Subsequently, the Customs Department indicated that the Classification should be under 90191020 [Massage Apparatus] with the basic customs duty of 10%.

Upon receiving this information, the Company has duly paid the arrears of differential duty of 2.5% along with interest to the Customs Department.

There is no suppression of information etc. and the issue is only with reference to the change in the classification of products as indicated by the Customs Department.

However, the Customs Department has been insisting on the payment of penalty equivalent to 15% of the differential duty paid by the Company and the Company, suo motto, decided to pay the penalty and close the matter.
