RISK MANAGEMENT:

The Company, like any other enterprise, is exposed to business risks which can be internal risks as well as external risks. Any unexpected changes in the regulatory framework pertaining to fiscal benefits and other related issues can affect our operations and profitability.

A key factor in determining a Company's capacity to create sustainable value is the ability and willingness of the Company to take risks and manage them effectively and efficiently. However, the Company is well aware of the above risks and as part of business strategy has put in a mechanism to ensure that they are mitigated with timely action.

The Company has an elaborate Risk Management Framework, which is designed to enable risks to be identified, assessed and mitigated appropriately. The Board of Directors of the Company has constituted Risk Management Committee which has, inter-alia, been entrusted with the responsibility of overseeing implementation/ monitoring of Risk Management Plan and Policy and continually obtaining reasonable assurance from Management that all known and emerging risks have been identified and mitigated or managed.

The current constitution and role of the Risk Management Committee is in compliance with the requirements of Regulation 21 of the Listing Regulations. Pursuant to the provisions of the Act and Listing Regulations, the Company has adopted Risk Management Policy. The details of the Risk Management Policy are available on the Company's website and can be accessed through the link: https://www.alokind.com/assets/pdf/investor-relations/policies/Risk_Policy.pdf. There has been no change in the policy during the year under review.

Further details on the Risk Management activities including the implementation of Risk Management Policy, key risks identified, and their mitigations are covered in Management Discussion and Analysis section, which forms part of this Annual Report. In the opinion of the Board of Directors, none of these risks affect and/or threaten the existence of the Company.

VIGIL MECHANISM AND WHISTLE – BLOWER POLICY:

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 177(9) of the Act, read with the Rules made thereunder, the Company has adopted a Whistle-Blower Policy for Directors and Employees to report genuine concerns and to provide adequate safeguards against victimization of persons who may use such mechanism. The functioning process of this mechanism has been more elaborately mentioned in the Corporate Governance Report which forms part of this Annual Report. The said Policy is available on Company's website and can be accessed through the link: https://www.alokind.com/assets/pdf/investor-relations/policies/Whistle_Blower_Policy.pdf.

DIRECTORS AND KEY MANAGERIAL PERSONNEL:

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY POLICY

Being socially responsible and having ethical business practices are the tenets of Company's corporate philosophy. In everything we do there is a strong commitment to wider all-round social progress, as well as to a sustainable development that balances the needs of the present with those of the future.

The Company's social vision has been enshrined in the three E's which have become the Guiding Principles of our CSR initiatives - Education, Empowerment and Environment & Health.

The Policy in brief:

To spend at least 2% of average net profits of the Company made during the three immediately preceding financial years calculated in accordance with the provisions of Section 198 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the sector as mentioned in Schedule VII of the Act.

To give preference to local area and areas around it where it operates, for spending the amount earmarked for corporate social responsibility activities.

List of activities to be undertaken by the Company as specified in Schedule VII of the Act:

- 1) Promoting education, including special education and employment enhancing vocation skills especially among children, women, elderly, and the differently abled and livelihood enhancement projects;
- 2) Promoting gender equality, empowering women, setting up homes and hostels for women and orphans, setting up old age homes, day care centers and such other facilities for senior citizens and measures for reducing inequalities faced by socially and economically backward groups;
- 3) Ensuring environmental sustainability, ecological balance, protection of flora and fauna, animal welfare, agroforestry, conservation of natural resources and maintaining quality of soil, air and water;
- 4) Eradicating hunger, poverty and malnutrition, promoting preventive health care and sanitation, making available safe drinking water;
- 5) Training to promote rural sports, nationally recognized sports, Paralympic sports and Olympic sports;
- 6) Measures for the benefit of armed forces veterans, war widows and their dependents;
- 7) Contribution to the Prime Minister's National Relief Fund or any other fund set up by the Central Government for socio-economic development and relief and welfare of the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, other backward classes, minorities and women;
- 8) Contributions or funds provided to technology incubators located within academic institutions which are approved by the Central Government;
- 9) Rural development projects.

FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 31ST MARCH, 2026

[Pursuant to Section 204(1) of the Companies Act, 2013 and Rule No.: 9 of the Companies (Appointment and Remuneration of Managerial Personnel) Rules, 2014]

To,

Alok Industries Limited

I have conducted the Secretarial Audit of the compliance of applicable statutory provisions and the adherence to good corporate practices by Alok Industries Limited (hereinafter called "the Company"). Secretarial Audit was conducted in a manner that provided me a reasonable basis for evaluating the corporate conducts/statutory compliances and expressing my opinion thereon.

Based on my verification of the Company's books, papers, minute books, forms and returns filed and other records maintained by the Company and also the information provided by the Company, its officers, agents and authorized representatives during the conduct of secretarial audit, I hereby report that in my opinion, the Company has, during the audit period covering the financial year ended on 31st March, 2026 ("audit period"), complied with the statutory provisions listed hereunder and also that the Company has proper Board-processes and compliance-mechanism in place to the extent, in the manner and subject to the reporting made hereinafter:

I have examined the books, papers, minute books, forms and returns filed and other records maintained by the Alok Industries Limited for the financial year ended 31st March, 2026 according to the provisions of:

- (i) The Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act') and the rules made there under;
- (ii) The Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 ('SCRA') and the rules made there under;
- (iii) The Depositories Act, 1996 and the Regulations and Bye-laws framed there under;
- (iv) Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 and the Rules and Regulations made there under to the extent of Foreign Direct Investment, Overseas Direct Investment and External Commercial Borrowings as applicable;
- (v) The following Regulations and Guidelines prescribed under Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 ('SEBI Act'): -
 - (a) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 2011;
 - (b) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015;
 - (c) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015;
 - (d) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018 (Not applicable to the Company during the audit period);
 - (e) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Share Based Employee Benefits and Sweat Equity) Regulations, 2021 (Not applicable to the Company during the audit period);
 - (f) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue and Listing of Non-Convertible Securities) Regulations, 2021 (Not applicable to the Company during the audit period);
 - (g) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Delisting of Equity Shares) Regulations, 2021 (Not applicable to the Company during the audit period);
 - (h) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Buyback of Securities) Regulations, 2018 (Not applicable to the Company during the audit period);
 - (i) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Registrars to an Issue and Share Transfer Agents) Regulations, 2025 regarding the Companies Act and dealing with client (Not applicable to the Company during the audit period);

BOARD'S REPORT

(vi) The management has identified and confirmed that the other laws as specifically applicable to the Company and it has proper system to comply with the applicable provisions of the respective Acts, Rules and Regulations;

I have also examined compliance with the applicable clauses of the following and I am of the opinion that the Company has complied with the applicable provisions:

- a) Secretarial Standards 1 and 2 issued by the Institute of Company Secretaries of India;
- b) The Listing Agreements entered into by the Company with BSE Limited and National Stock Exchange of India Limited.

During the period under review, I am of the opinion that the Company has complied with the provisions of the Act, Rules, Regulations, Guidelines, Standards, etc. as mentioned above.

I further Report that:

1. The Board of Directors of the Company is duly constituted with proper balance of Directors. There were no changes in the composition of the Board of Directors during the audit period.
2. The Company has given adequate notice to all the Directors to schedule the Board Meetings, agenda and detailed notes on agenda were sent at least seven days in advance and a system exists for seeking and obtaining further information and clarifications on agenda items before the meeting and for meaningful participation at the meeting.
3. All the decisions at the Board and Committee Meetings were carried out unanimously.
4. The Company has adequate systems and processes in the Company commensurate with the size and operations of the Company to monitor and ensure compliance with applicable laws, rules, regulations and guidelines.

I further report that during the audit period the Company has:

- i. re-appointed Mr. Achuthan Siddharth (DIN: 00016278), Ms. Mumtaz Bandukwala (DIN: 07129301), and Mr. Rahul Dutt (DIN: 08872616) as Independent

Directors of the Company w.e.f. September 14, 2025;

- ii. appointed M/s Chaturvedi and Shah LLP, Chartered Accountants, as Statutory Auditors of the Company;
- iii. appointed Mr. Virendra Bhatt, Practicing Company Secretary, as Secretarial Auditor of the Company;
- iv. adopted new Articles of Association containing regulations in conformity with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013; and
- v. informed to the Stock Exchanges that the Company's step-down subsidiary, Alok Industries International Limited, entered into a Share Purchase Agreement with CRESCON for the divestment of its 100% stake in Mileta a.s. on December 16, 2025.

Auditor's Responsibility:

1. My responsibility is to only express the opinion on the compliance with the applicable laws and maintenance of Records based on audit.
2. I have conducted the audit in accordance with the applicable Auditing Standards prescribed by the Institute of Company Secretaries of India. These standards require that the Auditor comply with statutory and regulatory requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about compliance with applicable laws and maintenance of records.
3. Due to the inherent limitations of an audit including internal, financial and operating controls, there is an unavoidable risk that some misstatements or material non-compliances may not be detected, even though the audit is properly planned and performed in accordance with the Standards.

CONSERVATION OF ENERGY, TECHNOLOGY ABSORPTION AND FOREIGN EXCHANGE EARNINGS AND OUTGO PURSUANT TO PROVISIONS OF SECTION 134 OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013, READ WITH THE COMPANIES (ACCOUNTS) RULES, 2014

A. CONSERVATION OF ENERGY:

In view of the depressed market conditions and overall economic scenario, the Company could only undertake certain subdued measures towards conservation of energy.

a) Steps taken or impact on conservation of energy:

The Company remains deeply committed to operational excellence, environmental sustainability, and the reduction of carbon footprint through systematic energy optimization. During the financial year under review, several engineering interventions, asset modernizations, and process integrations were successfully executed across the Company's power plant, utility networks, and manufacturing divisions (including the Wider Width, Terry Towel, and Knits facilities).

The key energy conservation initiatives undertaken during the year are detailed below:

i. Co-generation Capacity & Boiler Auxiliary Optimization

Turbine Performance Enhancement: Successfully optimized the baseline operational parameters of the captive Steam Turbine power plant, achieving a stable increase in generation capacity of 100 kW/h. This optimization reduces reliance on external grid-supplied power, yielding permanent savings in net energy procurement costs.

Variable Frequency Drive (VFD) Retrofitting: Migrated high-capacity, continuous-load rotating equipment from legacy Star-Delta starters to intelligent Variable Frequency Drives to precisely align motor outputs with real-time operational demands:

Retrofitted the 55 kW Primary Air (PA) fan on the High-Pressure (HP) Boiler, driving down baseline auxiliary power consumption.

Retrofitted the 45 kW Primary Air (PA) fan on the Low-Pressure (LP) Boiler to enhance dynamic draft efficiency.

Upgraded the 150 kW HP Boiler Feed Pump (BFP) to VFD control, significantly capturing power demand reductions across daily industrial pumping cycles.

ii. Optimization of Plant Chilling & HVAC Infrastructure

Chiller Plant Modernization: Decommissioned inefficient, legacy screw-chilling units and replaced them with a state-of-the-art, high-efficiency 2 × 1150 TR Centrifugal Chiller system. This deployment substantially optimizes the Specific Energy Consumption (SEC) profile under variable manufacturing thermal loads.

Decentralized Air Conditioning: Integrated standalone energy-saving units across decentralized split air conditioners to reduce cyclic electricity losses.

iii. Overhaul of Compressed Air Infrastructure

To curb losses and improve the specific power consumption per Cubic Feet per Minute (CFM) across the utility compressor network, the following measures were completed:

Displaced high-SEC screw compressors with high-efficiency Centrifugal Compressors.

Replaced aging, thermally degraded intercoolers, aftercoolers, and diffusers with aerodynamically optimized, high-effectiveness models to eliminate pressure drops and optimize volumetric efficiency.

Eliminated the Plate Heat Exchanger (PHE) from the utility compressor circuit, removing secondary fluid loop friction and saving pumping energy.

Installed a highly efficient Refrigerated Air Dryer for the DTY #1 Compressor, replacing the legacy Chilled Water (CHW) after-cooler network. This structural improvement guarantees moisture control and operational reliability while reducing auxiliary cooling water loads.

iv. Thermal Energy Recovery & Closed-Loop Process Integration

Waste Heat Harvesting: Implemented a sustainability-driven thermal integration loop at the Wider Width processing plant by capturing hot process condensate from the caustic weak lye system and directly rerouting it as thermal feed water into the Merceriser machine. This loop has materially reduced fresh live steam generation demands and associated fuel consumption.

v. Fluid Dynamics & Aerodynamic System Enhancements

Water Supply Pumping Systems: Upgraded the primary water delivery infrastructure of the Terry Towel and Knits plants by transitioning from legacy submersible pump sets to highly efficient Split-Case Pumps, lowering the overall kilowatt consumption per volume of fluid drawn.

Cooling Loop Refurbishment: Completed mechanical overhauls and upgrades on older cooling water circulation pumps using modern energy-efficient substitutes.

Air Handling and Aerodynamics: Upgraded existing Air Handling Units (AHUs) and Cooling Towers (CTs) with advanced, lightweight FRP (Fiber Reinforced Plastic) Fans equipped with customized Inlet Bells & Spinners, which systematically reduce intake turbulence and lower fan brake horsepower (BHP).

b) Steps taken by the Company for utilizing alternate sources of energy:

The Company is actively expanding its renewable energy footprint to decrease dependence on conventional fossil fuels and secure long-term tariff stability. During the financial year under review, the Company successfully integrated wind power through a structured wheeling mechanism to fulfill energy requirements at the Vapi Plant. Additionally, captive solar power generation capabilities were utilized at the Silvassa Plant to directly offset baseline utility grid consumption with clean energy

c) Capital investment on energy conservation equipment:

₹ 25 Lacs at Vapi Plant.

B. TECHNOLOGY ABSORPTION:

(i) Efforts made towards technology absorption:

The Company has not entered into any technology agreement or collaborations.

(ii) The benefits derived like product improvement, cost reduction, product development or import substitution:

Benefits from the efforts above include cost rationalization, lower usage of natural resources, enhancement of productivity and resource optimisation.

(iii) Information regarding imported technology (Imported during last three years):

None.

(iv) Expenditure incurred on research and development:

None.

C. FOREIGN EXCHANGE EARNINGS AND OUTGO:

Foreign Exchange earned in terms of actual inflows: ₹ 650.42 crore.

Foreign Exchange outflow in terms of actual outflows: ₹ 240.86 crore.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Alok Industries Limited (“Alok”) is one of India’s large vertically integrated textile company with uniqueness of integration in both Cotton and Polyester segments. In the Cotton segment, the Company is integrated right from spinning to weaving, processing, finished fabrics, bedsheets, towels and garments. In case of polyester, the integration is from continuous polymerization where PTA and MEG are used to make melt to produce polyester chips to Partially Oriented Yarn (POY), Fully Drawn Yarn (FDY), Drawn Texturized Yarn (DTY) and Polyester Staple Fiber (PSF). Alok’s plants are situated at Vapi (in Gujarat) and Silvassa (part of a Union Territory near Vapi) and the Company has a wide customer base across the world that includes global retail brands, textile importers, private labels, and domestic retailers, garment and textile manufacturers and traders.

Alok, on July 17, 2017 underwent a corporate insolvency resolution process under section 31 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016. Reliance Industries Limited (RIL) along with the JM Financial Asset Reconstruction Company Limited (JMFARC) and JMFARC – March 2018 – Trust submitted a Resolution plan that was approved by the Hon’ble National Company Law Tribunal, Ahmedabad Bench (Approved Resolution Plan) vide its order dated March 8, 2019. The implementation of the Approved Resolution Plan was concluded with the re-constitution of the Board of Directors of the Company on September 14, 2020.

Ongoing geopolitical disturbances continue to disrupt key export markets, particularly in Western economies. The escalation of conflicts in the Middle East, along with the prolonged Russia-Ukraine situation, has led to volatility in energy prices, supply chains, and global trade flows. Increase in crude oil prices and disruptions in key shipping routes have elevated input and logistics costs, while also weakening consumer sentiment across major markets. In addition, rising protectionist measures and trade restrictions across major economies are further impacting export opportunities, as countries prioritize domestic industries and impose stricter import regulations.

The Company reported a positive EBITDA of ₹ 78.93 crores in FY26 as compared to EBITDA of ₹ 136.69 crores in FY25. The overall sales for the Company decreased to ₹ 3,525.30 crores for the year ended March 31, 2026 as compared to sales of ₹ 3,556.59 crores in the previous year. The domestic sales increased to ₹ 2813.02 crores in FY 25-26 from ₹ 2,712.72 crores in FY 24-25 and export sales declined from ₹ 843.87 crores in FY 24-25 to ₹ 712.28 crores in FY 25-26.

The strong background and support of the present promoters and the synergies in group operations is enabling the Company to sustain in the challenging environment. The Company’s standalone rating continued to be CARE AA+ representing strong business fundamentals.

The detailed analysis of the performance of the Company has been given in Section 4 “Financial Performance”.

1. Economic Overview

1.1 Global Economic Overview

The global economy maintained a stable growth trajectory during the year, despite ongoing macroeconomic challenges, including the imposition of higher US tariffs on key traded goods, which have weighed on global trade flows. Global GDP growth stood at 3.3% in 2025, improved marginally from 3.2% in 2024. Growth in advanced economies remained subdued, moderating from 1.8% to 1.7%, reflecting tighter financial conditions and weaker demand. In contrast, emerging economies continued to drive global growth, expanding by 4.4% in 2025, supported by strong domestic demand, increasing infrastructure investments, and improving manufacturing activity. Additionally, ongoing geopolitical tensions, including in the Middle East, have contributed to some volatility in energy prices, adding to the uncertainty in global energy markets. Overall, the global outlook remains uncertain due to geopolitical developments which continue to pose risks to sustained economic growth.

1.2 India Economic Overview

India’s economy continued to demonstrate resilience amid global macroeconomic challenges, consistently outperforming the global average on the back of strong domestic demand, GST rationalization, and resilient policy push. Despite external pressures such as supply chain disruptions and inflation, the country has maintained relative economic stability. In 2024–25, India's real GDP* is estimated at ₹ 299.89 lakh crore, grown by 7.1%, supported by sustained growth across manufacturing, services, and infrastructure sectors, reflecting the economy's ability to adapt to evolving global conditions. Nominal GDP has reached ₹ 318.07 lakh crore, underscoring India's expanding presence in the global economy. Going forward, continued investments, rapid digitalization, and a favorable demographic profile are expected to further strengthen India's growth outlook.

*GDP figures are based on the revised series with base year 2022–23. Previous year comparisons may differ due to change in base year and methodology

FRE: First Revised Estimates

SAE: Second Advance Estimates

As of December 2025, India's overall Index of Industrial Production (IIP) recorded a growth of 7.8% YoY, indicating a gradual stabilization in manufacturing activity despite continued global trade headwinds. However, the textile and apparel sectors experienced a visible slowdown, with the textile manufacturing index declining marginally from 113.8 to 111.4, while apparel manufacturing contracted sharply by nearly 8%, falling from 119.2 to 109.5 during the same period. This decline reflected a combination of factors including fluctuating export demand, elevated US import tariffs, inventory rationalization by global brands, and prevailing global macroeconomic uncertainty.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The industry outlook for FY27 remains uncertain, with growth drivers intact but near-term performance constrained by demand uncertainty, input cost volatility, and geopolitical disruptions. A broad-based recovery will depend on revival in global consumption and export markets. Recent Free Trade Agreements (FTAs) with the EU and UK, currently under discussion, are likely to enhance market access and improve export competitiveness for Indian players.

2. Textile & Apparel Industry Overview

2.1 Global Apparel Market Overview

The global apparel market is estimated at US$ 1.9 trillion in 2025, growing by 5% from 2024. Despite persistent economic uncertainties and inflationary pressures influencing consumer spending, the global apparel market has continued to expand in recent years, and it is further projected to reach US$ 2.3 trillion by 2030, growing at a CAGR of ~4%, indicating a stable growth outlook. Regionally, the EU and the US remain the largest markets, expected to reach US$ 371 billion and US$ 299 billion, respectively in 2025. Emerging markets such as India and China continue to gain prominence, with India projected to grow strongly to US$ 175 billion by 2030, while China is expected to reach US$ 250 billion during the same time. India's projected 9% CAGR in apparel consumption through 2030 is the highest among all major markets globally, an unmatched domestic growth runway that few textile companies anywhere in the world are positioned to capture.

Overall, the global apparel market is expected to witness balanced growth across regions, with increasing contribution from emerging economies alongside steady demand in developed markets.

*High growth is mainly due to high inflation & currency appreciation against US$

Demand across key markets such as the US and EU remained steady in 2025, largely constrained by geopolitical pressures and cautious consumer spending. In the US, retail performance showed only modest improvement, with apparel store sales rising by 4% and home furnishing store sales by 3% in the same period. Meanwhile, business confidence in the EU textile and clothing sectors stayed subdued¹, with both segments largely operating in negative territory due to weak demand conditions.

At the same time, supply chain diversification and sustainability-driven sourcing are reshaping global sourcing patterns, benefiting diversified and high-scale manufacturers.

In this context, India continues to emerge as a key strategic destination for global retailers and investors, supported by its large domestic market, new FTAs, improving manufacturing ecosystem, and growing capabilities in value-added and sustainable textile production.

2.2 Global Textile & Apparel Trade

In 2025, the global textile and apparel (T&A) trade is estimated at around US$ 900 billion, increased by 2% compared to last year. Despite several challenges in the global economy, the industry has demonstrated resilience with a marginal recovery. Going forward, demand across major markets is expected to strengthen, supporting future growth.

Apparel continues to dominate the sector, accounting for nearly 60% of total trade value in 2025, reflecting sustained global demand for finished garments.

Figure 4: Global T&A Trade (Value: US$ Bn)

From an export perspective, China retained its position as the largest global exporter, contributing US$ 291 billion in textile and apparel shipments, commanding a 32% share of global trade. The European Union (Extra EU-27) ranked second with an 8% share, valued at US$ 69 billion, followed by Vietnam at US$ 46 billion (5%), surpassing Bangladesh and India. Bangladesh and India followed closely with exports of US$ 40 billion and US$ 37 billion, respectively. Turkey, USA, and the rest of the world (RoW) contributed to the remaining global trade.

