Dear Sir,

Sub: Clarification on non-main stream media reports on data leakage

This is with reference to some non-main stream media reports on a post by a threat actor alleging possible exposure of certain employee information.

This is to clarify that as per internal investigation of the matter there is no reliable evidence of breach of our systems or customer environments. The information referenced appears to be outdated and does not contain any sensitive information. No critical systems of the Company nor the data of our customers have been compromised.

The Company has implemented multiple layers of security controls in the system and places the highest importance on the security of its systems, the privacy of data, and the trust of its customers. The reported matter is being treated with utmost seriousness, and the Company is currently assessing and verifying the details of the claim. Appropriate actions will be taken, wherever required.

Kindly take the above information on record.

This information will also be hosted on the Company's website at www.hexaware.com.

Thanking you,

For HEXAWARE TECHNOLOGIES LIMITED
