- Earnings per share is at 1.35, decreasing by 24.96% year-over-year

Management Commentary

The company's business outlook for FY 2026-27 is the strongest it has ever been since its inception. The company continues to make strong progress on new pursuits and opportunities, while maintaining strong financial discipline and a robust balance sheet. The company is excited about the growth opportunities over the next few years. Some specific commentary is as follows:

On Lower Profitability

- a) One-off provisioning was made on account of bad debts
- b) Financing charges (CGTMSE fee) for both FY 24-25 and FY 25-26 were booked in FY 25-26

On Subsidiaries Companies' Performance

- DMR's foray into geophysical studies, a specialized field of engineering and investigation, through its subsidiary company, DM Consulting Engineers Pvt Ltd, has shown good progress. DM Consulting Engineers registered revenues of ₹282.01 lakhs and profit after tax of 70.75 lakhs during FY25-26.

On Business Updates

- DMR has made considerable progress during the financial year to focus on high-quality assignments and clients in the geographies of Bhutan and South East Asia. This deliberate effort will hold DMR in a good position for years to come as the company plans to improve its business margins and focus on high-impact assignments.
- DMR has selectively pursued some EPC opportunities in India, where the company can leverage its deep experience in engineering as well as construction management. Company expects to achieve positive momentum on this front in near future.
- DMR continues to make investments into engineering capabilities by hiring and retaining engineering talent of high-quality depth.