The industry is expected to maintain an upward trajectory in the coming years, with global trade projected to reach US$ 1,200 billion by 2030.

USA Imports

In 2025, the USA's total textile and apparel imports declined to US$ 108 billion from US$ 113 billion in 2024, reflecting the impact of higher tariffs and subdued demand. While China remained the largest supplier, its exports to the US dropped sharply from US$ 28 billion to US$ 19 billion, indicating continued supply chain diversification. In contrast, Vietnam further strengthened its position, with exports rising from US$ 16 billion to US$ 18 billion, emerging as a key alternative sourcing hub. India recorded stable performance at around US$ 10 billion, while Bangladesh witnessed a modest increase from US$ 7 billion to US$ 8 billion. Other sourcing countries such as Cambodia and Pakistan also saw marginal growth, whereas imports from the EU and Mexico remained largely unchanged. Overall, the trend reflects a gradual shift in US sourcing away from China towards more diversified and competitive manufacturing destinations.

EU Imports

Compared to 2024, the EU's total T&A imports grew marginally from $131 billion to $138 billion in 2025. China retained its position as the dominant supplier, with exports rising from $41 billion to $43 billion. Bangladesh consolidated its standing as the second-largest supplier, with exports increasing from $20 billion to $22 billion. Turkey remained flat at $15 billion. India maintained exports at $7 billion in 2024, edging up to $8 billion in 2025, with its position expected to strengthen over the medium term following the conclusion of the India-EU FTA in January 2026, which, once ratified and in force, will eliminate tariffs on a significant portion of T&A exports. Pakistan recorded a notable increase from $7 billion to $8 billion, narrowing the gap with India. Vietnam grew from $5 billion to $6 billion, while Cambodia rose from $4 billion to $5 billion. Smaller suppliers including Morocco, Tunisia, and Myanmar remained broadly unchanged at $3 billion, $3 billion, and $2 billion respectively. Overall, EU import trends reflect a stable sourcing pattern with incremental diversification, though the FTA's entry into force could meaningfully shift India's competitive positioning against GSP-beneficiary peers.

2.3 Indian Textile and Apparel Industry

India’s textile and apparel market is estimated to be worth US$ 194 billion in 2025-26. This market has demonstrated consistent growth over time, driven primarily by strong domestic demand. The industry is largely driven by the domestic market, which accounts for US$ 157 billion (81%), while exports contribute US$ 37 billion (19%), indicating a strong internal consumption base alongside a significant export presence.

Within the domestic segment, apparel dominates with US$ 115 billion, making it the largest contributor, supported by rising disposable income and increasing fashion consumption. Technical textiles form the second-largest segment at US$ 30 billion, reflecting growing demand across sectors such as healthcare, infrastructure, and automotive. Home textiles contribute US$ 12 billion, driven by steady demand in both urban and export-linked categories.

Although exports account for a relatively smaller share (US$ 37 billion) of India’s T&A market, they remain critical to its position as a global sourcing hub.

In recent times, the Iran-Israel-US conflict has significantly impacted India’s textile and apparel sector, creating pressures across logistics, input costs, and overall operations. Disruptions in key maritime routes, particularly the Red Sea and the Strait of Hormuz, have led to shipment rerouting, increasing transit times, and raising freight and insurance costs, thereby affecting exporters’ margins and delivery timelines. Concurrently, energy supply constraints have intensified the situation, as India’s LPG imports, of which majority pass through the Strait of Hormuz, have been disrupted. Overall, the industry is witnessing an additional cost burden due to war-related surcharges, adversely impacting global competitiveness.

2.4 India’s Domestic Market Scenario

Despite the global uncertainties & macro-economic challenges, India’s domestic market has shown resilience over the past few years. India’s domestic textile and apparel (T&A) market is estimated to US$ 157 billion in 2025-26, reflecting a growth of 7% compared to the previous year. Apparel dominates, contributing US$ 115 billion, while home textiles (US$ 12 billion) and technical textiles (US$ 30 billion) are steadily growing.

The domestic T&A market is expected to grow at a CAGR of 9% from 2025-26 onwards and reach US$250 billion by 2030-31. Technical textiles are expected to be the fastest-growing segment, reaching US$ 54 billion by 2030-31, while home textiles will expand to US$ 16 billion. With the GST 2.0 reforms effective September 22, 2025, the threshold for the concessional 5% GST rate on readymade garments was raised from ₹ 1,000 per piece to ₹ 2,500 per piece. This effectively expands affordable apparel access for middle- and lower-income households, the segment that drives volume in India's domestic market. Simultaneously, GST on man-made fiber was reduced from 18% to 5%, and on man-made yarns from 12% to 5% addressing a long-standing inverted duty structure that had suppressed margins across the MMF value chain. Together, these changes are expected to stimulate domestic consumption, improve manufacturing competitiveness for MMF-based apparel, and reduce working capital locked in unadjusted input tax credits.

Further, the extension of the PLI Scheme with revised, more accessible thresholds and PM MITRA's transition into mission mode are expected to catalyze fresh capital investment in textile manufacturing, expand domestic production capacity, and strengthen India's competitiveness across the value chain.

2.5 India's Exports Scenario

India's textile and apparel (T&A) exports have fluctuated over the years, reaching an estimated US$ 37 billion in 2025-26, remaining flat from US$ 35 billion in 2024-25. Apparel remains the largest export segment, contributing US$ 16 billion, followed by home textiles (US$ 6 billion), yarn (US$ 5 billion), and fabric (US$ 5 billion). Product diversification, FTA with major markets & government initiatives for exporters will play a vital role in sustaining growth in the coming years.

Figure 9: India's T&A Exports (Value US$ Bn)

2.6 India's Import Scenario

India's textile and apparel imports have grown 9% from 2024-25, reaching an estimated US$ 10.5 billion in 2025-26. Fiber holds the largest share of imports at approximately 25%, followed by fabric at 21%. A significant portion of these imports includes synthetic fiber, yarn, and fabric, which are not widely produced in India.

Additionally, easing import restrictions, such as the rescission of 14 QCOs on polyester intermediates, including PTA, MEG, POY, FDY, and PSF, in November 2025, rising domestic demand, and premiumization, along with supply gaps in specialized materials, are expected to drive higher imports in India.

3. Alok Business Segments

Alok Industries has a strong presence in both the Cotton and Polyester segments. In the Cotton segment, the Company is integrated from spinning to weaving, processing, finished fabrics, bedsheets, towels and garments. In case of polyester, the company is integrated, starting from a continuous polymerization plant to the production of chips, POY, FDY, DTY, and PSF.

The Company's vertically integrated facilities and flexibility of operations enable it to produce cotton and cotton-blended fabrics in various counts and construction and a wide range of finishes. The Company's global-scale integrated plants, modern manufacturing flexibility, product development team and competent marketing force facilitate a deep understanding of customer needs and their satisfactory fulfilment.

The Company has a large customer base comprising of domestic and overseas retailers, brands, and garment exporters in India and converter countries

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

(countries which primarily do garment manufacturing like Bangladesh, Vietnam, Sri Lanka) who are vendors to major international labels. This product, customer and market diversification enables risk mitigation and places the Company at a competitive advantage over other players in the industry. Alok has also ensured that its target market is a diverse mix of the international market, garment export trade and domestic market.

The company operates under the following four divisions:

- Spinning Division
- Polyester Division
- Home Textiles Division
- Apparel & Fabric Division

3.1. Spinning Business Outlook

India's yarn exports decreased by 9% year-on-year in FY-26 (10 Months), standing at US$ 4.0 billion. During the year, domestic cotton prices traded above global benchmarks through much of FY26, driven by a production shortfall and an increase in MSP. The temporary import duty exemption from August to December 2025 provided interim relief. Global geopolitical developments have also contributed to supply chain uncertainty and price volatility in cotton markets during the year. In the future, large-scale and integrated spinning units will be more competitive in export markets.

Bangladesh, a significant buyer of Indian cotton yarn, has seen procurement volumes weaken following the political instability since August 2024. This has moderated near-term yarn export demand from one of India's main off-take markets. However, the same instability has prompted global apparel brands to accelerate supply chain diversification away from Bangladesh, a structural shift that favors large, integrated Indian manufacturers.

Source: Emerging Textiles

Further, India's cotton output is projected to decline by 1.7% in cotton year 2026 (October 2025–September 2026), reaching 29.2 million bales, its lowest level in the past decade.

Alok, a key player in the Indian spinning industry, is known for its large scale, advanced infrastructure and strong emphasis on research and product development. Its spinning facilities are in Silvassa, with a significant portion of its yarn, approximately 55% to 60%, being internally consumed across its woven fabrics, knitted fabrics, bedding, and terry towel divisions. This positions the company to absorb margin pressure that standalone spinners cannot, and to benefit disproportionately when the cotton cost differential normalizes.

3.2. Polyester Business Outlook

India's polyester exports declined sharply by 27% in FY-26 (10 Months), with total shipments falling to around US$ 0.7 billion, comprising nearly US$ 0.5 billion of filament yarn and US$ 0.2 billion of polyester staple fiber. A significant portion of polyester production is increasingly being absorbed within the domestic market, supported by strong growth in end-use segments. Additionally, India is gradually moving up the value chain, with a higher share of polyester used in the production of finished textiles and garments for export, rather than being exported as fiber or yarn.

The removal of QCOs on polyester imports has reduced compliance costs across the sector and lowered entry barriers for smaller players. In addition to this, rising crude oil prices, partly influenced by geopolitical developments, have led to an increase of ~20% in polyester prices, which may add to cost pressures in the near term.

However, looking forward, increase demand in active wear and Government focused initiatives on synthetic segment such as the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme are further expected to strengthen India's position in the global market.

However, the Company has shifted its major polyester business to Manufacturing Capacity Booking (Job-work model) from March 2024.

3.3. Home Textiles Business Outlook

India has emerged as a leading global player in home textiles, ranking second after China with an estimated ~11% share in global trade. India's home textile exports stood at around US$ 6.5 billion in FY-26 (10 Months), registering a decline of 5% YoY due to the challenges in global market such as, soft demand in key markets like the US and EU due to inflationary pressures, inventory corrections by global retailers, higher tariff impacts in the US, and geopolitical uncertainties affecting trade flows and logistics costs.

However, India has a strong and rapidly growing domestic market for home textiles, supported by rising incomes, urbanization, and increasing demand for lifestyle and home improvement products.

The major export market for home textile products for Alok is USA, which is the largest consuming Centre for home products in the world. India's home textile exports to the US have grown by 5% over the past five years, and with ongoing bilateral trade agreements expected to favor India, the country is well positioned to further strengthen its share in the US market.

Additionally, the EU-India Free Trade Agreement once implemented, the Company is well-positioned to capitalize on significant growth opportunities in the EU, which is the second-largest market for home textiles.

Looking ahead, the outlook for the segment remains positive. Growth will be driven by India's new FTAs with EU and UK, increasing demand for sustainable and certified products, rising preference for value-added and design-led offerings, and expansion into newer markets beyond traditional regions. India's strong manufacturing ecosystem, characterized by large, integrated players, availability of raw materials, and improving compliance standards, positions it well to capitalize on these opportunities. Furthermore, supply chain diversification by global brands, coupled with cost competitiveness, increasing focus on innovation, branding, and faster turnaround capabilities, will play a crucial role in driving future growth in home textile exports.

Alok is one of the largest home textiles manufacturers/exporters in India and has a large capacity of manufacturing in bedding as well as terry towel. Its weaving manufacturing facility & major stitching unit for bedding is at Silvassa and fabric processing is at Vapi. The entire terry-towel manufacturing is at Vapi.

3.4. Fabrics & Apparel Business Outlook

In FY26 (10 months), India's fabric exports grew ~5% YoY to US$ 3.9 billion, despite challenging global conditions such as higher tariffs on exports to the US, ongoing geopolitical tensions, and subdued demand in key markets. This growth is primarily driven by an 8.4% increase in woven fabric exports, while knitted fabric exports remained largely stagnant. This trend is mainly due to stronger global demand for woven fabrics used in home textiles and structured apparel, which have seen more stable consumption compared to knitted fabrics linked to discretionary fashion segments facing slower recovery and inventory corrections in the US and EU. Additionally, India's competitive strength in cotton-based woven fabrics, supported by rising preference for natural fibers and shifting sourcing strategy, has further boosted woven exports.

India's apparel exports also witnessed a recovery in FY-26 (10 Months), increasing by 2% YoY to US$ 13.2 billion. The shift in sourcing strategies and potentially lower US tariff compared to Bangladesh has created a significant opportunity for India to strengthen its position as a key apparel exporter. Further, Bangladesh is set to officially graduate from Least Developed Country (LDC) status on November 24, 2026, which will make India competitive. This advantage is further reinforced by India's recently concluded Free Trade Agreements (FTAs) with key markets such as the UK and the EU, which are expected to enhance duty competitiveness and improve market access.

Looking ahead, as global demand continues to recover, India is well-positioned to expand its export footprint. In addition to exports, the domestic apparel market presents a strong growth opportunity, projected to grow at a CAGR of ~9% to reach US$ 180 billion by 2030, up from the current level of US$ 115 billion, driven by rising incomes, urbanization, recent GST rationalization, and evolving consumer preferences.

3.5. Embroidery Business Outlook

The global embroidery market is projected to grow at a CAGR of ~5% through 2030, driven by rising demand for personalised, design-led products across apparel, home décor, and occasion wear. Technological advancements, including digital and computer-aided embroidery machines, are improving production efficiency and enabling faster design turnaround, which is reshaping competitive dynamics in favour of automated, large-scale manufacturers. However, the export segment faced meaningful headwinds in FY26, as embroidery, being a discretionary and fashion-linked product, was disproportionately impacted by subdued consumer sentiment in the US and EU, inventory destocking by global retailers, and demand contraction in the fashion and occasion wear segments.

Alok's embroidery business is located at Silvassa and caters to both domestic garment manufacturers and export markets. The business witnessed a decline of ~39% in FY26, reflecting both the broader demand slowdown and the impact of elevated US tariffs on value-added textile exports. As a fashion-driven segment, embroidery revenue is inherently cyclical and closely correlated with consumer spending trends in key markets.

Looking ahead, the demand outlook is expected to recover gradually as inflationary pressures ease in the US and EU and consumer discretionary spending stabilises. The domestic market presents a more immediate growth opportunity, with rising demand for embroidered fabrics in occasion wear, ethnic fashion, and the growing organised retail and D2C channels. The Company's automated embroidery infrastructure positions it to respond quickly to design trends and scale volumes as order momentum recovers in FY27.

3.6. Sustainability as the Key Pillar

The inclusion of textiles among obligated sectors under India's Carbon Credit Trading Scheme, the expansion of SEBI's BRSR Core reporting to the top 500 listed companies, and the advancement of EU regulations including the Digital Product Passport and textile EPR requirements collectively signal that sustainability compliance is transitioning from voluntary to mandatory. These developments favor manufacturers with existing investments in emissions monitoring, traceability systems, and ESG reporting infrastructure.

Alok Industries has elevated sustainability from a compliance requirement to a core strategic priority, driving a comprehensive transformation across its value chain centred on circularity, renewable energy, and resource efficiency.

During the year, Alok accelerated its transition toward high-performance, sustainable fiber by leveraging Reliance Industries Limited's advanced Recron technologies, including Kooltex and Green Gold, enabling a strategic shift in its product portfolio toward technical home textiles and specialized blends.

4. Financial Performance (Standalone)

During FY26, market conditions remained challenging across product segments. The ongoing conflicts in the Middle East and the Russia-Ukraine situation continued to disrupt global textile trade flows and suppress demand in key export markets. Additionally, the imposition of US reciprocal tariffs, escalating to 50% on Indian textile exports from August 2025, directly impacted the Company's export realizations, particularly in home textiles and fabrics where the US is the primary market. Export sales declined during the year on account of these combined pressures. A significant portion of the Company's domestic sales serve as inputs to end-product exporters, making the business sensitive to broader export ecosystem conditions. The Company continued to operate its polyester business under the job work model adopted in March 2024.

The Embroidery business decreased by around 39% in FY 26. Apparel Woven Fabric witnessed a growth of around 31% in the sales revenue as compared to the previous year. The overall sales revenue in Apparel Fabric business increased by around 19%.

The local sales increased to ₹ 2813.02 crores in FY 25-26 from ₹ 2,712.72 crores in FY 24-25 and export sales declined from ₹ 843.87 crores in FY 24-25 to ₹ 712.28 crores in FY 25-26.

The Company reported a positive EBITDA of ₹ 78.93 crores in FY26 as compared to EBITDA of ₹ 136.69 crores in FY25.

Profit and Loss Analysis

- Net Sales for the year were ₹ 3,525.30 crore comprising of domestic sales of ₹ 2,813.02 crore and export sales of ₹ 712.28 crore (previous year sales ₹ 3556.59 crore: domestic ₹ 2712.72 crore and export ₹ 843.87 crore). The sales during the year decreased by -0.88% over the previous year due to the continued downturn witnessed by major economies of the World due to adverse geopolitical conditions. The domestic sales increased by 3.70% as compared to previous year whereas Export sales saw a contraction of 15.59%.
- Operating PBT and PAT The Profit Before Tax for the year was a loss of ₹ 779.81 crore as compared to loss of ₹ 768.81 crore in the previous year. Since there was no provision for Tax in both the years, the Profit After Tax for the year also was loss of ₹ 779.81 crore as compared to loss of ₹ 768.81 crore in the previous year.
- Other Comprehensive Income for the year of profit was ₹ 6.70 crore as compared to loss of ₹ 0.79 crore in the previous year.
- Net (Loss) / Profit After Other Comprehensive Income was a loss of ₹ 773.11 crore in the current year against a loss of ₹ 768.02 crore in the previous period.

Comments on Ratios:

- Debtors Turnover Days: Debtor turnover days at 32 days reduced during the year as compared to previous year debtor turnover days of 43 days. In absolute terms, debtors as on March 31, 2026 reduced to ₹ 304 crore as compared to ₹ 422 crore as on March 31, 2025.
- Inventory Turnover Days: Inventory turnover days at 82 days increased during the current year as compared inventory turnover days of 81 days in the previous year. In absolute terms inventory increased to ₹ 791 crore as compared to ₹ 787 crore in the previous year.
- Interest Coverage Ratio: Our interest outgo for the year was ₹ 600 crore (previous year interest ₹ 613 crore). Based on EBITDA for the year before exceptional items and provisions of ₹ 60 crore (previous year ₹ 56 crore), the interest coverage ratio is 0.13, as compared to 0.09 times in the previous year.
- Current Ratio: The current ratio for FY 26 was 0.72 times as compared to 1.34 times in the previous year. The total current assets for the year were ₹ 1219 crore (previous year ₹ 1384 crore). The installment of term loan due within a year is 218.75 crore (₹ 43.75 in the previous year). The current liabilities for the year increased to ₹ 1702 crore, including term loan due within a year, (₹ 1033 crore in the previous year).
- Debt/ Equity Ratio: The Net worth of the Company in FY 26 was negative at ₹ 19676 crore (Previous year negative net worth of ₹ 18903 crore). The rise in negative net worth during the year was due to a loss of ₹ 773 crore (previous year loss of ₹ 768 crore). The outside long-term debt of the Company as on March 31, 2026 net of cash and balances was ₹ 3440 crore (Previous year ₹ 3447 crore). The Debt/ Equity ratio for the year was negative 0.17 as compared to negative 0.18 in the previous year.

- Quasi- Debt/ Equity Ratio: The quasi net- worth of the Company as on March 31, 2026 was ₹ 1252 crore (previous year 2024 crore). The same is arrived at by adding ₹ 17,384 crore (previous year ₹ 17,384 crore) interest free long-term loans from the promoters and long-term preference shares of ₹ 3544 crore (Previous year ₹ 3543 crore) subscribed by the promoters to the equity & reserves. Based on this, the quasi debt/ equity ratio as on March 31, 2026 was 2.75 as compared to 1.70 as on 31 March 2025.
- Operating EBITDA before considering Provisioning: Operating Earnings before Interest, Depreciation, Tax and Amortization (EBITDA) without considering provisions for the year was profit of ₹ 80.02 crore which is 2.27% to sales (previous year ₹ 56.31 crore 1.58% to sales).
- Operating EBITDA after considering Provisioning and exceptional gains: Operating Earnings before Interest, Depreciation, Tax and Amortization (EBITDA) for the year is profit of ₹ 78.93 crore (previous year ₹ 136.69 crore) after considering provisioning of ₹ 31.88 crores (previous year provisioning of ₹ 13.76 crore) and an exceptional gain of ₹ 30.79 (previous year 94.14). As a percentage of sales, operating EBITDA is at 2.24% (previous year positive 3.84%).
- Net (Loss) / Profit After Tax: Net Loss After Tax is ₹ 779.81 crore in the current year (previous year net loss of ₹ 768.81 crore). The loss is due to depreciation for the year of ₹ 258.65 crore (previous year ₹ 292.04 crore) and interest cost of ₹ 600.09 crore (previous year ₹ 613.46 crore). The Net profit Margin for the year is negative 22.12% as compared to negative 21.62% in the previous year.

Aarambh: Building the Next Generation Talent Pipeline

To strengthen the future leadership pipeline, the Company launched “Aarambh” – Cadre Development Program, a structured initiative aimed at attracting and developing young talent.

Campus hiring drives were conducted across more than 15 reputed institutes, resulting in the onboarding of over 80 trainees across engineering, management, and finance disciplines.

Program Highlights

- Robust selection process including psychometric assessments and structured interviews
- Deployment across functions and locations for holistic exposure
- Structured 12-month development journey combining classroom, on-the-job, and digital learning
- Mid-term “Potential Readiness & Review” with targeted development interventions

Digital HR & Data-Driven Transformation

The Company continued to strengthen its HR digital ecosystem to enhance efficiency, transparency, and decision-making capabilities. The upgraded PeopleFirst platform has enabled end-to-end digitization of employee lifecycle processes, improving accessibility and service delivery.

With increasing adoption of digital platforms, HR analytics and data-driven insights are being leveraged to support workforce planning, performance tracking, and talent development decisions. These initiatives are contributing towards building a more agile, responsive, and future-ready HR function.

