Announcement / Notice / Shareholder Communication

Subject: Voluntary Surrender of Research Analyst License

This is to inform you that CNI Research Ltd has discontinued its research business and had voluntarily surrendered its Research Analyst License, effective March 2025, as communicated to BSE on 10th March 2025.

Following this, the Company adopted new Articles and Memorandum of Association to pursue business in AI, blockchain, and tokenization. Accordingly, the Company's name was changed to Tomorrow Technologies Global Innovations Ltd., which has been duly approved by BSE.

We wish to clarify that the Research Analyst License was not cancelled on account of non-payment of fees (as has been published by SEBI and in some news articles); it was a voluntary surrender, and we will bring this fact to the attention of the relevant authorities.

For the record, the Company, vide email dated 3rd June 2026, had informed SEBI of its decision not to renew the license, in response to the only show-cause notice received for payment of license fees.

Regards,
For Tomorrow Technologies Global Innovations Ltd.
(Formerly known as CNI Research Ltd.)
