Order

06/07/2026

1. Instant writ petition has been filed by petitioners-defendants under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, arises out of a civil suit for specific performance, filed by respondents-plaintiffs, challenging the order dated 22.01.2026 passed in Civil Suit No. 27/2025 by the trial Court, Ajmer, whereby an application for amendment in the plaint has been allowed. The challenge to the order has been made on the ground that proposed amendment alters the nature of suit drastically and substantially.

2. Counsel for both parties jointly submit that during course of this petition, parties have entered into mutual settlement but due to passing of interim stay order dated 11.02.2026 & pendency of this petition, it is not possible to get decide the suit finally and agreeable to get disposed of the suit in terms of settlement before the trial Court. A copy of settlement deed entered into between parties has been placed on record.

3. Thus, a joint prayer has been made that instant writ petition may be allowed to be withdrawn and interim stay order be vacated, so as to get decide the suit before the trial Court in terms of compromise.

4. In view of above, without interfering with the impugned order, instant writ petition stands disposed of as not pressed.

5. Interim stay order dated 11.02.2026 stands vacated.

6. All pending application(s), if any, also stand disposed of.