A key milestone during the year was the upgrade of the PeopleFirst platform, enabling seamless access to HR services through an integrated employee self-service system.

Key Outcomes

- Centralized platform for leave, payroll, tax declarations, and employee records
- Enhanced transparency and faster service delivery
- Reduced manual interventions and improved process efficiency

Additionally, the introduction of the “Choice Pay” system empowered employees to structure their compensation flexibly, enabling better tax optimization and personalized financial planning.

Performance, Rewards & Recognition

The Company continued to strengthen its Performance Management System (PMS) by integrating performance-linked incentives and recognition frameworks.

Focused initiatives were undertaken to reward high-performing employees and drive a culture of accountability and excellence, particularly across manufacturing operations.

Key Initiatives

- Performance-linked incentive structures
- Reward & Recognition programs for plant employees
- Recognition for highest production in spinning units
- Continuous engagement with shop-floor workforce

Driving Productivity and Shopfloor Excellence

Given the scale and nature of operations, the Company continued to place strong emphasis on improving workforce productivity and operational efficiency across manufacturing units. Focused interventions were undertaken to enhance output, optimize manpower utilization, and strengthen shopfloor discipline.

Regular engagement with shopfloor employees, structured feedback mechanisms, and recognition for production excellence have contributed to improved morale and performance orientation. Initiatives aimed at throughout improvement, cycle time optimization, and execution excellence were further reinforced during the year, aligning workforce efforts with business outcomes.

Industrial Relations

The Company continues to maintain harmonious and stable industrial relations across all its manufacturing locations. Through continuous engagement, transparent communication, and structured grievance redressal mechanisms, the Company has fostered an environment of trust and mutual respect between management and workforce.

Regular forums for interaction, including shopfloor connect sessions and employee engagement platforms, have enabled effective resolution of concerns and strengthened workforce alignment with organizational goals. The stable industrial relations climate has supported uninterrupted operations and improved productivity across locations.

Governance, Compliance and Ethical Workplace

The Company remains committed to upholding the highest standards of governance, transparency, and ethical conduct across all HR practices. Policies and processes are continuously reviewed to ensure alignment with regulatory requirements and industry best practices.

The Company continues to reinforce awareness on Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH), workplace ethics, and employee conduct through regular training and communication initiatives. These efforts ensure a safe, inclusive, and respectful workplace for all employees.

Employee Engagement & Workplace Culture

Employee engagement remained a key priority, with a wide range of initiatives aimed at fostering a positive and inclusive workplace culture.

Key Engagement Initiatives

- Celebration of national events: Republic Day, Independence Day, Gandhi Jayanti (Shramdaan Day)
- Festival celebrations: Holi, Ganpati, Navratri, Diwali
- International Yoga Day and wellness initiatives
- POSH awareness programs promoting safe workplaces
- Fire & Safety Week and workplace safety sessions

- "Gift of Joy" donation drive for underprivileged children
- Employee connect platforms such as "Mann Ki Baat" and shop-floor interactions

These initiatives have strengthened employee connect, improved morale, and fostered a strong sense of belonging across the organization.

Employer Branding & External Engagement (Digital & Industry Platforms)

During FY 2025–2026, Alok Industries continued to strengthen its employer brand and corporate visibility through active engagement on digital platforms, particularly LinkedIn. These platforms were leveraged to showcase the Company's people practices, innovation capabilities, sustainability initiatives, and industry participation, reinforcing its positioning as a progressive and future-ready textile organization.

The Company's communication highlighted a strong focus on innovation, sustainability, and talent development, aligned with its internal priorities. Participation in platforms such as Bharat Tex and international exhibitions enabled Alok Industries to showcase its integrated "Fibre to Fashion" capabilities and commitment to responsible manufacturing.

A key theme across communications was sustainable innovation, including eco-friendly textiles such as recycled polyester and organic materials, reflecting the Company's commitment to circular economy principles. From a people perspective, structured onboarding and cadre development initiatives, including Graduate Engineer and management trainee programs, were highlighted as part of a long-term talent pipeline strategy.

The Company also emphasized collaboration and ecosystem partnerships to strengthen the textile value chain and promote Indian textiles globally. Its communication consistently reflected a culture of growth, transformation, and collective success, enhancing brand recall, talent attraction, and stakeholder engagement.

Conclusion: Strengthening People, Systems, and Culture

The HR initiatives undertaken during FY 2025–2026 reflect Alok Industries' continued commitment to building a resilient, agile, and future-ready organization. By investing in people, strengthening systems, and fostering a high-performance culture, the Company is well-positioned to support its long-term growth ambitions.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

SUSTAINABLE BUSINESS PRACTICES AND CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY (CSR)

Commitment to Sustainable Growth

Alok Industries Limited remains committed to integrating sustainability into its core business strategy. The Company continues to advance environmentally responsible practices while contributing meaningfully to community development.

Guided by its core values of Environment, Health, Safety, Society, and Sustainability, Alok Industries has strengthened its focus on resource efficiency, circular economy practices, and responsible manufacturing.

Environmental Sustainability Initiatives

During FY 2025–2026, the Company undertook several initiatives aimed at reducing environmental impact and improving resource efficiency.

Key Sustainability Highlights

- Strengthened waste management systems to enhance recycling and reuse
- Continued focus on water recycling and conservation through advanced treatment systems
- Improved energy efficiency through process optimization, focused energy conservation initiatives, and effective project management, leading to a reduction in overall energy intensity
- Strengthened resource optimization across operations by enhancing efficiency in steam, power, compressed air, and fuel consumption

Decarbonisation and Circular Economy Focus

The Company continues to align its operations with long-term sustainability goals, including reduction in carbon intensity, improvement in energy efficiency, and expansion of eco-friendly product offerings.

Sustainability considerations are increasingly being integrated into product design, raw material sourcing, and manufacturing processes, enabling the Company to create long-term value for stakeholders.

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR): Community Impact

Alok Industries remains committed to driving inclusive growth and community development through focused CSR initiatives.

Key CSR Initiatives

- Women Empowerment: Training and livelihood opportunities in tailoring and garment manufacturing through self-help groups.
- Skill Development: Vocational training programs to enhance employability of youth in textile-related skills.
- Healthcare Support: Continued support towards healthcare infrastructure, including dialysis facilities and community health initiatives.

These initiatives are primarily focused on communities around the Company's manufacturing locations, ensuring sustainable and inclusive development.

Conclusion: Responsible Growth and Shared Value

Through its integrated approach to sustainability and CSR, Alok Industries continues to create a positive impact on the environment and society. The Company remains committed to responsible growth by balancing economic performance with environmental stewardship and social responsibility.

Risks & Risk Mitigation

RISK ASSOCIATED WITH THE COMPANY:

The Company is exposed to various risks which include factors such as rising competition in the market on the domestic and export fronts, duty free access to competing countries in US and European markets, uncertain business environment including conflict between Russia and Ukraine, rupee fluctuation, volatility in raw material prices and its availability, slowdown in demand and change in fashion trends, possibility of increase in interest rates, etc. Besides this the Company is also exposed to factors such as the change in government policies, duties & taxes, availability of power from the grid, availability of labour etc. The Company tries to mitigate these risks by taking quick actions and proactive initiatives to minimize the impact of these risks to the extent possible. Some of these threats are given below:

Raw material related Risk:

Raw material being a major cost of production, Company's operations and profitability are significantly dependent on price and timely availability of raw materials used in production process. The primary raw materials for our textile operations are raw cotton. The Company also buys cotton yarn, polyester yarn and fabrics of specifications required by customers which are not produced in its plants or in case the internal capacities are not available.

Cotton:

Being an agricultural commodity, prices of cotton are affected by a range of factors like changes in weather conditions affecting sowing, government policies and regulations. Governing taxes, tariffs, duties, subsidies, import and export restrictions on agricultural commodities, overall supply situation in the world, etc. all these influence pricing and demand supply situation in this industry. The planting of certain crops versus other uses of agricultural resources, the location and size of crop production, volume and types of imports and exports, etc. determine availability of cotton.

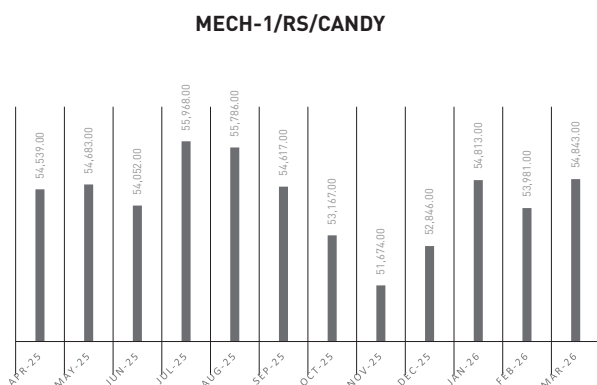

As given in the chart below, the cotton remained lower than ₹ 60,000 per candy touching a low of around ₹ 51,674 in

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Nov. 25 from a level of around ₹ 55,968 in July'25. The year end prices were around ₹ 55,000.

We expect the prices of cotton to remain range bound between ₹ 55,000 – ₹ 60,000 per candy in FY 2027.

The Company has an experienced team for procurement of raw cotton with a deep understanding of this natural fibre. As a Company, we have adopted various processes whereby we are expanding our sources across different supply chain intermediaries and other stake holders. Cotton being an international commodity, our focus remains optimizing domestic and international opportunities to create a competitive edge of sourcing based on landed cost.

Market related Risk:

The Company's performance is dependent upon the demand situation in individual business segments. A slowdown in demand may lead to decline in production/ sales and thus impact profitability. The value-added segments of Apparel Fabrics and to some extent Home Textiles, are also subject to trends in fashion and consumer demand. Moreover, major international incidents such as Russia-Ukraine and Israel and Gaza / Iran conflicts also impact the demand not only from the impacted economies but also the major global markets.

The USA reciprocal tariff regime, which escalated to 50% on Indian textile exports from August 2025, had a direct and material impact on the Company's export realizations through H2 FY26. However, policy uncertainty around the final Bilateral Trade Agreement remains a risk, and any adverse revision could again affect export demand and pricing for the Company's home textile and fabric businesses.

The Company's products are sold in both domestic as well as exports markets. While the company's major sales are in domestic market (about 75%- 80%), exports are also expected to remain a sizeable part (about 20%- 25%) of the Company's revenues. India's competitive position in the US home textiles market faced particular pressure through FY26, as competing suppliers, notably Pakistan, Bangladesh, and Vietnam, operated at lower effective tariff rates during the period of elevated US duties on Indian goods. Pakistan, a direct competitor in cotton bedding and terry towels, benefited from a significantly lower tariff differential for most of FY26. The Company remains exposed to shifts in relative tariff positioning across competing supplier nations, which can rapidly redirect buyer sourcing decisions.

The Company's exports markets, predominantly USA, Europe, and Asia, are very competitive with high emphasis on timely delivery. Ongoing disruptions to Red Sea shipping routes, driven by the Houthi conflict in Yemen since late 2023, have continued to affect freight costs and transit times on key India-to-USA and India-to-Europe trade lanes through FY26. Elevated freight rates and extended lead times present a direct operational risk for the Company's export business, where reliability of supply and on-time delivery are critical to maintaining buyer relationships. The Company monitors freight market conditions and works with logistics partners to mitigate disruption, though a sustained escalation in shipping costs could impact export margin realizations. All the products of the Company are getting exported. Home textiles (bedding and towels) are the major chunk of the Company's exports constituting about 55% of the total exports.

Ability to develop products as demanded by customers and new designs development capability are critical factors for exports markets. The Company has been so far successful in meeting these demands over the years and has also won several export awards in the past instituted by the Government and Export Promotion Councils.

India no longer enjoys preferred market access in terms of concessional import duties in major exporting countries like USA & Europe. The Company is progressively widening its markets with increasing focus on Asia and some countries in Africa to mitigate the challenges that are likely to arise in the developed markets. The Company has been able to retain key customers in USA and Europe, albeit with lower volumes. Now with completion of the necessary maintenance of its plants, the Company is confident of bringing into its fold, customers who have moved away in the last few years, given the quality of the products and capacity to supply large volumes consistently.

In the domestic market as well, the Company faces competition from organized big players and the unorganized small and fragmented players. The Company has developed a good reputation amongst the domestic traders, garment manufacturers and brands due to quality, design capabilities and cost. Further, the Company has started building relationships with large retailers (physical and online) to supply fabrics and garments. The Company's operations are now getting scaled up and it is fully prepared to meet larger volumes. The Company is confident that it would regain a preferred supplier status for big brands and retailers given the quality, design capability and the capacity to provide large volumes on a consistent basis.

Financial Risk:

The company must meet its financial obligations on time. The Company has an outstanding term loan from banks of ₹ 3,456.26 crores and working capital limits of ₹ 300 crores as on March 31, 2026. The Company is required to meet the interest obligation on these loans periodically and also has to meet the repayment of term loan as per the terms of sanction. Moreover, the Company's loans are linked to MCLR of the sanctioning banks. Any increase in MCLR would lead to increase in interest rate for the Company on its borrowing.

The Company's present rating is AA+ stable (by CARE) which denotes high level of certainty of meeting debt obligations.

Information Technology Risks :

Information Technology (IT) serves as the backbone of the Company's operations, enabling critical business processes, data management, and advanced analytics. Given its strategic importance, IT risk remains a key focus area, and the Company continues to undertake initiatives to strengthen its technology landscape and mitigate associated risks.

The Company has successfully implemented a new instance of SAP within a modernized technology landscape, replacing the earlier obsolete and unsupported system that had been in operation since 2007. The new system went live on September 1, 2023, while historical transactions prior to this date continue to reside in the legacy environment. The following core modules have been implemented and are functioning smoothly:

- Sales and Distribution
- Materials Management

- Finance and Controlling
- Production Planning
- Quality Management
- Plant Maintenance
- Logistics and Extended Warehouse Management (EWM)

The Human Capital Management (HCM) module and Employee Self-Service (ESS) were successfully rolled out on April 1, 2024 and operated efficiently.

The legacy SAP instance, containing data from April 2007 to August 2023, has been migrated from end-of-support hardware to a new and secure infrastructure. Both the legacy and current systems are hosted at a highly secure data center of Reliance Industries Limited, supported by a robust and fully functional Disaster Recovery (DR) setup. The current IT landscape is designed to achieve near-zero Recovery Time Objective (RTO) and Recovery Point Objective (RPO), ensuring minimal downtime and negligible data loss.

Cybersecurity remains a critical priority. The Company continuously enhances its security architecture to safeguard systems against evolving threats, under the guidance of the IRM – Governance & Risk Management function of Reliance Industries Limited. Access to IT infrastructure, including servers, workstations, and network devices—is tightly controlled, continuously monitored, and regularly reviewed.

Secure remote working capabilities have been enabled through controlled access channels using Virtual Private Network (VPN), ensuring safe and reliable access to corporate systems from remote locations.

During the financial year, the Company implemented several key improvements which are functioning efficiently:

- Replacement of outdated IT systems with modern, secure infrastructure
- Strengthening and hardening of network architecture to mitigate security risks
- Implementation of Multi-Factor Authentication (MFA) and MAC address binding, where applicable
- Deployment of enhanced password management systems across applications and devices
- Continuous optimization of network bandwidth to ensure seamless connectivity across locations
- Completion of external IT General Controls (ITGC) audit

by Ernst & Young for FY 2024–25; audit for FY 2025–26 is currently in progress.

Currency Risk

During FY26, the Indian Rupee depreciated approximately ~7% against the US Dollar, providing a partial tailwind on export realizations in rupee terms. The Company is subject to currency exposure risk given its significant size of exports. The company's imports are much lower as compared to its exports and thus as far as foreign currency payments are concerned, the company has a natural hedge. The Company has been sanctioned a limit to hedge the currency exposure on export receivables and covers exports to the extent needed to cover open risk (net). The Company also has in place a hedging policy to mitigate currency risks. The currency risk is thus adequately mitigated.

Government Policies:

The company's business also gets impacted by government policies like policies relating to export and import of certain products, change in customs duty structure, change in export incentives, change in GST rates, etc. For example, the cotton import duty exemption granted from August to December 2025, while providing temporary relief to spinning mills, was a short-term measure and its non-renewal continues to expose domestic spinners to global-domestic price differentials. The withdrawal of the Anti-Dumping Duty on certain polyester imports has intensified competitive pressure in the synthetic segment. On the positive side, the PM MITRA Textile Parks scheme and continued PLI allocations for MMF and technical textiles signal long-term policy support for integrated manufacturers. The evolving US-India Bilateral Trade Agreement, if concluded favorably, could materially improve duty competitiveness for the Company's home textile exports to the US, its largest export market. Similarly, other government policies such as policies relating to labor etc. also have their impact in overall competitiveness of the Company as compared to the competing countries in the international markets. The Company monitors the changes in government policies on day-to-day basis and forms appropriate strategies to mitigate the impact on the Company while ensuring adequate compliances.

Outlook

The macroeconomic environment is showing gradual improvement. Inflationary pressures in the US, EU, and UK have eased, supporting a cautious recovery in consumer demand across the Company's key export markets. Input cost dynamics remain a key variable for FY27 amid global macroeconomic situation. The US-India bilateral trade agreement negotiations are ongoing, which if finalized, will improve the Company's export competitiveness in the US market, its single largest export destination. Bangladesh's scheduled graduation from LDC status in November 2026 is expected to further level the competitive field in EU and UK markets. Domestically, rising incomes, urbanization, and GST rationalization continue to support demand growth. We, therefore, expect overall market situation to improve in FY 2027 and with the gradual revival of demand, our operating rates of the downstream businesses is expected to improve during the year. This along with several measures undertaken by the Company to improve quality, sales realization and cost reduction are expected to yield positive results during the year. The strong support from our promoters RIL is also to be considered as an important factor for our solidity. We therefore look at the future optimistically.

Internal Control and Adequacy

The Company has in place a well-established framework of internal control systems which are commensurate with the size and complexity of its business. The Company has an independent internal audit function covering major areas of operations and the same is carried out by an external Chartered Accountant firm engaged for this purpose.

I have examined the compliance of Corporate Governance by Alok Industries Limited ('the Company') for the financial year ended 31st March, 2026, as stipulated in the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ('SEBI Listing Regulations') as referred to in Regulation 15(2) of the SEBI Listing Regulations for the financial year ended 31st March, 2026.

The compliance of conditions of Corporate Governance is the responsibility of the Company's Management. My examination has been limited to a review of the procedures and implementations thereof, adopted by the Company for ensuring the Compliance with the conditions of Corporate Governance as stipulated in the SEBI Listing Regulations. It is neither an audit nor an expression of Corporate Governance as stipulated in the SEBI Listing Regulations, as applicable.

In my opinion and to the best of my information and according to the explanation given to me and based on the representations made by the Management, I certify that the Company has complied with the conditions of Corporate Governance as stipulated in the SEBI Listing Regulations, as applicable.

I further state that such compliance is neither an assurance to the future viability of the Company nor of the efficiency or effectiveness with which the management has conducted the affairs of the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT on Standalone Financial Statements

To the Members of Alok Industries Limited

We have audited the standalone financial statements of Alok Industries Limited ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance sheet as at March 31 2026, the Statement of Profit and Loss, including the statement of Other Comprehensive Income, the Cash Flow Statement and the Statement of Changes in Equity for the year then ended, and notes to the standalone financial statements, including a summary of material accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the standalone financial statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013, as amended ("the Act"), in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2026, its loss including other comprehensive loss, its cash flows and the changes in equity for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the standalone financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs), as specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the 'Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements' section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the 'Code of Ethics' issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the standalone financial statements.

Emphasis of Matter

We draw attention to Note 34 of the standalone financial statements in respect of the resolution plan approved by the National Company Law Tribunal vide its order dated March 8, 2019 under section 31(1) of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016. Based on the resolution plan, read with the legal opinion, the Company has accounted the assigned debt at cost, overriding the Indian Accounting Standards which would require the Company to recognize the assigned debt at its fair value and accordingly the imputed interest cost over the period of loan. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the standalone financial statements for the financial year ended March 31, 2026. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the standalone financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report. We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the standalone financial statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying standalone financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT on Standalone Financial Statements

Key audit matters	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
A. Recoverability of loan given to wholly owned subsidiary The Company had in earlier years given loan to Alok Infrastructure Limited (a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company or "AIL"). As at March 31, 2026, the outstanding balance of loan is ₹ 194.46 crores (net of impairment allowance of ₹ 1,178.53 crores). AIL does not have significant business operations and has made a profit of ₹ 27.28 crores for the year ended March 31, 2026, and has accumulated losses of ₹ 1,498.75 crores as on March 31, 2026. To assess the recoverability of the outstanding loan, the Company has considered the valuation of the AIL's investment properties / inventories performed by the subsidiary with the help of external valuation specialists and has accordingly assessed that there is no further impairment provision required for the year ended March 31, 2026. Considering the assumptions / judgment used in valuation under the sales comparison method of market approach / depreciation replacement cost method under cost approach, the same has been considered as a key audit matter. Refer Note 6 and 49 of the standalone financial statements.	Our audit procedures included the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Obtained and read the audited financial statements of Alok Infrastructure Limited for the year ended March 31, 2026. • Performed inquiry procedures with the auditors of Alok Infrastructure Limited and discussed the audit procedures performed by them on the valuation report issued by the external specialists in respect of the subsidiary's investment properties / inventories. • Assessed key valuation aspects of the investment properties / inventories along with sensitivity analysis of assumptions of Alok Infrastructure Limited by engaging internal valuation specialists. • We have reviewed and assessed the company's valuation methodology and assumptions around the key drivers of the cash flow forecasts used in determining the recoverable amount. • Assessed the disclosures made in the standalone financial statements.
B. Recoverability of carrying value of property, plant and equipment As at March 31, 2026, the Company has Property, plant and equipment of ₹ 4,518.29 crores. In earlier years consequent to the business plan approved by the re-constituted Board of Directors of the Company, the Company had through an external valuation specialist determined the value in use of property, plant and equipment and recorded an impairment provision of ₹ 7,970.63 crores in the books. Based on recent business developments and changes in economy, the Board has made required revisions to the business plan and has accordingly updated the value in use calculations using the discounted cash flow method with the help of an external valuation specialist. Based on the same, the Company has determined that there are no material adjustments required to the impairment allowance already recorded. The value in use is sensitive to changes in certain inputs / assumptions used for forecasting the discounted cash flow projections due to inherent uncertainty involved in these assumptions. Accordingly, the same has been considered as a key audit matter.	Our audit procedures included the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We obtained an understanding, evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of controls that the Company has in relation to impairment review processes. • We assessed the Company's valuation methodology applied in determining the recoverable amount. In making this assessment, we evaluated the competence and objectivity of Company's internal specialists involved in the process. • We assessed the assumptions around the key drivers of the cash flow forecasts including discount rates, expected growth rates and terminal growth rates used. • We discussed with the management changes in key drivers as compared to the previous year to evaluate the reasonableness of the inputs and assumptions used in the cash flow forecasts. • Assessed the disclosures made in the standalone financial statements.

