attributable to equity shareholders, as reported in the Statement of Profit and Loss, and the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period.

During the year, the Company had outstanding warrants convertible into equity shares. According to Paragraph 41 of Ind AS 33, potential ordinary shares shall be treated as dilutive when, and only when, their conversion to ordinary shares would decrease earnings per share or increase loss per share from continuing operations. However, these potential equity shares were not included in the calculation of Diluted EPS for the period, as their effect was anti-dilutive.

The exercise price of the warrants was higher than the average market price of the share during the period, making the EPS anti-dilutive. Therefore, it has not been considered for computing Diluted EPS as per Ind AS 33.

Accordingly, Diluted EPS is equal to Basic EPS for the current period.

26.3.15. Operating Segments – Ind AS -108

In the opinion of management, the company has no operating/reportable segment as envisaged in Ind AS-108 as the risks and returns associated with product categories are not different. Hence, disclosures with regard to segment reporting are not applicable to Company.
