Annexure - I

Disclosure under Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015:

Sr. No.	Particulars	Details
1	Industry or area to which the new line of business belongs	The new line of business pertains to the polyester yarn manufacturing , specifically production of spun polyester yarn. This marks a value chain synchronisation of the Company's existing denim fabric manufacturing operations.
2	Expected benefits	The value chain synchronisation is intended to strengthen the Company's textile value chain by providing greater control over the sourcing and quality of yarn, improving supply-chain efficiencies, optimizing input costs and supporting the Company's manufacturing operations. This venture into polyester yarn manufacturing is a strategic move aimed at enhancing the Company's value proposition, improving profitability, and ensuring long-term sustainability. The expected benefits include: - Complete quality control of yarn manufacturing. - Better utilization of existing manufacturing infrastructure and human resources. - Diversification of revenue streams, reducing the impact of fabric market fluctuations.
3	Estimated amount to be invested	Currently Ricon Industries has invested approximately Rs. 25 crores as an initial capital outlay to cover machinery, skilled manpower, and infrastructure modifications. Further investments are proposed to be funded through a mix of internal accruals and/or debt, as may be appropriate. The company remains flexible in its approach and will scale operations in alignment with demand and capacity utilization.