We have determined that there are no other key audit matters to communicate in our report.

Other Information

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual report, but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether such other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, cash flows and changes in equity of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3) (i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT on Standalone Financial Statements

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements for the financial year ended March 31, 2026 and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Other Matter

The financial statements of the Company for the year ended March 31, 2025, were audited by the predecessor auditor vide their reports dated April 21, 2025, in which the predecessor auditor has expressed unmodified opinion. Our opinion on the standalone financial statements is not modified in respect of this matter

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

1. As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2020 ("the Order"), issued by the Central Government of India in terms of sub-section (11) of section 143 of the Act, we give in the "Annexure 1" a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 3 and 4 of the Order.
2. As required by Section 143(3) of the Act, we report, to the extent applicable, that:
 - (a) We have sought and obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit;
 - (b) In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as it appears from our examination of those books;
 - (c) The Balance Sheet, the Statement of Profit and Loss including the Statement of Other Comprehensive Income, the Cash Flow Statement and Statement of Changes in Equity dealt with by this Report are in agreement with the books of account;
 - (d) In our opinion, the aforesaid standalone financial statements comply with the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended;
 - (e) On the basis of the written representations received from the directors as on March 31, 2026 taken on record by the Board of Directors, none of the directors is disqualified as on March 31, 2026 from being appointed as a director in terms of Section 164 (2) of the Act;
 - (f) With respect to the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to the standalone financial statements and the operating effectiveness of such controls, refer to our separate Report in "Annexure 2" to this report;
 - (g) In our opinion, the managerial remuneration for the year ended March 31, 2026 has been paid/provided by the Company to its directors in accordance with the provisions of section 197 read with Schedule V to the Act;

- (h) With respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with Rule 11 of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014, as amended, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us:
- i. The Company has disclosed the impact of pending litigations on its financial position in its standalone financial statements – Refer Note 37 to the standalone financial statements;
 - ii. The Company has made provision, as required under the applicable law or accounting standards, for material foreseeable losses, if any, on long-term contracts including derivative contracts;
 - iii. There were no amounts which were required to be transferred to the Investor Education and Protection Fund by the Company;
 - iv.
 - a) The management has represented that, to the best of its knowledge and belief, other than as disclosed in the note 50 to the standalone financial statements, no funds have been advanced or loaned or invested (either from borrowed funds or share premium or any other sources or kind of funds) by the Company to or in any other person or entity, including foreign entities ("Intermediaries"), with the understanding, whether recorded in writing or otherwise, that the Intermediary shall, whether, directly or indirectly lend or invest in other persons or entities identified in any manner whatsoever by or on behalf of the Company ("Ultimate Beneficiaries") or provide any guarantee, security or the like on behalf of the Ultimate Beneficiaries;
 - b) The management has represented that, to the best of its knowledge and belief, other than as disclosed in the note 50 to the standalone financial statements, no funds have been received by the Company from any person or entity, including foreign entities ("Funding Parties"), with the understanding, whether recorded in writing or otherwise, that the Company shall, whether, directly or indirectly, lend or invest in other persons or entities identified in any manner whatsoever by or on behalf of the Funding Party ("Ultimate Beneficiaries") or provide any guarantee, security or the like on behalf of the Ultimate Beneficiaries; and
 - c) Based on such audit procedures performed that have been considered reasonable and appropriate in the circumstances, nothing has come to our notice that has caused us to believe that the representations under sub-clause (a) and (b) contain any material misstatement.
 - v. No dividend has been declared or paid during the year by the Company.
 - vi. Based on our examination which included test checks, the Company has used accounting software for maintaining its books of account which has a feature of recording audit trail (edit log) facility and the same has operated throughout the year for all relevant transactions recorded in the software (refer Note 51 to the financial statements). Further, during the course of our audit we did not come across any instance of audit trail feature being tampered with. Additionally, the audit trail has been preserved by the Company as per the statutory requirements for record retention.

ANNEXURE 1 TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT OF EVEN DATE ON THE STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF ALOK INDUSTRIES LIMITED

(Referred to in paragraph 1, under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' section of our Report of even date)

In terms of the information and explanations sought by us and given by the Company and the books of account and records examined by us in the normal course of audit and to the best of our knowledge and belief, we state that:

- i. (a) (A) The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars, including quantitative details and situation of Property, Plant and Equipment.
 - (B) The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars of intangible assets.
- (b) Property, Plant and Equipment have been physically verified by the management during the year in accordance with a planned programme of verifying them once in three years which is reasonable having regard to the size of the Company and the nature of its assets and no material discrepancies were identified on such verification.
- (c) According to the information and explanations given by the management and audit procedures performed by us, the title deeds of immovable properties included in property, plant and equipment and investment properties are held in the name of the Company, except in the case of certain immovable properties (gross block of ₹ 47.10 crores) where the transfer of name shall be done post conversion of the land to 'Non agricultural'.
- (d) The Company has not revalued its Property, Plant and Equipment, Right of Use Asset or intangible assets during the year ended March 31, 2026.
- (e) There are no proceedings initiated or are pending against the Company for holding any benami property under the Prohibition of Benami Property Transactions Act, 1988 and rules made thereunder.
- ii. (a) The inventory has been physically verified by the management during the year except for inventories lying with third parties. In our opinion, the frequency of verification by the management is reasonable and the coverage and procedure for such verification is appropriate. Inventories lying with third parties have been confirmed by them as at year end and discrepancies of 10% or more in aggregate for each class of inventory were not noticed in respect of such confirmations.
- (b) As disclosed in Note 19 to the standalone financial statements, the Company has been sanctioned working capital limits in excess of ₹ five crores in aggregate from banks during the year on the basis of security of current assets of the Company. The quarterly returns/statements filed by the Company with such banks are in agreement with the unaudited books of account of the Company. The Company do not have sanctioned working capital limits in excess of ₹ five crores in aggregate from financial institutions during the year on the basis of security of current assets of the Company.
- iii. (a) During the year the Company has not provided loans, advances in the nature of loans, stood guarantee or provided security to companies, firms, Limited Liability Partnerships or any other parties. Accordingly, the requirement to report on clause 3(iii)(a) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
- (b) During the year the Company has not made investments, provided guarantees, provided security and granted loans and advances in the nature of loans to companies, firms, Limited Liability Partnerships or any other parties. Accordingly, the requirement to report on clause 3(iii)(b) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
- (c) The Company had in earlier years granted loans to a wholly owned subsidiary amounting to ₹ 1,372.99 crores (on which impairment allowance of ₹ 1,178.53 crores as at March 31, 2026) in respect of which, the schedule of repayment of principal has been stipulated and the repayment was due during the previous year. As per the agreement, the loan has been given interest free. Further, the Company has in earlier years granted loans to companies of ₹ 1,465.99 crores (on which impairment allowance of ₹ 1,465.99 crores has been made as at March 31, 2026) where the schedule of repayment of principal and payment of interest has not been stipulated. Accordingly, we are unable to make a specific comment on

- clause 3(iii)(c) on the regularity of repayment of principal and payment of interest in respect of such loans.
- (d) The Company had in earlier years granted loans to a wholly owned subsidiary amounting to ₹ 1,372.99 crores (on which impairment allowance of ₹ 1,178.53 crores has been made as at March 31, 2026) which is overdue for more than 90 days and reasonable steps have not been taken by the Company for recovery of the principal in respect of such loan. Further, the Company has in earlier years granted loans to companies of ₹ 1,465.99 crores (on which impairment allowance of ₹ 1,465.99 crores has been made as at March 31, 2026) where the schedule of repayment of principal and payment of interest has not been stipulated. Accordingly, we are unable to make a specific comment on clause 3(iii)(d) on amounts overdue for more than 90 days and whether reasonable steps have been taken by the Company for recovery of the principal and interest in respect of such loans.
- (e) The Company had in earlier years granted loans to a wholly owned subsidiary amounting to ₹ 1,372.99 crores (on which impairment allowance of ₹ 1,178.53 crores as at March 31, 2026) in respect of which, the loan has fallen due during the previous year. Further, the Company has in earlier years granted loans to companies of ₹ 1,465.99 crores (on which impairment allowance of ₹ 1,465.99 crores has been made as at March 31, 2026) where the schedule of repayment of principal and payment of interest has not been stipulated. Accordingly, in respect of such loans, we are unable to make a specific comment on clause 3(iii)(e) on whether loans granted to companies have fallen due during the year. However, during the year, the Company has not renewed or extended any loans or granted fresh loans to settle overdue of existing loans given to the same parties.
- (f) During the year, the Company has not granted any loans or advances in the nature of loans, either repayable on demand or without specifying any terms or period of repayment to companies, firms, Limited Liability Partnerships or any other parties. Accordingly, the requirement to report on clause 3(iii)(f) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
- iv. The Company had granted interest free loan in earlier years (prior to corporate insolvency resolution process) to a company, which is outstanding as at the year end amounting to ₹ 233.32 crores (against which an impairment allowance of ₹ 233.32 crores is made). Further, the Company had granted interest free loan in earlier years (prior to the corporate insolvency resolution process) to its wholly owned subsidiaries ('WOS') which are outstanding as at the year-end amounting to ₹ 2,605.66 crores (against which an impairment allowance of ₹ 2,411.20 crores is made). In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, provisions of section 185 and 186 of the Companies Act, 2013 in respect of loans to directors including entities in which they are interested and in respect of loans and advances given, investments made and, guarantees, and securities given have been complied with by the Company considering the legal opinion obtained by the Company according to which the provisions of section 186 of the Companies Act, 2013 are not applicable to all such interest free loans granted under the erstwhile Companies Act, 1956 and by virtue of the resolution plan approved by the NCLT, any claim from the authorities with respect to the breach / contravention / non-compliance of any applicable law is abated, settled and extinguished as at the closing date (i.e. September 14, 2020).
- v. The Company has neither accepted any deposits from the public nor accepted any amounts which are deemed to be deposits within the meaning of sections 73 to 76 of the Companies Act and the rules made thereunder, to the extent applicable. Accordingly, the requirement to report on clause 3(v) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
- vi. We have broadly reviewed the books of account maintained by the Company pursuant to the rules made by the Central Government for the maintenance of cost records under section 148(1) of the Companies Act, 2013, related to the manufacture of certain textile products, and are of the opinion that prima facie, the specified accounts and records have been made and maintained. We have not, however, made a detailed examination of the same.
- vii. (a) The Company is regular in depositing with appropriate authorities undisputed statutory dues including goods and services tax, provident fund, employees' state insurance, income-tax,

ANNEXURE 1 TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT OF EVEN DATE ON THE STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF ALOK INDUSTRIES LIMITED

- duty of customs, cess and other statutory dues applicable to it. According to the information and explanations given to us and audit procedures performed by us, there are no undisputed amounts payable in respect of provident fund, employees' state insurance, income-tax, goods and services tax, duty of custom, cess and other statutory dues which were outstanding, at the year end, for a period of more than six months from the date they became payable.
- (b) There are no dues in respect of income tax, sales tax, service tax, goods and services tax, duty of customs, duty of excise and value added tax that have not been deposited with the appropriate authorities on account of any dispute, read with Note 37 to the Standalone Financial Statements relating to NCLT approved resolution plan.
- viii. The Company has not surrendered or disclosed any transaction, previously unrecorded in the books of account, in the tax assessments under the Income Tax Act, 1961 as income during the year. Accordingly, the requirement to report on clause 3(viii) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
- ix. (a) The Company has not defaulted in repayment of loans or other borrowings or in the payment of interest thereon to any lender.
- (b) The Company has not been declared wilful defaulter by any bank or financial institution or government or any government authority.
- (c) Term loans were applied for the purpose for which the loans were obtained.
- (d) On an overall examination of the standalone financial statements of the Company, no funds raised on short-term basis have been used for long-term purposes by the Company. However, as at 31 March 2026, the Company's current liabilities exceed its current assets, primarily due to the accumulation of dividend on Non-Convertible Redeemable Preference shares amounting to ₹ 804.27 crores which is payable at the time of redemption of the same at the option of the company.
- (e) On an overall examination of the standalone financial statements of the Company, the Company has not taken any funds from any entity or person on account of or to meet the obligations of its subsidiaries and joint ventures.
- (f) The Company has not raised loans during the year on the pledge of securities held in its subsidiaries and joint ventures. Hence, the requirement to report on clause (ix)(f) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
- x. (a) The Company has not raised any money during the year by way of initial public offer / further public offer (including debt instruments) hence, the requirement to report on clause 3(x)(a) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
- (b) The Company has not made any preferential allotment or private placement of shares /fully or partially or optionally convertible debentures during the year under audit and hence, the requirement to report on clause 3(x)(b) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
- xi. (a) Based upon the audit procedures performed for the purpose of reporting the true and fair view of the standalone financial statements and according to the information and explanations given by the management, we report that no fraud by the Company or no material fraud on the Company has been noticed or reported during the year.
- (b) During the year, no report under sub-section (12) of section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 has been filed by cost auditor/ secretarial auditor or by us in Form ADT - 4 as prescribed under Rule 13 of Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014 with the Central Government.
- (c) As represented to us by the management, there are no whistle blower complaints received by the Company during the year.
- xii. In our opinion, the Company is not a nidhi company as per the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. Therefore, the requirement to report on clause 3(xii) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
- xiii. Transactions with the related parties are in compliance with sections 177 and 188 of Companies Act, 2013 where applicable and the details have been disclosed in the notes to the standalone financial statements, as required by the applicable accounting standards.

- xiv. (a) The Company has an internal audit system commensurate with the size and nature of its business.
- (b) The internal audit reports of the Company issued till the date of the audit report, for the period under audit have been considered by us.
- xv. The Company has not entered into any non-cash transactions with its directors or persons connected with its directors and hence requirement to report on clause 3(xv) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
- xvi. (a) The provisions of section 45-IA of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 (2 of 1934) are not applicable to the Company. Accordingly, the requirement to report on clause (xvi)(a) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
- (b) The Company is not engaged in any Non-Banking Financial or Housing Finance activities. Accordingly, the requirement to report on clause (xvi)(b) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
- (c) The Company is not a Core Investment Company as defined in the regulations made by Reserve Bank of India. Accordingly, the requirement to report on clause 3(xvi) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
- (d) There is no Core Investment Company as a part of the Group, hence, the requirement to report on clause 3(xvi)(d) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
- xvii. The Company has incurred cash losses amounting to ₹ 499.46 crores in the current year and amounting to ₹ 513.39 crores in the immediately preceding financial year respectively.
- xviii. There has been no resignation of the statutory auditors during the year and accordingly requirement to report on Clause 3(xviii) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
- xix. On the basis of the financial ratios disclosed in Note 54 to the standalone financial statements, ageing and expected dates of realization of financial assets and payment of financial liabilities, other information accompanying the standalone financial statements, our knowledge of the Board of Directors and management plans and based on our examination of the evidence supporting the assumptions, nothing has come to our attention, which causes us to believe that any material uncertainty exists as on the date of the audit report that Company is not capable of meeting its liabilities existing at the date of balance sheet as and when they fall due within a period of one year from the balance sheet date. We, however, state that this is not an assurance as to the future viability of the Company. We further state that our reporting is based on the facts up to the date of the audit report and we neither give any guarantee nor any assurance that all liabilities falling due within a period of one year from the balance sheet date, will get discharged by the Company as and when they fall due. Also Refer Note 33 to the standalone financial statements.

- xx. (a) In respect of other than ongoing projects, there are no unspent amounts that are required to be transferred to a fund specified in Schedule VII of the Companies Act (the Act), in compliance with second proviso to sub section (5) of section 135 of the Act. This matter has been disclosed in Note 48 to the standalone financial statements.
- (b) There are no unspent amounts in respect of ongoing projects, that are required to be transferred to a special account in compliance of provision of sub section (6) of section 135 of Companies Act. This matter has been disclosed in Note 48 to the standalone financial statements.

ANNEXURE 2 TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT OF EVEN DATE ON THE STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF ALOK INDUSTRIES LIMITED

(Referred to in paragraph 2(f) under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' section of our Report of even date to the members of Alok Industries Limited on the Standalone financial statements for the year ended 31st March, 2026)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls with reference to Standalone financial statements of Alok Industries Limited ("the Company") as of 31st March 2026 in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control with reference to financial statements criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls with reference to financial statements issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the "Guidance Note"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to respective company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Financial Statements

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to Standalone financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, and the Guidance Note. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to this Standalone financial statement was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system with reference to these Standalone financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to these Standalone financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system with reference to these Standalone financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls with reference to these Standalone Financial Statements

A company's internal financial control with reference to these Standalone financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control with reference to these Standalone financial statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of these Standalone financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with reference to these Standalone Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to these Standalone financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to these Standalone financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to these Standalone financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system with reference to these Standalone financial statements were operating effectively as at 31st March, 2026, based on the criteria for internal financial control with reference to financial statements established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls with reference to Financial Statements issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

It is primarily engaged in the business of textile manufacturing including mending and packing activities. The registered office of the Company is located at 17/5/1, 521/1, Village Rakholi/Saily, Silvassa, Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Daman and Diu - 396230.

Pursuant to an application made by the State Bank of India, the Hon'ble National Company Law Tribunal, Ahmedabad bench ("Adjudicating Authority"), vide its order dated 18th July, 2017, had ordered the commencement of the corporate insolvency resolution ("CIR") process in respect of the Company under the provisions of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 (the "Code"). Pursuant to its order dated 8th March, 2019 ("NCLT Order"), the Adjudicating Authority approved the resolution plan submitted by the Resolution Applicants for the Company under Section 31 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 ("Code") ("Approved Resolution Plan"). As per the terms of Section 31 of the Code, the Resolution Plan shall be binding on the Company, its employees, members, creditors, guarantors and other stakeholders involved in the Resolution Plan.

The standalone financial statements were approved for issue in accordance with a resolution of the board of directors on April 16, 2026.

NOTE 1: MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a) Basis of preparation:

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified pursuant to Section 133 of the Companies Act 2013 read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2023 (as amended from time to time) and presentation requirements of Division II of Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013, (Ind AS compliant Schedule III), as applicable to the Financial statements ('Standalone IND AS Financial Statements').

The Company has prepared the financial statements on the basis that it will continue to operate as a going concern and further, the financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for certain financial instruments that are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies below:

- a. Derivative financial instruments,
- b. Certain financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value, and
- c. Defined benefit plans - plan assets measured at fair value;

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Company takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date.

In addition, for financial reporting purposes, fair value measurements are categorised into Level 1, 2, or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date
- Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The financial statements are presented in ₹, which is the functional currency and all values are rounded to the nearest crore (₹ 00,00,000), except when otherwise indicated.

NOTES

to Standalone Financial Statements for the period ended March 31, 2026

b) Current versus non-current classification

The Company presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current/non-current classification. An asset is treated as current when it is:

- Expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading
- Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

All other assets are classified as non-current

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in the normal operating cycle
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

The terms of the liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

The Company classifies all other liabilities as non-current.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

Based on the nature of services and the normal time between the acquisition of assets and their realisation into cash and cash equivalents, the Company has ascertained its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of current and non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

c) Foreign Currency Transactions and Translation

The management of the Company has determined Indian rupee (“₹”) as the functional currency of the Company. In preparing the financial statements of the Company, transactions in currencies other than the Company’s functional currency (“foreign currencies”) are recognised at the rates of exchange prevailing at the dates of the transactions. At the end of each reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date.

Exchange differences on monetary items are recognised in statement of profit and loss in the period in which they arise except for:

- exchange differences on foreign currency borrowings relating to assets under construction for future productive use, which are included in the cost of those assets when they are regarded as an adjustment to interest costs on those foreign currency borrowings

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value is determined. The gain or loss arising on translation of non-monetary items measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on the change in fair value of the item (i.e., translation differences on items whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in OCI or profit or loss are also recognised in OCI or profit or loss, respectively).

In determining the spot exchange rate to use on initial recognition of the related asset, expense or income (or part of it) on the derecognition of a non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability relating to advance consideration, the date of the transaction is the date on which the Company initially recognises the non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability arising from the advance consideration. If there are multiple payments or receipts in advance, the Company determines the transaction date for each payment or receipt of advance consideration.

d) Revenue from contract with customers:

The Company recognises revenue from the following major sources, acting in the capacity of principal:

- Sale of consumer product

- Sale of services
- Other operating revenue

Sale of consumer product

The Company sells textile Products. The Company recognizes revenue on the sale of goods, net of discounts, sales incentives, estimated customer returns and rebates granted, if any, when control of the goods is transferred to the customer.

Discounts given include rebates, price reductions and other incentives given to customers. The Company bases its estimates on historical results, taking into consideration the type of customer, the type of transaction and the specifics of each arrangement.

Nature, timing of satisfaction of performance obligation and transaction price (Fixed and variable)

The control of goods is transferred to the customer depending upon the terms or as agreed with customer or delivery basis (i.e. at the point in time when goods are delivered to the customer or when the customer purchases the goods from the Company warehouse). Control is considered to be transferred to customer when customer has ability to direct the use of such goods and obtain substantially all the benefits from it such as following delivery, the customer has full discretion over the manner of distribution and price to sell the goods, has the primary responsibility when on selling the goods and bears the risks of obsolescence and loss in relation to the goods.

