Delhivery wins the Golden Peacock Award

A recognition of the principles that guide how we operate.

Delhivery Wins Golden Peacock Award for Excellence in Corporate Governance 2026

A national recognition of Delhivery's governance standards

GURUGRAM, INDIA, October 12, 2026: Delhivery has been recognized as the winner of the Golden Peacock Award for Excellence in Corporate Governance 2026 (National) in the Logistics sector, awarded by the Institute of Directors (IOD), India.

The Company has successfully met the rigorous standards and evaluation benchmarks of the Golden Peacock Excellence Model, reflecting a strong commitment to sustainability-driven excellence. The award has been adjudged by a distinguished jury under the Chairmanship of Hon'ble Justice Uday U. Lalit, Former Chief Justice of India.

Commenting on the recognition, Vivek Pabari, Chief Financial Officer, Delhivery, said, "The Golden Peacock Award for Excellence in Corporate Governance validates our emphasis on governance and inspires us to keep getting better every day. We are grateful to the esteemed jury and the Institute of Directors for this recognition."

Madhulika Rawat, Company Secretary and Compliance Officer, Delhivery, said, "Effective governance isn't just a policy; it's the foundation of every decision we make. Receiving this recognition from the Institute of Directors validates our continuous effort to set higher standards across our organization."

The Golden Peacock Awards were instituted by the Institute of Directors in 1991 and recognize organisations across a range of corporate excellence categories. The 2026 awards for Corporate Governance will be presented during the Annual London Global Convention on Corporate Governance & Sustainability in November 2026.
