O R D E R

Heard learned counsels for the parties.

2. We find that the present petition is unnecessarily pending before this Court as both the parties are not cooperating in the execution proceeding filed by the respondent which as of now, has stood dismissed and no final order is being passed on a petition filed by the respondent for restoration of the said execution proceeding. Thus, the Court was of the opinion that the present matter needs to be closed as for all practical purposes, it has become infructuous.

3. At this juncture, learned counsel for the respondent prays for one last indulgence to await final decision of the petition for restoration of the execution proceeding.

4. Having regard to the aforesaid, by way of last indulgence, the matter be listed on 27.07.2026.