Based on the terms of the contract and as per business practice, the Company determines the transaction price considering the amount it expects to be entitled in exchange of transferring promised goods or services to the customer. It excludes amount collected on behalf of third parties such as taxes.

The Company provides volume discount and rebate schemes, to its customers on certain goods purchased by the customer once the quantity of goods purchased during the period exceeds a threshold specified in the contract. Volume discount and rebate schemes give rise to variable consideration. To estimate the variable consideration to which it will be entitled, the Company considers that either the expected value method or the most likely amount method, depending on which of them better predicts the amount of variable consideration for the particular type of contract.

Sale of services

Revenue from services mainly consists of job work income and is recognised when performance obligation is satisfied. The transaction price of these services is recognised as a contract liability upon receipt of advance from the customer, if any.

Export Incentives

Export benefits arising from Duty Drawback scheme, Remission of Duties and Taxes on Export Products (RoDTEP) and other eligible export incentives are recognised on post-export basis at the rate at which the entitlements accrue and is included in the 'Other Operating Income' (Revenue from operation).

Contract assets, contract liabilities and trade receivables

Revenues in excess of invoicing are classified as contract assets (which we refer as unbilled revenue) while invoicing in excess of revenues (which we refer to as unearned revenues) and advance from customers are classified as contract liabilities. A receivable is recognised by the Company when the control over the goods is transferred to the customer such as when goods are delivered as this represents the point in time at which the right to consideration becomes unconditional, as only the passage of time is required before payment is due. The average credit period on sale of goods is up to 90 days.

e) Income taxes:

Current tax

Current tax payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from 'profit before tax' as reported in the statement of profit and loss because of items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. The Company's current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. While preparing standalone financial statements, temporary differences are calculated using the carrying amount to Standalone Financial Statements for the period ended March 31, 2026

as per standalone financial statements and tax bases as determined by reference to the method of tax computation.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- When the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss
- In respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit. In addition, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of goodwill.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Company expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Current and deferred tax are recognised in statement of profit and loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively. Where current tax or deferred tax arises from the initial accounting for a business combination, the tax effect is included in the accounting for the business combination.

f) Property, Plant and Equipment

Assets held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes, are stated in the standalone balance sheet at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. Freehold land is not depreciated, however, it is subject to impairment.

Properties in the course of construction for production, supply or administrative purposes are carried at cost, less any recognised impairment loss. Cost includes professional fees and, for qualifying assets, borrowing costs capitalised in accordance with the Company's accounting policy. Such properties are classified to the appropriate categories of property, plant and equipment when completed and ready for intended use.

Likewise, subsequent cost incurred to overhaul the plant and machineries and major inspection costs are recognised in the carrying amount of the plant and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria are satisfied. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to statement of profit and loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other property assets, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset.

Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in statement of profit and loss.

Stand-by equipment and servicing equipment are recognised as property, plant and equipment if they are held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, for rental to others, or for administrative purposes and are expected to be used during more than one period. Property, plant and equipment which are not ready for intended use as on the date of Balance Sheet are disclosed as 'Capital work-in-progress'.

Capital work-in-progress is stated at cost, net of accumulated impairment loss, if any.

Non-current assets held for sale

The Company classifies non-current assets as held for sale if their carrying amounts will be recovered principally through a sale rather than through continuing use.

Non-current assets classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. Costs to sell are the incremental costs directly attributable to the disposal of an asset, excluding finance costs and income tax expense.

For these purposes, sale transactions include exchanges of non-current assets for other non-current assets when the exchange has commercial substance. The criteria for held for sale classification is regarded met only when the assets is available for immediate sale in its present condition, subject only to terms that are usual and customary for sales of such assets, its sale is highly probable; and it will genuinely be sold, not abandoned. The Company treats sale of the asset to be highly probable when:

- The appropriate level of management is committed to a plan to sell the asset,
- An active programme to locate a buyer and complete the plan has been initiated (if applicable),
- The asset is being actively marketed for sale at a price that is reasonable in relation to its current fair value,
- The sale is expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year from the date of classification, and

Actions required to complete the plan indicate that it is unlikely that significant changes to the plan will be made or that the plan will be withdrawn.

Depreciation methods, estimated useful lives and residual value:

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of assets (other than freehold land) less their residual values over their useful lives, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis. Depreciation on property, plant and equipment has been provided on straight-line method as per the useful life prescribed in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013, except in case of following assets, where useful life used is different than those prescribed in part C of Schedule II:

Asset category	Estimated useful life
Buildings	50 to 60 years
Plant and Machinery	15 to 40 years

Based on technical evaluation done by the Chartered Engineer, the management believes that the useful lives as given above, best represent, the period over which management expects to use these assets. Hence, the useful lives for these assets is different from the useful lives as prescribed under Part C of Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013.

The residual values are not more than 5% of the original cost of the asset.

The residual values, useful lives and method of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and any changes there in are considered as change in estimate and accounted prospectively.

Goods and Services Tax (GST) paid on acquisition of assets or on incurring expenses

Expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST/ value added taxes paid, except:

- When the tax incurred on a purchase of assets or services is not recoverable from the taxation authority, in which case, the tax paid is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item, as applicable

NOTES

to Standalone Financial Statements for the period ended March 31, 2026

- When receivables and payables are stated with the amount of tax included

The net amount of tax recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is included as part of other current/non-current assets/ liabilities in the balance sheet.

g) Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately

Intangible assets with finite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses. Amortisation is recognised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful life and amortisation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis. Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses, if any. The assessment of indefinite life is reviewed annually to determine whether the indefinite life continues to be supportable. If not, the change in useful life from indefinite to finite is made on a prospective basis.

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination and recognised separately from goodwill are initially recognised at their fair value at the acquisition date (which is regarded as their cost).

Subsequent to initial recognition, intangible assets acquired in a business combination are reported on the same basis as intangible assets that are acquired separately.

Derecognition of intangible assets

An intangible asset is derecognised on disposal, or when no future economic benefits are expected from use or disposal. Gains or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset, measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset are recognised in statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognised.

Useful lives of intangible assets

Estimated useful lives of the intangible assets are as follows:

Asset category	Estimated useful life
Computer software	6 years
Trademarks / Brands	10 years

h) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. Interest income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the period in which they are incurred.

The Company may incur borrowing costs during an extended period in which it suspends the activities necessary to prepare an asset for its intended use or sale. Such costs are costs of holding partially completed assets and do not qualify for capitalisation. However, an entity does not normally suspend capitalising borrowing costs during a period when it carries out substantial technical and administrative work. The Company also does not suspend capitalising borrowing costs when a temporary delay is a necessary part of the process of getting an asset ready for its intended use or sale.

The Company shall cease capitalising borrowing costs when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying asset for its intended use or sale are complete.

i) Investment Property

Investment properties are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss, if any.

The cost includes the cost of replacing parts and borrowing costs for long-term construction projects if the recognition criteria are met. When significant parts of the investment property are required to be replaced at intervals, the Company depreciates them separately based on their specific useful lives. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

The Company depreciates building component of investment property over 30 years from the date of original purchase on SLM basis.

The Company, based on technical assessment made by technical expert and management estimate, depreciates the building over estimated useful lives which are different from the useful life prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013. The management believes that these estimated useful lives are realistic and reflect fair approximation of the period over which the assets are likely to be used.

Though the Company measures investment property using cost-based measurement, the fair value of investment property is disclosed in the notes. Fair values are determined based on an annual evaluation performed by an accredited external independent valuer applying a valuation model issued by the Indian Valuation Standards Board.

Investment properties are derecognised either when they have been disposed of or when they are permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefit is expected from their disposal. The difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset is recognised in profit or loss in the period of derecognition. In determining the amount of consideration from the derecognition of investment property the Company considers the effects of variable consideration, existence of a significant financing component, non-cash consideration, and consideration payable to the buyer (if any).

Transfers are made to (or from) investment property only when there is a change in use.

j) Financial instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

I. Financial Assets

A) Initial recognition and measurement

All financial assets are recognised initially at fair value plus, in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. However, trade receivable that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at transaction price.

B) Subsequent measurement

For purposes of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified in four categories:

- Debt instruments at amortised cost

A 'debt instrument' is measured at the amortised cost if both the following conditions are met:

- The asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets for collecting contractual cash flows, and
- Contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding.

This category is the most relevant to the Company. After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included in other income in the statement of profit and loss. The losses arising from impairment are recognised in the profit or loss. This category generally applies to trade and other receivables.

- Debt instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI)

A 'debt instrument' is classified as at the FVTOCI if both of the following criteria are met:

- The objective of the business model is achieved both by collecting

NOTES

to Standalone Financial Statements for the period ended March 31, 2026

contractual cash flows and selling the financial assets, and

- The asset's contractual cash flows represent SPPI.

Debt instruments included within the FVTOCI category are measured initially as well as at each reporting date at fair value. Fair value movements are recognised in the other comprehensive income (OCI). On derecognition of the asset, cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from the equity to statement of profit and loss. Interest earned whilst holding FVTOCI debt instrument is reported as interest income using the EIR method.

- Debt instruments at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)

FVTPL is a residual category for debt instruments. Any debt instrument, which does not meet the criteria for categorisation as at amortised cost or as FVTOCI, is classified as at FVTPL.

In addition, the Company may elect to designate a debt instrument, which otherwise meets amortised cost or FVTOCI criteria, as at FVTPL. However, such election is allowed only if doing so reduces or eliminates a measurement or recognition inconsistency (referred to as 'accounting mismatch'). Debt instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

- Equity instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI)

All equity investments in scope of Ind AS 109 are measured at fair value. Equity instruments which are held for trading and contingent consideration recognised by an acquirer in a business combination to which Ind AS103 applies are classified as at FVTPL. For all other equity instruments, the Company may make an irrevocable election to present in other comprehensive income subsequent changes in the fair value. The Company makes such election on an instrument-by-instrument basis. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable.

If the Company decides to classify an equity instrument as at FVTOCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognised in the OCI. There is no recycling of the amounts from OCI to statement of profit & loss, even on sale of investment. However, the Company may transfer the cumulative gain or loss within equity.

Equity instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

C) Derecognition

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e. removed from the Company's balance sheet) when:

The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or

The Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass through' arrangement; and either (a) the Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset. When the Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass through arrangement, it evaluates if and to what extent it has retained the risks and rewards of ownership. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all of the risks and rewards of the asset, nor transferred control of the asset, the Company continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of the Company's continuing involvement. In that case, the Company also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Company has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Company could be required to repay.

D) Impairment of financial assets

The Company assesses on a forward looking basis the expected credit losses associated with its assets carried at amortised cost and FVOCI debt instruments. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk. For trade receivables only, the Company applies the simplified approach permitted by Ind AS 109 Financial Instruments, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables.

E) Investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures

The Company has elected to account for its equity investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures under IND AS 27 on Separate Financials Statements, at cost. At the end of each reporting period the Company assesses whether there are indicators of diminution in the value of its investments and provides for impairment loss, where necessary.

II. Financial Liabilities

A) Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, payables, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

B) Subsequent measurement

The measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification, as described below:

- Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss. Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are incurred for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term. This category also includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Company that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships as defined by Ind AS 109. Separated embedded derivatives are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments. Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognised in the profit or loss.

Financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss are designated as such at the initial date of recognition, and only if the criteria in Ind AS 109 are satisfied. For liabilities designated as FVTPL, fair value gains/ losses attributable to changes in own credit risk are recognised in OCI. These gains/ loss are not subsequently transferred to statement of profit and loss. However, the Company may transfer the cumulative gain or loss within equity. All other changes in fair value of such

to Standalone Financial Statements for the period ended March 31, 2026 liability are recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

- Loans and Borrowings

This is the category most relevant to the Company. After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the EIR method. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the EIR amortisation process.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the statement of profit and loss.

- Financial guarantee contracts

Financial guarantee contracts issued by the Company are those contracts that require a payment to be made to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because the specified debtor fails to make a payment when due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument. Financial guarantee contracts are recognised initially as a liability at fair value, adjusted for transaction costs that are directly attributable to the issuance of the guarantee. Subsequently, the liability is measured at the higher of the amount of loss allowance determined as per impairment requirements of Ind AS 109 and the amount recognised less cumulative amortisation.

The fair value of financial guarantees is determined as the present value of the difference in net cash flows between the contractual payments under the debt instrument and the contractual payments that would be required without the guarantee, or the estimated amount that would be payable to a third party for assuming the obligations.

C) De-recognition

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

D) Compound instruments

The component parts of compound instruments (optionally convertible preference share) issued by the Company are classified separately as financial liabilities and equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument. A conversion option that will be settled by the exchange of a fixed amount of cash or another financial asset for a fixed number of the Company's own equity instruments is an equity instrument.

At the date of issue, the fair value of the liability component is estimated using the prevailing market interest rate for similar non-convertible instruments. This amount is recorded as a liability on an amortised cost basis using the effective interest method until extinguished upon conversion or at the instrument's maturity date.

The conversion option classified as equity is determined by deducting the amount of the liability component from the fair value of the compound instrument as a whole. This is recognised and included in equity, net of income tax effects, and is not subsequently remeasured. In addition, the conversion option classified as equity will remain in equity until the conversion option is exercised, in which case, the balance recognised in equity will be transferred to other component of equity. When the conversion option remains unexercised at the maturity date of the convertible instrument, the balance recognised in equity will be transferred to retained earnings. No gain or loss is recognised in statement of profit and loss upon conversion or expiration of the conversion option.

Transaction costs that relate to the issue of the convertible instruments are allocated to the liability and equity components in proportion to the allocation of the gross proceeds. Transaction costs relating to the equity component are recognised directly in equity. Transaction costs relating to the liability component are included in the carrying amount of the liability component and are amortised over the lives of the convertible instrument using the effective interest method.

III. Reclassification of financial assets / liabilities

After initial recognition, no reclassification is made for financial assets which are equity instruments and financial liabilities. For financial assets which are debt instruments, a reclassification is made only if there is a change in the business model for managing those assets. Changes to the business model are expected to be infrequent. The Company's senior management determines change in the business model as a result of external or internal changes which are significant to the Company's operations.

IV. Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet where there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of Company or the counterparty.

V. Derivatives and hedging activities

The Company enters derivatives like forwards contracts to hedge its foreign currency risks. Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently marked to market at the end of each reporting period with profit/loss being recognised in statement of profit and loss. Derivative assets/liabilities are classified under "other financial assets/other financial liabilities". Profits and losses arising from cancellation of contracts are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

k) Inventories:

Finished goods are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Raw material, packing materials and stores & spares are stated at costs unless the finished goods in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold below cost. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale.

Costs incurred in bringing each product to its present location and condition are accounted for as follows:

- Raw materials, Packing Materials and stores & spares: Cost includes cost of purchase and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.
- Finished goods and work in progress: Cost includes cost of direct materials and labour and a proportion of manufacturing overheads based on the normal operating capacity, but excluding borrowing costs.

Due allowances are made for slow moving and obsolete inventories based on estimates made by the Company.

l) Impairment of non-financial assets

At the end of each reporting period, the Company reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss, if any. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. When a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be identified, corporate assets are also allocated to individual cash-generating units, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash-generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be identified.

to Standalone Financial Statements for the period ended March 31, 2026

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and intangible assets not yet available for use are tested for impairment at least annually, and whenever there is an indication that the asset may be impaired.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in statement of profit and loss.

When an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or a cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in statement of profit and loss.

m) Provisions and contingent liabilities:

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Company will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material). When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognised as an asset if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

A contingent liability is:-

- a) a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity; or
- b) a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognised because:-
 - i) it is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; or
 - ii) the amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability.

Contingent liability is disclosed in the case of:

- a present obligation arising from past events, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation;
- a present obligation arising from past events, when no reliable estimate is possible;
- a possible obligation arising from past events, unless the probability of outflow of resources is remote.

A contingent asset is disclosed where an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date.

n) Retirement and other employee benefits:

Post-employment benefits

- Payments to defined contribution benefit plans are recognised as an expense when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions. For defined benefit retirement plans, the cost of providing benefits is determined using the projected unit credit method, with actuarial valuations being carried out at the end of each annual reporting period. Remeasurement, comprising actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the changes to the asset ceiling (if applicable) and the return on plan assets (excluding net interest), is reflected immediately in the balance sheet with a charge or credit recognised in other comprehensive income in the period in which they occur. Remeasurement recognised in other comprehensive income is not reclassified to statement of profit and loss. Past service cost is recognised in statement of profit and loss in the period of a plan amendment. Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate at the beginning of the period to the net defined benefit liability or asset. Defined benefit costs are categorised as follows:
- Service cost (including current service cost, past service cost, as well as gains and losses on curtailments and settlements);
- Net interest expense or income; and
- Re-measurement.

The Company presents the first two components of defined benefit costs in statement of profit and loss in the line item "Employee benefits expense", and the last component in Other Comprehensive Income. Curtailment gains and losses are accounted for as past service costs.

The retirement benefit obligation recognised in the balance sheet represents the actual deficit or surplus in the Company's defined benefit plans. Any surplus resulting from this calculation is limited to the present value of any economic benefits available in the form of refunds from the plans or reductions in future contributions to the plans.

Terminal benefits

A liability for a termination benefit is recognised at the earlier of when the entity can no longer withdraw the offer of the termination benefit and when the entity recognises any related restructuring costs.

Short-term and other long-term employee benefits

A liability is recognised for benefits accruing to employees in respect of wages and salaries, performance incentives and similar benefits other than compensated absences in the period the related service is rendered at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid in exchange for that service.

Liabilities recognised in respect of compensated absences are measured on the basis of actuarial valuation as on the balance sheet date.

Liabilities recognised in respect of other long-term employee benefits are measured at the present value of the estimated future cash outflows expected to be made by the Company in respect of services provided by employees up to the reporting date.

o) Earnings per share:

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the profit/loss attributable to the owners of the Company by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the financial year.

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figure used in determination of basic earnings per share to take into account the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential equity shares, and the weighted average number of additional equity shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

p) Operating segment

Identification of segment - Operating segments are reported in the manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM) of the Company.

Segment accounting policies - The Board of Directors of the Company have been identified as the Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM) as defined under Ind AS 108. CODM reviews overall financial information of the Company together for performance evaluation and allocation of resources and does not review any discrete information to evaluate performance of any individual product or geography.

to Standalone Financial Statements for the period ended March 31, 2026

The Company prepares its segment information in conformity with accounting policies adopted for preparing and presenting the financial statements of the Company as a whole.

q) Onerous contracts

If the Company has a contract that is onerous, the present obligation under the contract is recognised and measured as a provision. However, before a separate provision for an onerous contract is established, the Company recognises any impairment loss that has occurred on assets dedicated to that contract.

An onerous contract is a contract under which the unavoidable costs (i.e., the costs that the Company cannot avoid because it has the contract) of meeting the obligations under the contract exceed the economic benefits expected to be received under it. The unavoidable costs under a contract reflect the least net cost of exiting from the contract, which is the lower of the cost of fulfilling it and any compensation or penalties arising from failure to fulfil it. The cost of fulfilling a contract comprises the costs that relate directly to the contract (i.e., both incremental costs and an allocation of costs directly related to contract activities).

r) Key sources of estimation uncertainty and critical accounting judgements

In the course of applying the accounting policies, the Company is required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amount of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future period, if the revision affects current and future periods.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

a) Useful lives of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets, investment property and right-of-use assets

Management reviews the useful lives of property, plant and equipment at least once a year. Such lives are dependent upon an assessment of both the technical lives of the assets and also their likely economic lives based on various internal and external factors including relative efficiency and operating costs. Refer Note 2 and 30 for further disclosure.

b) Property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and investment property

Determining whether the property, plant and equipment are impaired requires an estimate in the value in use of cash generating units. It requires to estimate the future cash flows expected to arise from the cash generating units and a suitable discount rate in order to calculate present value. When the present value of the cash flows are less than carrying value of property, plant and equipment a material impairment loss may arise. Refer Note 2 for further disclosure.

c) Impairment of investments in and loan given to subsidiaries and joint ventures

Determining whether the investments in and loan given to subsidiaries and joint ventures are impaired requires an estimate of the value in use / recoverable amount of assets. In considering the value in use / recoverable amount of assets, the Management have anticipated the future cash flows, discount rates and other factors of the underlying businesses/companies. In certain cases, the Company engages third party qualified valuers to perform the valuation. The management works closely with the qualified external valuers to establish the appropriate valuation techniques and inputs to the model. Refer Note 5, 6, and 39 for further disclosure.

d) Provisions, liabilities and contingencies

Provisions and liabilities are recognized in the period when it becomes probable that there will be a future outflow of funds resulting from past events that can reasonably be estimated. The timing of recognition requires application of judgement to existing facts and circumstances which may be subject to change.

In the normal course of business, contingent liabilities may arise from litigation and other claims against the Company. Potential liabilities that are possible but not probable of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits are treated as contingent liabilities. Such liabilities are disclosed in the notes but are not recognized. Refer Note 37 for further disclosure.

e) Taxes

Deferred tax assets are recognized for unused tax losses to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the losses can be utilized. Significant management judgement is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognised, based upon the likely timing and the level of future taxable profits together with future tax planning strategies. Refer Note 8 for further disclosure.

f) Employee benefit plans

The cost of defined benefit gratuity plan and other post-employment benefits are determined using actuarial valuations. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

The mortality rate is based on publicly available mortality tables for India. Those mortality tables tend to change only at interval in response to demographic changes. Future salary increases and gratuity increases are based on expected future inflation rates. Refer Note 28 and 41 for further disclosure.

g) Lease

The application of Ind AS 116 requires Company to make judgements and estimates that affect the measurement of right-of-use assets and liabilities. In determining the lease term, the Company consider all facts and circumstances that create an economic incentive to exercise renewal options (or not exercise termination options). Assessing whether a contract includes a lease also requires judgement. Estimates are required to determine the appropriate discount rate used to measure lease liabilities.

