ORDER

02.09.2026

Heard Mr. C. Tajo, learned counsel for the applicant. Also heard Mr. L. Yountan, learned counsel for the respondents.

2. This application under Section 5 of the Limitation Act has been filed with a prayer for condonation of delay of 46 days in preferring the connected criminal revision petition against the judgment and order dated 18.12.2025 passed by the learned District & Sessions Judge, Aalo, whereby an appeal filed by the respondent was allowed and the judgment of conviction dated 18.08.2023 and sentence order dated 21.08.2023 passed by the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Aalo in C.R. Case No. 24/2018 were set aside.

3. Mr. Tajo, learned counsel for the applicant, submits that the grounds for the delay in filing the connected appeal have been explained in paragraphs 8, 9 and 11 of the delay condonation petition.

4. Considering the explanations provided in the aforesaid paragraphs, this Court is satisfied that the applicant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the revision petition within the stipulated time. The learned counsel for the respondents raised no objection to the condonation of delay.

5. In view of the above, and in the interest of justice, the interlocutory application for condonation of delay is hereby allowed. Accordingly, the delay of 46 days in preferring the connected revision petition stands condoned.

6. The Registry is directed to register the connected criminal revision petition and list the same for admission hearing after 2(two) weeks.

7. The Interlocutory Application stands disposed of in terms above.
