UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Learned counsel for the first respondent-Board of Secondary Education submitted that these Special Leave Petitions have been rendered infructuous owing to lapse of time and therefore, the same may be disposed.

In response to this submission, learned counsel for the petitioners-Students brought to our notice the fact that by interim order dated 09.05.2017 in Special Leave Petitions (Civil) No(s).14720-14721 of 2017, this Court had permitted the provisional declaration of results and therefore, the said order may be made absolute. It was further submitted that in certain other cases, the results were not declared.

In the circumstances, we do not find any reason to consider these cases on merits.

We direct that declaration of the results to be made absolute. Further, where results have not yet been declared, they shall be declared expeditiously within a period of three weeks from today.

The Special Leave Petitions are disposed as infructuous as far as these petitioners-Students are concerned.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