The Company cannot readily determine the interest rate implicit in the lease, therefore, it uses its incremental borrowing rate (IBR) to measure lease liabilities. The IBR is the rate of interest that the Company would have to pay to borrow over a similar term, and with a similar security, the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment. The IBR therefore reflects what the Company 'would have to pay', which requires estimation when no observable rates are available or when they need to be adjusted to reflect the terms and conditions of the lease. The Company estimates the IBR using observable inputs (such as market interest rates) when available and is required to make certain entity-specific estimates. Refer Note 45 for further disclosure.

h) Recoverability of trade receivables

Judgements are required in assessing the recoverability of overdue trade receivables and determining whether a provision against those receivables is required. Factors considered include the credit rating of the counterparty, the amount and timing of anticipated future payments and any possible actions that can be taken to mitigate the risk of non-payment. Refer note 11 for further disclosure.

i) Inventories

"Inventories are reviewed on a regular basis and the Company make allowance for aged or obsolete inventories and write down to net realizable value primarily based on historical trends and management estimates of expected and future product demand and related pricing. Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Judgements are required in assessing the expected realisable values of Inventories. Factors considered includes demand levels and pricing competition in the industry. Refer note 10 for further disclosure.

NOTES

j) Changes in accounting policies and disclosures

New and amended standards

The Ministry of Corporate Affairs ('MCA') notifies new standards or amendments to the existing standards under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended from time to time. For the year ended March 31, 2026, the MCA has notified amendments to (Ind AS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements) and (Ind AS 7, Statement of Cash Flows and Ind AS 107, Financial Instruments: Disclosures) amendments relating to Classification of liabilities as current or non-current and non-current liabilities with Covenants and Disclosure of supplier finance arrangements, applicable to the Company, w.e.f., April 1, 2025.

The Company has reviewed the new pronouncements and based on its evaluation, has determined that the new pronouncement is not applicable to the Company.

- 1 Certain property plant and equipment are pledge against borrowings the details relating to which have been described in note 17 & 19 pertaining to borrowings.
- 2 The title deeds of immovable properties included in property, plant and equipment and investment properties are held in the name of the Company, except in the case of certain immovable properties (gross block of ₹ 47.10 crores as detailed in the table below) where the Company is in the process of converting the same to 'non-agricultural' land, post which the transfer of title will happen in the name of the Company. Further, in the earlier year, title deeds of property, plant and equipment and investment properties which were pledged with the erstwhile lenders have been obtained and an equitable mortgage has been created by the Company in the name of the existing lenders.

insurance company and has received ₹ 25 crore in current year hence recognised exceptional gain of ₹ 18.58 crore in the current financial year. Further the Company has recognised exceptional gain ₹ 12.21 crore from sale of such damaged assets.

- b. During previous year, the Company had sold certain Investment properties, leasehold land and building situated at Mumbai, Pawne and Mahape which resulted into a gain of ₹ 94.14 crore.

33 The Company has completed all the steps as laid down in the Resolution Plan approved by the National Company Law Tribunal vide its order dated March 8, 2019. The resolution applicants had obtained joint control over the Company, the Board of Directors was re-constituted on September 14, 2020, being the closing date in terms of Resolution Plan. The Company is in the process of restructuring its operations. The Company has incurred a loss of ₹ 779.81 crore for the year ended March 31, 2026 and has accumulated losses of ₹ 23,648.21 crore as on that date. It has earned EBITDA of ₹ 48.14 crore for the year ended March 31, 2026. Considering the cash flow projections of the Company and improved market conditions and expected growth in textile industry, the financial statements have been prepared on going concern basis.

34 As per Clause 1.2 (xi) of Approved Resolution Plan, the outstanding debt amounting to ₹17,384.02 crore assigned to Resolution Applicants shall not carry interest for the first 8 years from the Closing Date (as defined in the Approved Resolution Plan), hence such debt has been measured at cost. After such period of 8 years, the terms of assigned debt shall be mutually agreed among the Resolution Applicants and the Company. The Approved Resolution Plan has an overriding effect on the requirements of Ind AS, as per legal view obtained by the Company in this regard. Hence, had the Company applied the Ind AS, it would have recognised the assigned debt at its fair value and accordingly recognized the imputed interest cost over the period of loan in the statement of profit and loss.

35 As on June 2017, the Company had an amount of ₹11,623.94 crore receivable from trading debtors on account of sale of fabric ("Outstanding Trading Dues"). As at March 31, 2019, the Company had created full provision against said receivables by charging it to the statement of profit and loss in earlier years. As per the Approved Resolution Plan, if any of the trading debtors make payment towards the Outstanding Trading Dues or any person is required to contribute to the assets of the Company under any legal process against the Outstanding Trading Dues and has contributed the same, such amounts (net of any income tax payable by the Company on account of such receipt of the Outstanding Trading Dues) shall be deposited in a designated escrow account ("Escrow Account") to be opened in the name of the Company. Provided however, nothing contained in the resolution plan shall oblige the Resolution Applicants or the Company to take steps for recovery of the Outstanding Trading Dues.

Accordingly, the Company has an obligation to deposit into the escrow account any collections received out of the "Outstanding Trading Dues" or otherwise, as stated above, for the benefit of the Financial Creditors and as a result therefore, the risk and reward associated with the Outstanding Trading Dues now belong to the Financial Creditors. Accordingly the Company had derecognised the said outstanding trade receivables and related provisions in the books. The Company has not received any amounts towards Outstanding Trading Dues in the current year.

36 The Code on Social Security, 2020 ('Code') relating to employee benefits during employment and post employment benefits received Presidential assent in September 2020. The Code has been published in the Gazette of India. Certain sections of the Code came into effect on May 3, 2023. However, the final rules/interpretation have not yet been issued. Based on a preliminary assessment, the entity believes the impact of the change will not be significant.

41 Disclosures Pursuant to – “Employee benefits”:

i) Defined contribution plans:

The Company’s contribution to Provident Fund for the year 2025-26 aggregating to ₹ 8.28 crore (Previous Year: ₹ 8.99 crore), ₹ 0.72 crore (Previous Year: ₹ 0.90 crore) for ESIC has been recognised in the statement of profit and loss under the head employee benefits expense. (Refer Note 28).

ii) Defined benefit plans:

a) Gratuity Plan:

The gratuity plan is governed by the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. Under the act, employee who has completed five years of service is entitled to specific benefit. though the gratuity liability is recognised from the date the employee commences service, regardless of whether the employee has completed five years of continuous service. The level of benefits provided depends on the member’s length of service and salary at retirement age.

The Company makes annual contribution to the Employee’s Company Gratuity Assurance Scheme, a funded defined benefit plan for qualifying employees. The Fund invests in the scheme of insurance with the Life Insurance Corporation of India, IndiaFirst Life Insurance Company Limited, SBI Life Insurance Company Limited and Canara HSBC Life Insurance Company Limited. The scheme provides for lump-sum payment to vested employees at retirement, death while in employment or on termination of employment of an amount equivalent to fifteen day’s salary payable for each completed year of service or part thereof in excess of six months.

The plans typically expose the Company to actuarial risks such as: interest rate risk, longevity risk and salary risk.

Interest risk : The plan exposes the Company to the risk off all in interest rates. A fall in interest rates will result in an increase in the ultimate cost of providing the above benefit and will thus result in an increase in the value of the liability.

Longevity Risk : The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the best estimate of the mortality of plan participants both during and after their employment. An increase in the life expectancy of the plan participants will increase the plan's liability.

Salary risk: The present value of the defined benefit plan is calculated with the assumption of salary increase rate of plan participants in future. Deviation in the rate of increase of salary in future for plan participants from the rate of increase in salary used to determine the present value of obligation will have a bearing on the plan's liability.

The most recent actuarial valuation of the plan assets and the present value of the defined benefit obligation were carried out at March 31, 2026 by KP Actuaries and Consultants LLP. The present value of the defined benefit obligation, and the related current service cost and past service cost, were measured using the Project Unit Credit Method as per Ind AS 19.

43 Capital Management and Financial Management Framework:

The Company being in a working capital intensive industry, its objective is to maintain a strong credit rating, healthy ratios and establish a capital structure that would maximize the return to stakeholders through optimum mix of debt and equity.

The Company's capital requirement is mainly to fund its capex, working capital, repayment of principal and interest on its borrowings. The principal source of funding of the Company has been, and is expected to continue to be, cash generated from its operations supplemented by funding from bank borrowings and the capital markets. The Company is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements.

The Company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments in light of changes in economic conditions and the requirements of the financial covenants. The Company monitors capital using a gearing ratio, which is net debt divided by total capital plus net debt. Since net worth of the Company is negative, debt equity ratio is not calculated.

The key risks associated with day to day operations of the Company and working capital management are given below:

A. Credit Risk:

Credit risk is the risk that counter party will not meet its obligation under a financial instrument or customer contract leading to a financial loss. The Company is exposed to credit risk mainly from trade receivables and other financial assets.

i) Trade Receivables:

Trade receivables are typically unsecured and are derived from revenue earned from customers. Credit risk has been managed by the Company through credit approvals, establishing credit limits and continuously monitoring the creditworthiness of customers to which the Company grants credit terms in the normal course of business. On account of adoption of Ind AS 109, the Company uses expected credit loss model to assess the impairment loss or gain. The Company uses a provision matrix and forward-looking information and an assessment of the credit risk over the expected life of the financial asset to compute the expected credit loss allowance for trade receivables. Concentrations of credit risk with respect to trade receivables are limited.

The following table gives details in respect of percentage of revenue generated from the top ten customers.

Particulars	[₹ in Crore]
	For the year ended March 31, 2026	For the year ended March 31, 2025

More than 1 years	138.97	113.88
Impairment allowance for doubtful debts	(134.42)	(119.86)
Total	304.31	421.67

ii) Other Financial Assets & loans

The Company has limited credit risk arising from cash and cash equivalents as the deposits are maintained with banks and financial institutions with high credit rating. Hence, these are low risk items and the Company evaluates the recoverability of these financial assets at each reporting date and wherever required, a provision is created against the same.

The Company had in earlier years given loans to its subsidiaries/a Company in which erstwhile directors were interested of ₹ 1,465.99 crore, which are fully provided for in the books. The net exposure of ₹ 194.46 crore is with respect of one wholly-owned subsidiary whereby the Company has impaired to the extent of the fair valuation of the subsidiary's investment properties / inventories.

B. Market Risk:

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises of three types of risks – interest rate risk, currency risk and other price risk in a fluctuating market environment. Financial instrument affected by market risks includes loans and borrowings, deposits, derivatives and other financial assets.

i) Currency Risk

The Company's functional currency is Indian Rupees (INR). The Company undertakes transactions denominated in foreign currencies; consequently, exposure to exchange rate fluctuations arise. Volatility in exchange rates affects the Company's revenue from export markets and the costs of imports. The Company has exports and to that extent has a natural hedge as a mitigation measure to cover foreign exchange risk on account of imports/expenses in foreign currency. The Company hedges its foreign currency risk by entering into forward contracts.

Foreign Currency Sensitivity

5% is the sensitivity rate used when reporting foreign currency risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in foreign exchange rates. The sensitivity analysis includes only outstanding foreign currency denominated monetary items and adjusts their translation at the period end for a 5% change in foreign currency rates. A positive number below indicates an increase in profit and negative number below indicates a decrease in profit.

Following is the analysis of change in profit where the Indian Rupee strengthens and weakens by 5% against the relevant currency:

Currency	Effect on profit before tax Change in rate (upward 5%)		Effect on profit before tax Change in rate (downward 5%)
	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025
	Euro	(0.19)	0.12	0.19
JPY	(0.26)	(0.33)	0.26	0.33
USD	2.18	0.63	(2.18)	(0.63)
GBP	(0.01)	(0.01)	0.01	0.01

ii) Interest rate risk

a. Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company is exposed to interest rate risk because funds are borrowed at both fixed and floating interest rates. Interest rate risk is measured by using the cash flow sensitivity for changes in variable interest rate. The borrowings of the Company are principally denominated in rupees with a mix of fixed and floating rates of interest. The Company has exposure to interest rate risk, arising principally on changes in base lending rate. The Company uses a mix of interest rate sensitive financial instruments to manage the liquidity and fund requirements for its day-to-day operations. The risk is managed by the Company by maintaining a mix between fixed and floating rate borrowings.

b. The profile of the Company's fixed and floating rate borrowings is given below:

Particulars	As at March 31, 2026	As at March 31, 2025
	Variable interest rate borrowings	3,502.83
Fixed interest rate borrowings	3,543.78	3,542.51

The Company has a long-term borrowing of ₹ 17,384.02 crore which is interest free for a period of 8 years as per the resolution plan (Refer note 34). Being interest free, there is no interest rate risk on this loan for the next 2 years.

Interest rate sensitivity

If interest rates had been 50 basis points higher/lower and all other variables were held constant, following is the impact on profit. A positive effect is decrease in profit and negative effect is increase in profit.

Particulars	Currency	Increase / decrease in basis points	(₹ in Crore)
			Effect on profit before tax
March 31, 2026	INR	50	17.53
	INR	(50)	(17.53)
March 31, 2025	INR	50	17.55
	INR	(50)	(17.55)

iii) Commodity Price Risk

Commodity price risk arises due to fluctuation in prices of raw materials like cotton and yarn. The Company has a risk management framework aimed at prudently managing the risk arising from the volatility in commodity prices and freight costs. The Company's commodity risk is managed centrally through well-established trading operations and control processes.

C. Financial risk management objectives

The Company has a Risk Management Committee established by its Board of Directors for overseeing the Risk Management Framework and developing and monitoring the Company's risk management policies. The risk management policies are established to ensure timely identification and evaluation of risks, setting acceptable risk thresholds, identifying and mapping controls against these risks, monitor the risks and their limits, improve risk awareness and transparency. Risk management policies and systems are reviewed regularly to reflect changes in the market conditions and the Company's activities to provide reliable information to the Management and the Board to evaluate the adequacy of the risk management framework in relation to the risk faced by the Company.

D. Liquidity Risk:

Liquidity risk refers to the risk of financial distress or extraordinary high financing costs arising due to shortage of liquid funds in a situation where business conditions unexpectedly deteriorate and requiring financing. The Company requires funds both for short-term operational needs as well as for long-term capital expenditure for capex. The Company generates sufficient cash flow from operations, which together with the available cash and cash equivalents provide liquidity in the short-term and long-term. The Company has established an appropriate liquidity risk management framework for the management of the Company's short, medium and long-term funding and liquidity management requirements. The Company manages liquidity risk through cash generated from operations, banking facilities and reserve borrowing facilities, by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows, and by matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities. As at March 31, 2026, the Company has undrawn committed borrowing facilities amounting to ₹ 63.49 crore and the Company expects to avail all the working capital limits sanctioned to it in FY 26-27.

The following tables detail the Company's remaining contractual maturity for its non-derivative financial liabilities with agreed repayment periods. The amount disclosed in the tables have been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Company can be required to pay. The contractual maturity is based on the earliest date on which the Company may be required to pay.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT on Consolidated Financial Statements

To the Members of Alok Industries Limited

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Alok Industries Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Holding Company"), its subsidiaries (the Holding Company and its subsidiaries together referred to as "the Group") and its joint ventures comprising of the consolidated Balance sheet as at March 31 2026, the consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss, including other comprehensive income, the consolidated Cash Flow Statement and the consolidated Statement of Changes in Equity for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of material accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the consolidated financial statements")

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and based on the consideration of reports of other auditors on separate financial statements and on the other financial information of the subsidiaries, the aforesaid consolidated financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013, as amended ("the Act"), in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the consolidated state of affairs of the Group, and its joint ventures as at March 31, 2026, their consolidated loss including other comprehensive loss, their consolidated cash flows and the consolidated statement of changes in equity for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs), as specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the 'Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements' section of our report. We are independent of the Group and joint ventures in accordance with the 'Code of Ethics' issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

Emphasis of Matter

We draw attention to Note 33 of the consolidated financial statements in respect of the resolution plan approved by the National Company Law Tribunal vide its order dated March 8, 2019 under section 31(1) of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016. Based on the resolution plan, read with the legal opinion, the Holding Company has accounted the assigned debt at cost, overriding the Indian Accounting Standards which would require the Holding Company to recognize the assigned debt at its fair value and accordingly the imputed interest cost over the period of loan. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the financial year ended March 31, 2026. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matter For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report. We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements.

The results of audit procedures performed by us and by other auditors of components not audited by us, as reported by them in their audit reports furnished to us by the management, including those procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Key audit matters

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

(a) Recoverability of carrying value of property, plant and equipment, Investment properties / Inventories.

As at March 31, 2026 the Holding Company has Property, plant and equipment of ₹ 4,518.29 crores. In earlier years consequent to the business plan approved by the re-constituted Board of Directors of the Holding Company, the Holding Company had through an external valuation specialist determined the value in use of property, plant and equipment and recorded an impairment provision of ₹ 7,970.63 crores in the books.

Based on recent business developments and changes in economy, the Board has made required revisions to the business plan and has accordingly updated the value in use calculations using the discounted cash flow method with the help of an external valuation specialist. Based on the same, the Holding Company has determined there are no material adjustments required to the impairment allowance already recorded. The value in use is sensitive to changes in certain inputs / assumptions used for forecasting the discounted cash flow projections due to inherent uncertainty involved in these assumptions.

Accordingly, the same has been considered as a key audit matter.

The auditors of Alok Infrastructure Limited have reported a key audit matter with respect to the fair valuation of the assets performed by the management by involving an independent valuer to assess the recoverability of the carrying value of its investment properties / inventories.

Our audit procedures included the following:

- We obtained an understanding, evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of controls that the Holding Company has in relation to impairment review processes.
- We assessed the Holding Company's valuation methodology applied in determining the recoverable amount. In making this assessment, we evaluated the competence and objectivity of Holding Company's internal specialists involved in the process.
- We assessed the assumptions around the key drivers of the cash flow forecasts including discount rates, expected growth rates and terminal growth rates used.
- We discussed with the management changes in key drivers as compared to the previous year to evaluate the reasonableness of the inputs and assumptions used in the cash flow forecasts.
- We have reviewed and assessed the company's valuation methodology and assumptions around the key drivers of the cash flow forecasts used in determining the recoverable amount.
- In respect of the key audit matter reported to us by the auditor of Alok Infrastructure Limited, we performed inquiry of the audit procedures performed by them to address the key audit matter. As reported to us by the subsidiary auditor, the following procedures have been performed by them:
 - o Reviewed the valuation report of the independent valuer and the methodologies adopted by the valuer for ascertaining fair value
- Assessed the disclosures made in the consolidated financial statements.

Other Information

The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether such other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation and presentation of these consolidated financial statements in terms of the requirements of the Act that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance including other comprehensive income, consolidated cash flows and consolidated statement of changes in equity of the Group including and its joint ventures in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended. The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and its joint ventures are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of their respective companies and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and its joint ventures are responsible for assessing the ability of their respective companies to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and its joint ventures are also responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of their respective companies.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3) (i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Holding Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Group and its joint ventures to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group and its joint ventures to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group and its joint ventures of which we are the independent auditors, to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditor. For the other entities included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding Company and such other entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements for the financial year ended March 31, 2026 and are therefore the key audit matter. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Other Matters

- (a) The Consolidated financial statements of the Company for the year ended March 31, 2025, were audited by the predecessor auditor vide their reports dated April 21, 2025, in which the predecessor auditor has expressed unmodified opinion.
- (b) We did not audit the financial statements and other financial information, in respect of 8 subsidiaries whose financial statements include total assets of ₹ 2013.61 crores as at March 31, 2026, and total revenues of ₹ 189.62 crores and net cash inflows of ₹ 85.49 crores for the year ended on that date. These financial statement and other financial information have been audited by other auditors, which financial statements, other financial information and auditor's reports have been furnished to us by the management. Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, in so far as it relates to the amounts and disclosures included in respect of these subsidiaries, and our report in terms of sub-sections (3) of Section 143 of the Act, in so far as it relates to the aforesaid subsidiaries is based solely on the reports of such other auditor.

- (c) The consolidated financial statements include the Group's share of net loss of ₹ 0.91 crores for the year ended March 31, 2026, as considered in the consolidated financial statements, in respect of 2 joint ventures, whose financial statements, other financial information have not been audited and whose unaudited financial statements, other unaudited financial information have been furnished to us by the Management. Our opinion, in so far as it relates amounts and disclosures included in respect of these joint ventures, and our report in terms of sub-sections (3) of Section 143 of the Act in so far as it relates to the aforesaid joint ventures, is based solely on such unaudited financial statements and other unaudited financial information. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us by the Management, these financial statements and other financial information are not material to the Group.

Our opinion above on the consolidated financial statements, and our report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements below, is not modified in respect of the above matters with respect to our reliance on the work done and the reports of the other auditors and the financial statements and other financial information certified by the Management.

ANNEXURE 2 TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT OF EVEN DATE ON THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF ALOK INDUSTRIES LIMITED

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of Alok Industries Limited (hereinafter referred to as the "Holding Company") as of and for the year ended March 31, 2026, we have audited the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements of the Holding Company and its subsidiaries (the Holding Company and its subsidiaries together referred to as "the Group") and its joint ventures, which are companies incorporated in India, as of that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and joint ventures, which are companies incorporated in India, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Holding Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Holding Company's internal financial controls with reference to the consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, specified under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both, issued by ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls with reference to the consolidated financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls With Reference to Consolidated Financial Statements

A company's internal financial control with reference to consolidated financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control with reference to consolidated financial statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the consolidated financial statements.

ANNEXURE 2 TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT OF EVEN DATE ON THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF ALOK INDUSTRIES LIMITED

Other Matters

Our report under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls with reference to the consolidated financial statements of the Holding Company, in so far as it relates to this 1 subsidiary, which are companies incorporated in India, is based on the corresponding reports of the auditors of such subsidiaries incorporated in India.

These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

a) Basis of preparation:

The financial statements of the Group have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified pursuant to section 133 of the Companies Act 2013 read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2023 (as amended from time to time) and presentation requirements of Division II of Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013, (Ind AS compliant Schedule III), as applicable to the Financial statements ('Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements').

The Group has prepared the financial statements on the basis that it will continue to operate as a going concern and further, the financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for certain financial instruments that are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies below:

- a. Derivative financial instruments,
- b. Certain financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value, and
- c. Defined benefit plans - plan assets measured at fair value;

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Group takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date.

