Inflation to hurt FMCG demand this fiscal: P&G

VIVEAT SUSAN PINTO
Mumbai, June 16

PROCTER & GAMBLE Hygiene and Healthcare (PGHH) and Gillette India—listed entities of Procter & Gamble (P&G) India—said on Tuesday that they anticipated near-term challenges in FMCG demand in FY27 amid softening consumption trends visible across urban and rural markets. The slowing trend, they said in investor calls, was driven by an uptick in inflation rates impacted by evolving trade policies, commodity prices and the West Asia crisis.

PGHH and Gillette India will focus on an integrated strategy of driving superiority across products, packaging, brand communication, retail execution and value.

"Overall, we maintain a positive outlook on India's medium-term growth prospects, but we continue to monitor macro-economic risks and near-term uncertainties arising from it. We are also monitoring the West Asia crisis," PGHH and Gillette India leadership said in the calls led by MD and CEO of P&G India V. Kumar. "Non-food inflation continued to be within the RBI's medium-term range of 4%, but we will watch out for energy inflation. Also, rural consumption continues to be higher than urban consumption, but there is a softening trend in both areas. We will navigate the near-term difficulties taking a balanced approach to growth," PGHH incoming CFO Srividya Srinivasan said. Srinivasan is also the CFO of Gillette India. She takes over as PGHH CFO on July 1.

Kumar also flagged short consumer attention, which was becoming difficult to capture in a fragmented media landscape. Consumers, he said, had more access to information sources than before, forcing companies to work harder to stand out in a competitive landscape. "Retailers are becoming

The pact assumes significance as Inox Clean Energy, the renewable independent power producer and solar manufacturing arm of the INOXFLI Group, accelerates capacity additions under the group's recently launched 'One Integrated' renewable strategy. media platforms and media brands are becoming retailers. Access to assortment is more democratised than ever," he said, adding the two companies would focus on an integrated strategy which included focus on driving superiority across products, packaging, brand communication, retail execution and value. The US-based P&G crossed the $2-billion sales mark in India in FY24, more than three decades after entering the country. P&G India competes with Unilever's local unit Hindustan Unilever, which is over three times its size. PGHH has four units in India—PGHH and Gillette India as well as unlisted P&G Home Products and pharmaceuticals P&G Health. In FY26, PGHH delivered a mixed bag of results, seeing flat growth in sales to ₹4,300 crore and a 19% year-on-year jump in net profit to ₹50 crore. Gillette India delivered an 8% year-on-year top-line growth in FY26 to ₹3,100 crore, with net profit growth of 23% to ₹650 crore.
