2. The case of the prosecution is that, on 25.02.2026, the de-facto complainant lodged a report before the police stating that, on the date of the alleged offence, while he was working in the Indian Oil Petrol Bunk, some unknown persons came there for petrol and he poured Rs.1500/- of petrol in their car and they gave Rs.500/- fake currency notes. 4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent of the said allegations and he is falsely implicated in the present case and he is no way connected with the alleged offence stated by the prosecution except stating that he is also involved in the said crime and there is no seizure of fake currency notes from the petitioner herein. He further submitted that he is in jail since 01.04.2026 and the material part of the investigation was already completed and the prime accused persons were already granted bail. Therefore, he prayed the Court to grant bail to him by allowing this criminal petition.

5. On the other hand, learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner stating that the allegations against the petitioner herein are serious and grievous in nature and the petitioner herein is also involved in the fake currency notes and he along with other accused conspired to circulate the fake currency notes to earn more money.
