Transrail Lighting Continues Order-Winning Momentum with ₹408 Crore Orders

Order mainly comprises of a substation project in MENA region

Mumbai, October 14, 2026 – Transrail Lighting Limited (BSE: 544317, NSE: TRANSRAILL), one of the leading Engineering, Procurement, and Construction (EPC) players in the Transmission & Distribution (T&D) sector, today announced that it has received new orders worth ₹ 408 crore which has further strengthened the orderbook position of the Company. With this, the year-to-date order intake position stands at ₹ 2,429 crore.

The order wins mainly consists of a GIS substation (Gas Insulated substation) EPC project in MENA region apart from few other domestic orders. This win highlights the wide technical and operational skill sets the Company possess and the confidence placed by international clients on it for high technology projects.

Mr. Randeep Narang, MD & CEO, stated,

"We continue to garner new orders on back of the increasing T&D spends worldwide. With this, just in last fortnight we have accumulated orders worth ₹ 1,394 crore taking the YTD order inflow to ₹ 2,429 crore. Amongst these new order wins of ₹ 408 crore, the major order is a Greenfield EPC job of a substation project in MENA region which is on advanced gas insulated technology which is a testimony to our advanced skill sets. We continue to grow in a balanced manner both in domestic and International markets across our products and services."