In addition, for financial reporting purposes, fair value measurements are categorised into Level 1, 2, or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date
- Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The financial statements are presented in ₹, which is the functional currency and all values are rounded to the nearest crore (₹ 00,00,000), except when otherwise indicated.

to Consolidated Financial Statements For The Year Ended 31 March, 2026

b) Principles of consolidation and equity accounting:

i) Subsidiary companies

Subsidiary companies are all entities over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the relevant activities of the entity. Subsidiary companies are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for business combinations by the Group.

The Group combines the Financial Statements of the parent and its subsidiary companies line by line adding together like items of assets, liabilities, equity, income and expenses. Intercompany transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between Group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting Policies of subsidiary companies have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group. Non-controlling interest in the results and equity of subsidiary companies are shown separately in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss, Consolidated Statement of changes in equity and Balance Sheet respectively.

ii) Joint arrangements

Under Ind AS 111 Joint arrangements, investments in joint arrangements are classified as either joint operations or joint ventures. The classification depends on the contractual rights and obligations of each investor, rather than the legal structure of the joint arrangement. Interest in Joint Venture Company is accounted for using the equity method.

iii) Equity method

Under the equity method of accounting, the investments are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise share of the Group in post-acquisition profit and loss of the investee in profit and loss, and share of the Group in Other Comprehensive Income of the investee in Other Comprehensive Income. Dividends received or receivable from associate company and Joint Venture Company are recognised as a reduction in the carrying amount of the investment.

When the Group share of losses in an equity-accounted investment equals or exceeds its interest in the entity, including any other unsecured long-term receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the other entity.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its associate company and joint venture company are eliminated to the extent of the Group interest in these entities. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting Policies of equity accounted investees have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

The carrying amount of equity accounted investments are tested for impairment in accordance with the policy described in (l) below.

c) Current versus non-current classification

The Group presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current/non-current classification. An asset is treated as current when it is:

- Expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading
- Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

All other assets are classified as non-current

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in the normal operating cycle
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

The terms of the liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

Based on the nature of services and the normal time between the acquisition of assets and their realisation into cash and cash equivalents, the Group has ascertained its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of current and non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

d) Foreign Currency Transactions and Translation

The Group's consolidated financial statements are presented in INR, which is also the Parent Company's functional currency. For each entity the Group determines the functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency. The transactions in currencies other than the entity's functional currency ("foreign currencies") are recognised at the rates of exchange prevailing at the dates of the transactions. At the end of each reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date.

exchange differences on foreign currency borrowings relating to assets under construction for future productive use, which are included in the cost of those assets when they are regarded as an adjustment to interest costs on those foreign currency borrowings.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value is determined. The gain or loss arising on translation of non-monetary items measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on the change in fair value of the item (i.e., translation differences on items whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in OCI or profit or loss are also recognised in OCI or profit or loss, respectively).

In determining the spot exchange rate to use on initial recognition of the related asset, expense or income (or part of it) on the derecognition of a non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability relating to advance consideration, the date of the transaction is the date on which the Group initially recognises the non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability arising from the advance consideration. If there are multiple payments or receipts in advance, the Group determines the transaction date for each payment or receipt of advance consideration.

e) Revenue from contract with customers:

The Group recognises revenue from the following major sources, acting in the capacity of principal:

- Sale of consumer product
- Sale of services
- Other operating revenue

Sale of consumer product

The Group sells textile Products. The Group recognizes revenue on the sale of goods, net of discounts, sales incentives, estimated customer returns and rebates granted, if any, when control of the goods is transferred to the customer.

Discounts given include rebates, price reductions and other incentives given to customers. The Group bases its estimates on historical results, taking into consideration the type of customer, the type of transaction and the specifics of each arrangement.

Nature, timing of satisfaction of performance obligation and transaction price (Fixed and variable)

The control of goods is transferred to the customer depending upon the terms or as agreed with customer or delivery basis (i.e. at the point in time when goods are delivered to the customer or when the customer purchases the goods from the Group warehouse). Control is considered to be transferred to customer when customer has ability to direct the use of such goods and obtain substantially all the benefits from it such as following delivery, the customer has full discretion over the manner of distribution and price to sell the goods, has the primary responsibility when on selling the goods and bears the risks of obsolescence and loss in relation to the goods.

Based on the terms of the contract and as per business practice, the Group determines the transaction price considering the amount it expects to be entitled in exchange of transferring promised goods or services to the customer. It excludes amount collected on behalf of third parties such as taxes.

The Group provides volume discount and rebate schemes, to its customers on certain goods purchased by the customer once the quantity of goods purchased during the period exceeds a threshold specified in the contract. Volume discount and rebate schemes give rise to variable consideration. To estimate the variable consideration to which it will be entitled, the Group considers that either the expected value method or the most likely amount method, depending on which of them better predicts the amount of variable consideration for the particular type of contract.

Sale of services

Revenue from services mainly consists of job work income and is recognised when performance obligation is satisfied. The transaction price of these services is recognised as a contract liability upon receipt of advance from the customer, if any.

Export Incentives

Export benefits arising from Duty Drawback scheme, Merchandise Export Incentive Scheme and other eligible export incentives are recognised on post export basis at the rate at which the entitlements accrue and is included in the 'Other Operating Income' (Revenue from operation).

Contract assets, contract liabilities and trade receivables

Revenues in excess of invoicing are classified as contract assets (which we refer as unbilled revenue) while invoicing in excess of revenues (which we refer to as unearned revenues) and advance from customers are classified as contract liabilities. A receivable is recognised by the Group when the control over the goods is transferred to the customer such as when goods are delivered as this represents the point in time at which the right to consideration becomes unconditional, as only the passage of time is required before payment is due. The average credit period on sale of goods is upto 90 days.

f) Income taxes:

Current tax

Current tax payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from 'profit before tax' as reported in the statement of profit and loss because of items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the Ind AS financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. While preparing standalone Ind AS financial statements, temporary differences are calculated using the carrying amount as per standalone Ind AS financial statements and tax bases as determined by reference to the method of tax computation.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- When the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss.
- In respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit. In addition, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of goodwill.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Current and deferred tax are recognised in statement of profit and loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively. Where current tax or deferred tax arises from the initial accounting for a business combination, the tax effect is included in the accounting for the business combination.

g) Property, Plant and Equipment

Assets held for use in the production or supply of goods or services or for administrative purposes, are stated in the consolidated balance sheet at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. Freehold land is not depreciated, however, it is subject to impairment.

Properties in the course of construction for production, supply or administrative purposes are carried at cost, less any recognised impairment loss. Cost includes professional fees and, for qualifying assets, borrowing costs capitalised in accordance with the Group's accounting policy. Such properties are classified to the appropriate categories of property, plant and equipment when completed and ready for intended use.

Likewise, subsequent cost incurred to overhaul the plant and machineries and major inspection costs are recognised in the carrying amount of the plant and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria are satisfied. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to statement of profit and loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other property assets, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in statement of profit and loss.

Stand-by equipment and servicing equipment are recognised as property, plant and equipment if they are held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, for rental to others, or for administrative purposes and are expected to be used during more than one period. Property, plant and equipment which are not ready for intended use as on the date of Balance Sheet are disclosed as 'Capital work-in-progress'.

Capital work in progress is stated at cost, net of accumulated impairment loss, if any.

Non-current assets held for sale

The Group classifies non-current assets as held for sale if their carrying amounts will be recovered principally through a sale rather than through continuing use.

Non-current assets classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. Costs to sell are the incremental costs directly attributable to the disposal of an asset, excluding finance costs and income tax expense.

For these purposes, sale transactions include exchanges of non-current assets for other non-current assets when the exchange has commercial substance. The criteria for held for sale classification is regarded met only when the assets is available for immediate sale in its present condition, subject only to terms that are usual and customary for sales of such assets, its sale is highly probable; and it will genuinely be sold, not abandoned. The Group treats sale of the asset to be highly probable when:

- The appropriate level of management is committed to a plan to sell the asset,
- An active programme to locate a buyer and complete the plan has been initiated (if applicable),
- The sale is expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year from the date of classification, and Actions required to complete the plan indicate that it is unlikely that significant changes to the plan will be made or that the plan will be withdrawn.

Depreciation methods, estimated useful lives and residual value:

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of assets (other than freehold land) less their residual values over their useful lives, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis. Depreciation on property, plant and equipment has been provided on straight line method as per the useful life prescribed in Schedule II of The Group's Act, 2013, except in case of following assets, where useful life used is different than those prescribed in part C of Schedule II:

Asset category	Estimated useful life
Buildings	50 to 60 years
Plant and Machinery	15 to 40 years

Based on technical evaluation performed, the management believes that the useful lives as given above, best represent, the period over which management expects to use these assets. Hence, the useful lives for these assets is different from the useful lives as prescribed under Part C of Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013.

The residual values are not more than 5% of the original cost of the asset.

The residual values, useful lives and method of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and any changes there in are considered as change in estimate and accounted prospectively.

Goods and Services Tax (GST) paid on acquisition of assets or on incurring expenses

Expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST/ value added taxes paid, except:

- When the tax incurred on a purchase of assets or services is not recoverable from the taxation authority, in which case, the tax paid is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item, as applicable
- When receivables and payables are stated with the amount of tax included the net amount of tax recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is included as part of other current/non-current assets/ liabilities in the balance sheet.

h) Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately

Intangible assets with finite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses. Amortisation is recognised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful life and amortisation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis. Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses, if any. The assessment of indefinite life is reviewed annually to determine whether the indefinite life continues to be supportable. If not, the change in useful life from indefinite to finite is made on a prospective basis.

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination and recognised separately from goodwill are initially recognised at their fair value at the acquisition date (which is regarded as their cost).

Derecognition of intangible assets

An intangible asset is derecognised on disposal, or when no future economic benefits are expected from use or disposal. Gains or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset, measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset are recognised in statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognised.

Useful lives of intangible assets

Estimated useful lives of the intangible assets are as follows:

Asset category	Estimated useful life
Computer software	6 years
Trademarks / Brands	10 years

i) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. Interest income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the period in which they are incurred.

The Group may incur borrowing costs during an extended period in which it suspends the activities necessary to prepare an asset for its intended use or sale. Such costs are costs of holding partially completed assets and do not qualify for capitalisation. However, an entity does not normally suspend capitalising borrowing costs during a period when it carries out substantial technical and administrative work. The Group also does not suspend capitalising borrowing costs when a temporary delay is a necessary part of the process of getting an asset ready for its intended use or sale.

The Group shall cease capitalising borrowing costs when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying asset for its intended use or sale are complete.

j) Investment Property:

Investment properties are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss, if any.

The cost includes the cost of replacing parts and borrowing costs for long-term construction projects if the recognition criteria are met. When significant parts of the investment property are required to be replaced at intervals, the Group depreciates them separately based on their specific useful lives. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

The Group depreciates building component of investment property over 30 years from the date of original purchase on straight line method basis.

The Group, based on technical assessment made by technical expert and management estimate, depreciates the building over estimated useful lives which are different from the useful life prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013. The management believes that these estimated useful lives are realistic and reflect fair approximation of the period over which the assets are likely to be used.

Though the Group measures investment property using cost-based measurement, the fair value of investment property is disclosed in the notes. Fair values are determined based on an annual evaluation performed by an accredited external independent valuer applying model issued by the Indian Valuation Standards Board.

Investment properties are derecognised either when they have been disposed of or when they are permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefit is expected from their disposal. The difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset is recognised in profit or loss in the period of derecognition. In determining the amount of consideration from the derecognition of investment property the Group considers the effects of variable consideration, existence of a significant financing component, non-cash consideration, and consideration payable to the buyer (if any).

Transfers are made to (or from) investment property only when there is a change in use.

k) Financial instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

I. Financial Assets

A) Initial recognition and measurement

All financial assets are recognised initially at fair value plus, in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. However, trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at transaction price.

B) Subsequent measurement

For purposes of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified in four categories:

- Debt instruments at amortised cost

to Consolidated Financial Statements For The Year Ended 31 March, 2026

- The asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets for collecting contractual cash flows, and
- Contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding.

This category is the most relevant to the Group. After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included in other income in the statement of profit and loss. The losses arising from impairment are recognised in the profit or loss. This category generally applies to trade and other receivables.

- Debt instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI)

A 'debt instrument' is classified as at the FVTOCI if both of the following criteria are met:

- The objective of the business model is achieved both by collecting contractual cash flows and selling the financial assets, and
- The asset's contractual cash flows represent SPPI.

Debt instruments included within the FVTOCI category are measured initially as well as at each reporting date at fair value. Fair value movements are recognised in the other comprehensive income (OCI). On derecognition of the asset, cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from the equity to statement of profit and loss. Interest earned whilst holding FVTOCI debt instrument is reported as interest income using the EIR method.

- Debt instruments at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)

FVTPL is a residual category for debt instruments. Any debt instrument, which does not meet the criteria for categorisation as at amortised cost or as FVTOCI, is classified as at FVTPL.

In addition, the Group may elect to designate a debt instrument, which otherwise meets amortised cost or FVTOCI criteria, as at FVTPL. However, such election is allowed only if doing so reduces or eliminates a measurement or recognition inconsistency (referred to as 'accounting mismatch'). Debt instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

- Equity instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI)

All equity investments in scope of Ind AS 109 are measured at fair value. Equity instruments which are held for trading and contingent consideration recognised by an acquirer in a business combination to which Ind AS103 applies are classified as at FVTPL. For all other equity instruments, the Group may make an irrevocable election to present in other comprehensive income subsequent changes in the fair value. The Group makes such election on an instrument-by-instrument basis. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable.

If the Group decides to classify an equity instrument as at FVTOCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognised in the OCI. There is no recycling of the amounts from OCI to statement of profit & loss, even on sale of investment. However, The Group may transfer the cumulative gain or loss within equity.

Equity instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

C) Derecognition

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e. removed from the Group's balance sheet) when:

- The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or
- The Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass through' arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset. When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass through arrangement, it evaluates if and to what extent it has retained the risks and rewards of ownership. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all of the risks and rewards of the asset, nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

D) Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses on a forward looking basis the expected credit losses associated with its assets carried at amortised cost and FVOCI debt instruments. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk. For trade receivables only, the Group applies the simplified approach permitted by Ind AS 109 Financial Instruments, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables.

II. Financial Liabilities

A) Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, payables, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

B) Subsequent measurement

The measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification, as described below:

- Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss. Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are incurred for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term. This category also includes derivative financial instruments entered into by The Group that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships as defined by Ind AS 109. Separated embedded derivatives are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments. Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognised in the profit or loss.

Financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss are designated as such at the initial date of recognition, and only if the criteria in Ind AS 109 are satisfied. For

liabilities designated as FVTPL, fair value gains/ losses attributable to changes in own credit risk are recognised in OCI. These gains/ loss are not subsequently transferred to statement of profit and loss. However, the Group may transfer the cumulative gain or loss within equity. All other changes in fair value of such liability are recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

- Loans and Borrowings

This is the category most relevant to the Group. After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the EIR method. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the EIR amortisation process.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the statement of profit and loss.

- Financial guarantee contracts

Financial guarantee contracts issued by the Group are those contracts that require a payment to be made to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because the specified debtor fails to make a payment when due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument. Financial guarantee contracts are recognised initially as a liability at fair value, adjusted for transaction costs that are directly attributable to the issuance of the guarantee. Subsequently, the liability is measured at the higher of the amount of loss allowance determined as per impairment requirements of Ind AS 109 and the amount recognised less cumulative amortisation.

The fair value of financial guarantees is determined as the present value of the difference in net cash flows between the contractual payments under the debt instrument and the contractual payments that would be required without the guarantee, or the estimated amount that would be payable to a third party for assuming the obligations.

C) De-recognition

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

D) Compound instruments

The component parts of compound instruments (optionally convertible preference share) issued by the Group are classified separately as financial liabilities and equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument. A conversion option that will be settled by the exchange of a fixed amount of cash or another financial asset for a fixed number of the Group's own equity instruments is an equity instrument.

At the date of issue, the fair value of the liability component is estimated using the prevailing market interest rate for similar non-convertible instruments. This amount is recorded as a liability on an amortised cost basis using the effective interest method until extinguished upon conversion or at the instrument's maturity date.

The conversion option classified as equity is determined by deducting the amount of the liability component from the fair value of the compound instrument as a whole. This is recognised and included in equity, net of income tax effects, and is not subsequently remeasured. In addition, the conversion option classified as equity will remain in equity until the conversion option is exercised, in which case, the balance recognised in equity will be transferred to other component of equity. When the conversion option remains unexercised at the maturity date of the convertible instrument, the balance recognised in equity will be transferred to retained earnings. No gain or loss is recognised in statement of profit and loss upon conversion or expiration of the conversion option.

Transaction costs that relate to the issue of the convertible instruments are allocated to the liability and equity components in proportion to the allocation of the gross proceeds. Transaction costs relating to the equity component are recognised directly in equity. Transaction costs relating to the liability component are included in the carrying amount of the liability component and are amortised over the lives of the convertible instrument using the effective interest method.

III. Reclassification of financial assets / liabilities

After initial recognition, no reclassification is made for financial assets which are equity instruments and financial liabilities. For financial assets which are debt instruments, a reclassification is made only if there is a change in the business model for managing those assets. Changes to the business model are expected to be infrequent. The Group's senior management determines change in the business model as a result of external or internal changes which are significant to the Group's operations.

IV. Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet where there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of Group or the counterparty.

V. Derivatives and hedging activities

The Group enters derivatives like forwards contracts to hedge its foreign currency risks. Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently marked to market at the end of each reporting period with profit/loss being recognised in statement of profit and loss. Derivative assets/liabilities are classified under "other financial assets/other financial liabilities". Profits and losses arising from cancellation of contracts are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

i) Inventories:

Finished goods are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Raw material, packing materials and stores & spares are stated at costs unless the finished goods in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold below cost. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale.

Costs incurred in bringing each product to its present location and condition are accounted for as follows:

Raw materials, Packing Materials and stores & spares: cost includes cost of purchase and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Finished goods and work in progress: cost includes cost of direct materials and labour and a proportion of manufacturing overheads based on the normal operating capacity, but excluding borrowing costs.

Due allowances are made for slow moving and obsolete inventories based on estimates made by the Group.

m) Impairment of non-financial assets

At the end of each reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss, if any. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. When a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be identified, corporate assets are also allocated to individual cash-generating units, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash-generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be identified.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and intangible assets not yet available for use are tested for impairment at least annually, and whenever there is an indication that the asset may be impaired.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in statement of profit and loss.

When an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or a cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in statement of profit and loss.

n) Provisions and contingent liabilities:

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Group will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material). When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognised as an asset if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

A contingent liability is:-

- a) a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity; or
- b) a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognised because:-
 - i) it is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; or
 - ii) the amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability.

Contingent liability is disclosed in the case of:

- a present obligation arising from past events, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation;
- a present obligation arising from past events, when no reliable estimate is possible;
- a possible obligation arising from past events, unless the probability of outflow of resources is remote.

A contingent asset is disclosed where an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date.

o) Retirement and other employee benefits:

Post-employment benefits

- Payments to defined contribution benefit plans are recognised as an expense when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions. For defined benefit retirement plans, the cost of providing benefits is determined using the projected unit credit method, with actuarial valuations being carried out at the end of each annual reporting period. Remeasurement, comprising actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the changes to the asset ceiling (if applicable) and the return on plan assets (excluding net interest), is reflected immediately in the balance sheet with a charge or credit recognised in other comprehensive income in the period in which they occur. Remeasurement recognised in other comprehensive income is not reclassified to statement of profit and loss. Past service cost is recognised in statement of profit and loss in the period of a plan amendment. Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate at the beginning of the period to the net defined benefit liability or asset. Defined benefit costs are categorised as follows:

- Service cost (including current service cost, past service cost, as well as gains and losses on curtailments and settlements);
- Net interest expense or income; and
- Re-measurement.

The Group presents the first two components of defined benefit costs in statement of profit and loss in the line item "Employee benefits expense", and the last component in Other Comprehensive Income. Curtailment gains and losses are accounted for as past service costs.

The retirement benefit obligation recognised in the balance sheet represents the actual deficit or surplus in the Group's defined benefit plans. Any surplus resulting from this calculation is limited to the present value of any economic benefits available in the form of refunds from the plans or reductions in future contributions to the plans.

Terminal benefits

A liability for a termination benefit is recognised at the earlier of when the entity can no longer withdraw the offer of the termination benefit and when the entity recognises any related restructuring costs.

Short-term and other long-term employee benefits

A liability is recognised for benefits accruing to employees in respect of wages and salaries, performance incentives and similar benefits other than compensated absences in the period the related service is rendered at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid in exchange for that service.

Liabilities recognised in respect of compensated absences are measured on the basis of actuarial valuation as on the balance sheet date.

Liabilities recognised in respect of other long-term employee benefits are measured at the present value of the estimated future cash outflows expected to be made by the Group in respect of services provided by employees up to the reporting date.

p) Earnings per share:

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the profit/loss attributable to the owners of the Parent by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the financial year.

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figure used in determination of basic earnings per share to take into account the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential equity shares, and the weighted average number of additional equity shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

q) Operating segment

Identification of segment - Operating segments are reported in the manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM) of the Group.

Segment accounting policies - The Board of Directors of the Parent Company have been identified as the Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM) as defined under Ind AS 108. CODM reviews overall financial information of the Group together for performance evaluation and allocation of resources and does not review any discrete information to evaluate performance of any individual product or geography.

The Group prepares its segment information in conformity with accounting policies adopted for preparing and presenting the financial statements of the Group as a whole.

r) Onerous contracts

If The Group has a contract that is onerous, the present obligation under the contract is recognised and measured as a provision. However, before a separate provision for an onerous contract is established, The Group recognises any impairment loss that has occurred on assets dedicated to that contract.

