UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties.

The limited grievance of the petitioners is that in the event of the appeal pending before the High Court, is allowed, it will be impossible to recover the amount from the respondent.

We are inclined to note the fact that the award is in favour of the respondent, and so also decision of the learned Single Judge in exercise of power under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

However, in order to safeguard the interests of the petitioners, the amount as directed to be paid by the petitioners to the respondent is subject to furnishing a bank guarantee for the said amount. The needful will have to be done within a period of four weeks.

On furnishing such bank guarantee, the petitioner(s) shall release the amount as directed by the High Court.

The Special Leave Petition stand disposed of, accordingly.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
