Well-Positioned to Capitalize on India's Senior Living Opportunity

1

Structural Growth Tailwinds

A long-duration demographic opportunity

2

Premium Positioning

Facilities-led differentiation and pricing power

Integrated amenities, community design and professional project management support stronger customer value, better realisations and premium pricing.

3

Competitive Advantage

Limited organised competition at scale

Few developers have built dedicated senior-living communities at scale, creating room for established operators to strengthen their lead.

4

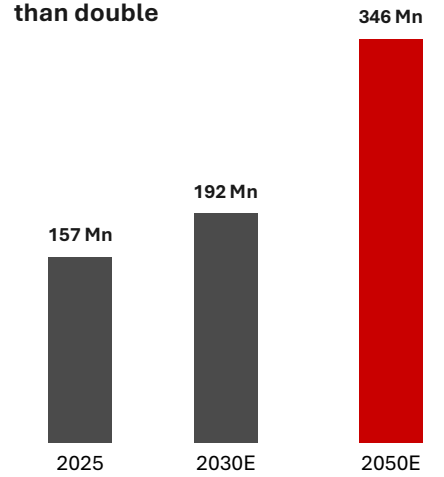

Better Margins

Superior than company margins

Ashiana's early-mover expertise and operating track record provide a platform to expand its footprint and scale the senior-living business over time and enhance company margins

A LARGE, UNDERPENETRATED MARKET

India's 60+ population is set to more than double