An onerous contract is a contract under which the unavoidable costs (i.e., the costs that The Group cannot avoid because it has the contract) of meeting the obligations under the contract exceed the economic benefits expected to be received under it. The unavoidable costs under a contract reflect the least net cost of exiting from the contract, which is the lower of the cost of fulfilling it and any compensation or penalties arising from failure to fulfil it. The cost of fulfilling a contract comprises the costs that relate directly to the contract (i.e., both incremental costs and an allocation of costs directly related to contract activities).

s) Key sources of estimation uncertainty and critical accounting judgements

In the course of applying the accounting policies, the Group is required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amount of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future period, if the revision affects current and future periods.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

a) Useful lives of property, plant and equipment, investment property, intangible asset and right-of-use assets

Management reviews the useful lives of property, plant and equipment at least once a year. Such lives are dependent upon an assessment of both the technical lives of the assets and also their likely economic lives based on various internal and external factors including relative efficiency and operating

b) Impairment of property plant and equipment

Determining whether the property, plant and equipment are impaired requires an estimate in the value in use of cash generating units. It requires to estimate the future cash flows expected to arise from the cash generating units and a suitable discount rate in order to calculate present value. When the present value of the cash flows are less than carrying value of property, plant and equipment a material impairment loss may arise. Refer Note 2 for further disclosure.

c) Impairment of investments in joint ventures

Determining whether the investments in joint ventures are impaired requires an estimate in the value in use. In considering the value in use, the Management have anticipated the future cash flows, discount rates and other factors of the underlying businesses/companies. In certain cases, the Group engages third party qualified valuers to perform the valuation. The management works closely with the qualified external valuers to establish the appropriate valuation techniques and inputs to the model. Refer Note 5 and 43 for further disclosure.

d) Provisions, liabilities and contingencies

Provisions and liabilities are recognized in the period when it becomes probable that there will be a future outflow of funds resulting from past events that can reasonably be estimated. The timing of recognition requires application of judgement to existing facts and circumstances which may be subject to change.

In the normal course of business, contingent liabilities may arise from litigation and other claims against the Group. Potential liabilities that are possible but not probable of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits are treated as contingent liabilities. Such liabilities are disclosed in the notes but are not recognized. Refer Note 39 for further disclosure.

e) Taxes

Deferred tax assets are recognized for unused tax losses to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the losses can be utilized. Significant management judgement is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognised, based upon the likely timing and the level of future taxable profits together with future tax planning strategies. Refer Note 7 for further disclosure.

f) Employee benefit plans

The cost of defined benefit gratuity plan and other post-employment benefits are determined using actuarial valuations. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

The mortality rate is based on publicly available mortality tables for India. Those mortality tables tend to change only at interval in response to demographic changes. Future salary increases and gratuity increases are based on expected future inflation rates. Refer Note 27 and 45 for further disclosure.

g) Lease

The application of Ind AS 116 requires Company to make judgements and estimates that affect the measurement of right-of-use assets and liabilities. In determining the lease term, The Group consider all facts and circumstances that create an economic incentive to exercise renewal options (or not exercise termination options). Assessing whether a contract includes a lease also requires judgement. Estimates are required to determine the appropriate discount rate used to measure lease liabilities.

The Group cannot readily determine the interest rate implicit in the lease, therefore, it uses its incremental borrowing rate (IBR) to measure lease liabilities. The IBR is the rate of interest that The Group would have to pay to borrow over a similar term, and with a similar security, the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment. The IBR therefore reflects what The Group 'would have to pay', which requires estimation when no observable rates are available or when they need to be adjusted to reflect the terms and conditions of the lease. The Group estimates the IBR using observable inputs (such as market interest rates) when available and is required to make certain entity-specific estimates. Refer Note 49 for further disclosure.

h) Recoverability of Trade Receivables

Judgements are required in assessing the recoverability of overdue trade receivables and determining whether a provision against those receivables is required. Factors considered include the credit rating of the counterparty, the amount and timing of anticipated future payments and any possible actions that can be taken to mitigate the risk of non-payment. Refer note 10 for further disclosure.

i) Inventories

Inventories are reviewed on a regular basis and the Group make allowance for excess or obsolete inventories and write down to net realizable value primarily based on historical trends and management estimates of expected and future product demand and related pricing.

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Judgements are required in assessing the expected realisable values of Inventories. Factors considered includes demand levels and pricing competition in the industry. Refer note 9 for further disclosure.

t) Changes in accounting policies and disclosuresNew and amended standards

The Ministry of Corporate Affairs ('MCA') notifies new standards or amendments to the existing standards under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended from time to time. For the year ended March 31, 2026, the MCA

has notified amendments to (Ind AS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements) and (Ind AS 7, Statement of Cash Flows and Ind AS 107, Financial Instruments: Disclosures), amendments relating to Classification of liabilities as current or non-current and non-current liabilities with Covenants and Disclosure of supplier finance arrangements, applicable to the Company, w.e.f., April 1, 2025. The Group has reviewed the new pronouncements and based on its evaluation, has determined that the new pronouncement is not applicable to the Group.

Notes:

- a. On July 12, 2024, certain spinning plants of the Parent Company located at Silvassa was struck with tornado, causing damage to certain assets of the Parent Company. Basis preliminary assessment, management has assessed loss of ₹ 61.42 crore due to above and recorded a loss relating to property, plant and equipment (as per WDV) and inventories under the head exceptional items. The Parent Company is of the view that it has adequately covered its assets by insurance policy and the surveyor's assessment is in progress, the Parent Company had received ₹ 55 crore in the previous year from insurance company and has received ₹ 25 crore in current year hence recognised exceptional gain of ₹ 18.58 crore in the current financial year. Further the Parent Company has recognised exceptional gain ₹ 12.21 crore from sale of such damaged assets.
- b. During the previous year, the Parent Company has disposed off certain Investment properties, Leasehold land and building situated at Mumbai, Pawne and Mahape resulted into a gain of ₹ 94.14 crore.

32 Going Concern

In the earlier year, the Parent Company has completed all the steps as laid down in the resolution plan approved by the National Company Law Tribunal vide its order dated 8th March 2019 and the resolution applicants had obtained joint control over the Parent Company and the Board of Directors had been re-constituted on 14th September 2020, being the closing date as determined by the Parent Company in terms of the resolution plan.

The Group has incurred a loss of ₹ 775.01 crore for the year ended March 31, 2026 and has accumulated losses of ₹ 24,993.39 crore as on that date, its current liabilities exceeds its current assets by ₹ 909.88 crore and it has earned EBITDA of ₹ 103 crore for the year ended March 31, 2026. The market condition is improving and considering the cash flow projection of the Group, the financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis.

- 33 As per Clause 1.2 (xi) of Approved Resolution Plan, the outstanding debt amounting to ₹17,384.02 crore assigned to Resolution Applicants shall not carry interest for the first 8 years from the Closing Date (as defined in the Approved Resolution Plan), hence such debt has been measured at cost. After such period of 8 years, the terms of assigned debt shall be mutually agreed among the Resolution Applicants and the Parent Company. The Approved Resolution Plan has an overriding effect on the requirements of Ind AS, as per legal view obtained by the Parent Company in this regard. Hence, had the Parent Company applied the Ind AS, it would have recognised the assigned debt at its fair value and accordingly recognized the imputed interest cost over the period of loan in the statement of profit and loss.
- 34 As on June 2017, the Parent Company had an amount of ₹11,623.94 crore receivable from trading debtors on account of sale of fabric ("Outstanding Trading Dues"). As at 31st March 2019, the Parent Company had created full provision against said receivables by charging it to the statement of profit and loss in earlier years. As per the Approved Resolution

to Consolidated Financial Statements For The Year Ended 31 March, 2026

Plan, if any of the trading debtors make payment towards the Outstanding Trading Dues or any person is required to contribute to the assets of the Parent Company under any legal process against the Outstanding Trading Dues and has contributed the same, such amounts (net of any income tax payable by the Parent Company on account of such receipt of the Outstanding Trading Dues) shall be deposited in a designated escrow account ("Escrow Account") opened in the name of the Parent Company. Provided however, nothing contained in the resolution plan shall oblige the Resolution Applicants or the Parent Company to take steps for recovery of the Outstanding Trading Dues.

Accordingly, the Parent Company has an obligation to deposit into the escrow account any collections received out of the "Outstanding Trading Dues" or otherwise, as stated above, for the benefit of the Financial Creditors and as a result therefore, the risk and reward associated with the Outstanding Trading Dues now belong to the Financial Creditors. Accordingly the Parent Company had derecognised the said outstanding trade receivables and related provisions in the books. The Parent Company has not received any amounts towards Outstanding Trading Dues in the current year.

35 The Government of India has notified the Code on wages, 2019 with effect from November 21, 2025 changing definition of wages. The Company has assessed incremental impact of wage bill which has been considered in the statement of Profit & Loss account.

Notes:

- In subsidiary company, arbitration proceeds initiated by Peninsula Land Limited before the Tribunal towards VAT, ITFS and other related liabilities.
During the year the subsidiary company has provided receivables in the books hence there is no contingent liability as on 31 March 2026.
- Claims / Debts against the Parent Company up to the closing date which are addressed under the NCLT approved resolution plan are not included in contingent liabilities though many of such claims / debts may be pending for disposal at various judicial forums. As per clause 3.3.4 of the aforesaid resolution plan, these liabilities stands extinguished.
Accordingly, the management has assessed that the possibility of outflow of resources embodying economic benefits with respect to such claims / debts is remote.
- All direct and indirect tax liabilities relating to assessments of earlier year up to the closing date stand extinguished as per the NCLT approved resolution plan. Further, the implementation of the resolution plan does not have any effect over claims or receivables owed to the Parent Company. Accordingly, the Parent Company has assessed that any receivables due to the Parent Company, evaluated based on merits of underlying litigations, from various governmental agencies continues to subsist.

to Consolidated Financial Statements For The Year Ended 31 March, 2026

45 Disclosures Pursuant to – “Employee benefits”:

i. Defined contribution plans:

The Group’s contribution to Provident Fund for the year 2025-26 aggregating to ₹ 8.28 crore (Previous Year: ₹ 8.99 crore), ₹ 0.72 crore (Previous Year: ₹ 0.90 crore) for ESIC has been recognised in the statement of profit and loss under the head employee benefits expense. (Refer Note 27).

ii. Defined benefit plans:

Gratuity Plan:

The gratuity plan is governed by the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. Under the act, employee who has completed five years of service is entitled to specific benefit, though the gratuity liability is recognised from the date the employee commences service, regardless of whether the employee has completed five years of continuous service. The level of benefits provided depends on the member’s length of service and salary at retirement age.

The Group makes annual contribution to the Employee’s Company Gratuity Assurance Scheme, a funded defined benefit plan for qualifying employees. The Fund invests in the scheme of insurance with the Life Insurance Corporation of India, IndiaFirst Life Insurance Company Limited, SBI Life Insurance Company Limited and Canara HSBC Life Insurance Company Limited. The scheme provides for lump sum payment to vested employees at retirement, death while in employment or on termination of employment of an amount equivalent to fifteen days salary payable for each completed year of service or part thereof in excess of six months.

The plans typically expose the Group to actuarial risks such as: interest rate risk, longevity risk and salary risk.

Interest risk : The plan exposes the Group to the risk off all in interest rates. A fall in interest rates will result in an increase in the ultimate cost of providing the above benefit and will thus result in an increase in the value of the liability.

Longevity Risk : The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the best estimate of the mortality of plan participants both during and after their employment. An increase in the life expectancy of the plan participants will increase the plan’s liability.

Salary risk: The present value of the defined benefit plan is calculated with the assumption of salary increase rate of plan participants in future. Deviation in the rate of increase of salary in future for plan participants from the rate of increase in salary used to determine the present value of obligation will have abearing on the plan’s liability.

The most recent actuarial valuation of the plan assets and the present value of the defined benefit obligation were carried out at 31st March, 2026 by KP Actuaries and Consultants LLP. The present value of the defined benefit obligation, and the related current service cost and past service cost, were measured using the Project Unit Credit Method as per Ind AS 19.

Fair value hierarchy

The Group uses the following hierarchy for determining and/or disclosing the fair value of financial instrument by valuation technique:

- (i) Level 1 — quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- (ii) Level 2 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable;
- (iii) Level 3 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

There has been no transfers between level 1 & level 2 during the period.

48 Capital Management and Financial Risk Management Framework

The Group being in a working capital intensive industry, its objective is to maintain a strong credit rating, healthy ratios and establish a capital structure that would maximize the return to stakeholders through optimum mix of debt and equity.

The Group's capital requirement is mainly to fund its capex, working capital, repayment of principal and interest on its borrowings. The principal source of funding of the Group has been, and is expected to continue to be, cash generated from its operations supplemented by funding from bank borrowings and the capital markets. The Group is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements.

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments in light of changes in economic conditions and the requirements of the financial covenants. The Group monitors capital using a gearing ratio, which is net debt divided by total capital plus net debt. Since net worth of the Group is negative, debt equity ratio is not calculated.

The key risks associated with day to day operations of the Group and working capital management are given below:

A Credit Risk:

Credit risk is the risk that counter party will not meet its obligation under a financial instrument or customer contract leading to a financial loss. The Group is exposed to credit risk mainly from trade receivables and other financial assets.

i) Trade Receivables

Trade receivables are typically unsecured and are derived from revenue earned from customers. Credit risk has been managed by the Group through credit approvals, establishing credit limits and continuously monitoring the creditworthiness of customers to which the Group grants credit terms in the normal course of business. On account of adoption of Ind AS 109, the Group uses expected credit loss model to assess the impairment loss or gain. The Group uses a provision matrix and forward-looking information and an assessment of the credit risk over the expected life of the financial asset to compute the expected credit loss allowance for trade receivables. Concentrations of credit risk with respect to trade receivables are limited.

The following table gives details in respect of percentage of revenue generated from the top ten customers.

Particulars	For the year ended
	31 March 2026	31 March 2025
Revenue from top 10 customers	45%	46%

Beyond 12 months	319.81	280.04
Impairment allowance for doubtful debts	(315.23)	(286.00)
Total	318.44	439.52

ii) Other Financial Assets & loans

The Group has limited credit risk arising from cash and cash equivalents as the deposits are maintained with banks and financial institutions with high credit rating. Hence, these are low risk items and the Group evaluates the recoverability of these financial assets at each reporting date and wherever required, a provision is created against the same.

NOTES

to Consolidated Financial Statements For The Year Ended 31 March, 2026

B Market Risk:

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises of three types of risks – interest rate risk, currency risk and other price risk in a fluctuating market environment. Financial instrument affected by market risks includes loans and borrowings, deposits, derivatives and other financial assets.

i) Currency Risk

The Group's functional currency is Indian Rupees (INR). The Group undertakes transactions denominated in foreign currencies; consequently, exposure to exchange rate fluctuations arise. Volatility in exchange rates affects the Group's revenue from export markets and the costs of imports. The Group has exports and to that extent has a natural hedge as a mitigation measure to cover foreign exchange risk on account of imports/expenses in foreign currency.

The Group manages its foreign currency risk by entering into forward contracts.

Foreign Currency Sensitivity

5% is the sensitivity rate used when reporting foreign currency risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in foreign exchange rates. The sensitivity analysis includes only outstanding foreign currency denominated monetary items and adjusts their translation at the period end for a 5% change in foreign currency rates. A positive number below indicates an increase in profit and negative number below indicates a decrease in profit.

Following is the analysis of change in profit and pre-tax equity where the Indian Rupee strengthens and weakens by 5% against the relevant currency:

Currency	Effect on profit before tax Change in rate (upward 5%)		Effect on profit before tax Change in rate (downward 5%)
	31 March 2026	31 March 2025	31 March 2026	31 March 2025

USD	2.18	0.63	(2.18)	(0.63)
GBP	(0.01)	(0.01)	0.01	0.01

Foreign currency exposure & sensitivity disclosed above excludes balances of foreign subsidiaries denominated in the local currency of the country of operation.

ii) Interest rate risk

- a) Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group is exposed to interest rate risk because funds are borrowed at both fixed and floating interest rates. Interest rate risk is measured by using the cash flow sensitivity for changes in variable interest rate. The borrowings of the Group are principally denominated in rupees with a mix of fixed and floating rates of interest. The Group has exposure to interest rate risk, arising principally on changes in base lending rate. The Group uses a mix of interest rate sensitive financial instruments to manage the liquidity and fund requirements for its day to day operations. The risk is managed by the Group by maintaining an appropriate mix between fixed and floating rate borrowings.
- b) The profile of the Group's fixed and floating rate borrowings is given below:

Particulars	₹ in Crore
	31 March 2026	31 March 2025
Variable interest rate borrowings	3,641.07	3,644.90
Fixed interest rate borrowings	3,543.79	3,542.52

The Group has a long term borrowing of ₹ 17,384.02 crore which is interest free for a period of 8 years as per the resolution plan (Refer note 32). Being interest free, there is no interest rate risk on this loan for the next 3 years. Further subsidiaries Alok Industries International Limited and Alok World Wide Limited have interest free borrowings to the tune of ₹ 1,536.06 Cr. (previous year ₹ 1,388.82 crore).

Interest rate sensitivity

If interest rates had been 50 basis points higher/lower and all other variables were held constant, following is the impact on profit. A positive effect is decrease in profit and negative effect is increase in profit.

Particulars	Currency	Increase / decrease in basis points	₹ in crore
			Effect on profit before tax
31 March 2026	INR	50.00	18.22
	INR	(50.00)	(18.22)
31 March 2025	INR	50.00	18.24
	INR	(50.00)	(18.24)

to Consolidated Financial Statements For The Year Ended 31 March, 2026

iii) Commodity Price Risk

Commodity price risk arises due to fluctuation in prices of raw materials like cotton and yarn. The Company has a risk management framework aimed at prudently managing the risk arising from the volatility in commodity prices and freight costs. The Company's commodity risk is managed centrally through well-established trading operations and control processes.

C Financial risk management objectives:

The Group has a Risk Management Committee established by its Board of Directors for overseeing the Risk Management Framework and developing and monitoring the Group's risk management policies. The risk management policies are established to ensure timely identification and evaluation of risks, setting acceptable risk thresholds, identifying and mapping controls against these risks, monitor the risks and their limits, improve risk awareness and transparency. Risk management policies and systems are reviewed regularly to reflect changes in the market conditions and the Group's activities to provide reliable information to the Management and the Board to evaluate the adequacy of the risk management framework in relation to the risk faced by the Group.

D Liquidity Risk:

Liquidity risk refers to the risk of financial distress or extraordinary high financing costs arising due to shortage of liquid funds in a situation where business conditions unexpectedly deteriorate and requiring financing. The Group requires funds both for short term operational needs as well as for long term capital expenditure for capex. The Group generates sufficient cash flow for operations, which together with the available cash and cash equivalents provide liquidity in the short-term and long-term. The Group has established an appropriate liquidity risk management framework for the management of the Group's short, medium and long-term funding and liquidity management requirements. The Group manages liquidity risk through cash generated from operations, banking facilities and reserve borrowing facilities, by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows, and by matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities. As at 31st March, 2026, the Parent Company has undrawn committed borrowing facilities amounting to ₹ 63.49 crore and the Parent Company expects to enjoy all the working capital limits sanctioned to it in FY 26-27.

The following tables detail the Group's remaining contractual maturity for its non-derivative financial liabilities with agreed repayment periods. The amount disclosed in the tables have been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay. The contractual maturity is based on the earliest date on which the Group may be required to pay.

The Company has engaged the services of KFinTech as the agency to provide e-voting facility.

The manner of voting, including voting remotely by (i) individual members holding shares of the Company in demat mode, (ii) members other than individuals holding shares of the Company in demat mode, (iii) members holding shares of the Company in physical mode; and (iv) members who have not registered their e-mail address, is explained in the instructions given under (C) and (D) hereinbelow.

The remote e-voting facility will be available during the following voting period:

REMOTE E-VOTING PERIOD
Commencement of remote e-voting	Monday, July 20, 2026 at 9:00 a.m. (IST)
End of remote e-voting	Thursday, July 23, 2026 at 5:00 p.m. (IST)

The remote e-voting will not be allowed beyond the aforesaid date and time and the remote e-voting module shall be forthwith disabled by KFinTech upon expiry of the aforesaid period.

Voting rights of a Member / Beneficial Owner (in case of electronic shareholding) shall be in proportion to his / her / its shareholding in the paid-up equity share capital of the Company as on the cut-off date, i.e., Friday, July 17, 2026 ("Cut-off Date").

The Board of Directors of the Company has appointed Shri Virendra G. Bhatt, Company Secretary in Practice, (Membership No.: A 1157; Certificate of Practice No.: 124) or failing him Ms. Indrabala Javeri, Company Secretary in Practice, (Membership No.: A 2209, Certificate of Practice No.: 7245), as Scrutiniser to scrutinise the remote e-voting and Insta Poll process in a fair and transparent manner and they have communicated their willingness to be appointed and will be available for the said purpose. The Scrutiniser's decision on the validity of the votes cast through remote e-voting and Insta Poll shall be final.

NOTICE

(B) INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS RELATING TO E-VOTING:

- i. The Members who have cast their vote(s) by remote e-voting may also attend the Meeting but shall not be entitled to cast their vote(s) again at the Meeting.
- ii. Once the vote on a resolution is cast by a Member, whether partially or otherwise, the Member shall not be allowed to change it subsequently or cast the vote again.
- iii. A Member can opt for only single mode of voting, i.e., through remote e-voting or voting at the Meeting (Insta Poll). If a Member casts vote(s) by both modes, then voting done through remote e-voting shall prevail and vote(s) cast at the Meeting shall be treated as “INVALID”.
- iv. Only a person, whose name is recorded as on the Cut-off Date, in the Register of Members / Register of Beneficial Owners maintained by the Depositories, shall be entitled to avail the facility of remote e-voting or for participation at the AGM and voting through Insta Poll. A person who is not a member as on the Cut-off Date, should treat the Notice for information purpose only.

- v. The Company has opted to provide the same electronic voting system at the Meeting, as used during remote e-voting, and the said facility shall be operational till all the resolutions proposed in the Notice are considered and voted upon at the Meeting and may be used for voting only by the Members holding shares as on the Cut-off Date who are attending the Meeting and who have not already cast their vote(s) through remote e-voting.
